THE WORK OF SACAJAWEA

Richard Lloyd Jones concludes his article on "Our North Coast Empire" in Collier's for June 17 by saying:

The Lewis and Clark expedition at Portland is great because of all it signifies. Let us not forget that a hundred years ago Briton and Frenchman and Spaniard were hammering at our gates. In our abundance and luxury let us recount those rugged days when Indians beleaguered our wooden castles and wolves pawed our cabin doors. It required hero stuff to build our North Coast Empire, and upon an immortal four will ever rest that glory: Thomas Jefferson, the nation builder; Meriwether Lewis and William Clark, the empire hunters, and the red skinned girl Sacajawea, who led them to their conquest. In all the annals of history there is no story to parallel that of the Indian bird-woman who more than once saved the heart of that great enterprise from swift decay, and even denied her own possum the long-saved crusts that the strength of our color-bearers might not fade. With but stretched arm she led a hostile race that they might build great cities over the graves of her kind. But for her the turrets and towers that rose along the trail might today fly the bunting of a foreign flag. She was the silent, faithful, untiring pathfinder who led the Stars and Stripes up Missouri's waters, over the great Rocky divide, and down the "Sunset River" to the great father of seas that while children might some day sing the song she herself had loved long before its words were framed. "My country, 'tis of thee, sweet land of liberty." She, like Columbus, believed that "One day with life and heart is more than time enough to find a world." In the heart of Jefferson's brave explorers she kept that spirit aflame. And so we celebrate.

HOUSEHOLD CARES.

Tax the Women of Salem the Same as Elsewhere.

Hard to attend to household duties with a constantly aching back. A woman should not have a bad back. And she wouldn't if the kidneys were well. Doan's Kidney Pills make well kidneys.

Mrs. Wm. Rainwater, wife of Wm. Rainwater, employed in Veal's Chair Factory, residing at 93 East First street, says: "My kidneys troubled me off and on for eight years. Every time I contracted a cold it settled on my kidneys, causing my back to ache often so badly that I could hardly get about to attend to my household duties. Accompanying this was a very annoying and distressing difficulty with the kidney secretions. I was treated by physicians and took a number of highly recommended remedies, but the relief I obtained was only temporary and I was about discouraged. Finally I read an advertisement about Doan's Kidney Pills, and got a box at Poshey & Mason's drug store and began their use. I expected some relief, of course, but to my surprise they went quickly to the root of the disease and I had no more trouble until recently I felt symptoms of a recurrence. Doan's Kidney Pills are the best kidney medicine I ever used, and I have recommended them to my neighbors."

For sale by all dealers. Price, 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.
