Edison—Vaudeville.

Show Continues to Please.

The vaudeville performance at the Edison pleased large houses again last night. Morrell and Deely, in their great singing and witty comedy, were compelled to respond to encore after encore. Wallace and Beach, in their contortion and acrobatic act, are great. Helen Vance sings "Leave Her Picture on the Wall," a sweet song, sweetly sung, and beautifully illustrated. Cindarella on the Edisonscope, and Wallace and Beach, in an Irish comedy set complete one of the very best of vaudeville entertainment. Matinee today and souvenir matinee Saturday. Tomorrow night an entirely new show, with Majuna and her company of headliners.

X-RAYS

"Never put a Dutchman on the jury or a man who wears boots," says an old criminal lawyer.

B. S. Pague, "was" U. S. weather observer, who "has been" a practicing attorney, and who "is" the defeated candidate for school director, is said to be talking of going into the ministry. He thought he was popular, but he has decided that he needs to be a better man, morally, if not politically. It is hoped he will succeed. Because a man has failed in politics will not necessarily debar him from the ministry.

Clyde Atchison, secretary of the State Tax Commission, is the title expert of the Title, Guarantee and Trust Co., and that trust company has about 2000 pieces of property, including buildings like the Marquam Grand block, and the Chamber of Commerce. The trust company is Wm. M. Ladd, and Ladd is the trust company. Atchison is an expert on tax laws, and was employed compiling the code of Iowa. Ladd is the owner of great wealth, and it is supposed that great wealth is interested in taxing other great wealth, and hence the tax commission is destined to get the tax dodger on the breakers.

These two words, Schilling's Best, are perfect assurance of getting your money's worth.

To those who went to the Sullivan show last night expecting to find a rough house the show was a disappointment. To those who expected to see a regular boxing contest it was also a disappointment, but it is a good, clean show that any lady may attend without feeling that she is doing something risky. Sullivan made a very good talk, and, while the boxing was largely horse play, it still served to give one an idea of a real boxing contest. We cannot refrain from saying that the violin playing of Miss Louis Levy was exceptionally fine, for she is a top-notch. The cornet playing by Jules Levy is such as is seldom heard, and lovers of music certainly missed a treat. A Pleasant Way to Travel.

The above is the usual verdict of the traveler using the Missouri Pacific railway between the Pacific coast and the east, and we believe that the service and accommodations given merit this statement. From Denver, Colorado Springs and Denver there are two through trains daily to Kansas City and St. Louis, carrying Pullman's latest standard electric-lighted sleeping cars, chair cars and up-to-date dining cars. The same excellent service is operated from Kansas City and St. Louis to Memphis, Little Rock and Hot Springs. If you are going east or south, write for particulars and full information.
