MARRIED.

HERMANN--WOODINGTON.--At the city Hall, June 20, 1905, Miss Lulu E. Woodington, of Silverton, to Claus W. Hermann, of Molalla, Clackamas county.

After the ceremony they went to the home of Mrs. M. Magers, the bride's grandmother, in Yew Park, where they were served a wedding luncheon.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Woodington, of Silverton, and a very popular young lady. The groom is an enterprising young farmer of Molalla. They will reside at that place.

Boise, Idaho, June 21.--The congressional party inspecting government irrigation projects arrived in Boise this morning. Monday and Tuesday they spent inspecting work at at Minidoka and Twin Falls. Today they are inspecting portions of the New York and Ridenbaugh canals.

W. R. R. Birks of Albany
Committed Suicide
Yesterday

W. R. R. Birks, for the past year a resident of this city, where he conducted a dray business until last Saturday, committed suicide yesterday afternoon, by shooting himself in the head and left breast with a revolver, and died after several hours, during which time he was unconscious. Mr. Birks was in his usual good spirits during the forenoon, and was engaged in trying to perfect a deal for the Walker & Snyder store, and, with the deal unperfected, he went home about 1:30 o'clock. He spoke pleasantly to some of his children as he entered the house, then passed upstairs, sat down on the side of the bed and shot himself. His oldest son, a youth of 20, was down town at the time; another son, aged 18 years, had gone to Yamhill county earlier in the day, and the daughters and smaller sons were in the house when the father shot himself. Medical attendance was at once secured, but nothing could be done to save the man's life.

Mr. Birks had been in poor health for some time, and this, with grief for his loved ones, who had passed away, and a general disposition to worry over business affairs, is supposed to be responsible for his rash act, which was committed in a fit of despondency. He was a member of the Woodmen of the World and the Women of Woodcraft, carrying in the two orders $5000 insurance in favor of his children. In addition he leaves them the farm in Yamhill county and other property valued at fully $12,000.--Albany Herald.

THE TURNER CAMPMEETING.

The Largest Church Building in the State.

The Turner campmeeting of the Christian church will begin tomorrow evening, when the first services will be held in the Turner Memorial tabernacle, the largest church building in the state, with a seating capacity of 3500. J. V. Coombs, of Milton, general evangelist of the church, will preach the opening sermon, on "The Great Teacher." The principal speaker at the ten days' meetings will be Rev. J. A. Lord, of Cincinnati, editor of the largest paper of the Christian church, The Christian Standard.

The tents at the Turner camp grounds are already filling, and the indications are that this year's annual meeting will be the best attended and most interesting in the history of the church in this state. Many of the Salem members of the church will go to Turner for the ten days' meeting, and some of them have already gone there to pitch their tents.

Prominent Southerners Wed.

Richmond, Va., June 21.--A notable wedding here today was that of Mrs. Herbert A. Claiborne, daughter of Colonel Coulter Cabell, of South Carolina, and the national president of the Colonial Dames of America, to General William R. Cox, a former member of congress, and one of the wealthiest planters of North Carolina. The marriage ceremony was performed by Bishop Chesire, of North Carolina. The guests included the prominent society folks of half dozen states.

Beautiful Lot of Cherries.

The Capital Commission Company is doing some fine fruit packing. This afternoon there was a box of Royal Anne cherries, containing 30 pounds, that was a thing of beauty, the box is 11x18 inches inside, and the facing layer of cherries are packed in straight rows each way across the box, it taking 12 rows one way and 18 the other. In other words, there were about the same number of cherries as square inches. It can't be beaten anywhere.

Tough on the Heathen.

Chefoo, June 21.--Local missionaries, who previous to the war, had stations in Korea and Manchuria, complain they are unable to secure mission funds from Port Arthur banks, the books of which are being held by the Japanese. The banks claim they are powerless to settle the bank's affairs or pay out money.

Chicago Strike Matters.

Chicago, June 21.--Thirty wagons of the American Express Company were blocked by teamsters at Clinton and West Van Buren streets for several hours this morning. A mob of several hundred strike sympathizers surrounded the wagons and resisted the deputies. The police finally dispersed the crowd and released the wagons.

Seven Marriage Licenses Issued, and More to Come

Today is surely marriage license day at the Marion county court house, for the clerk's office has been a busy place all the forenoon, and about the only business transacted was the issuance of licenses. Clerk Roland and his deputies were considerably enthused over the situation, and think that it is not only a good thing for the county treasury, but that it's a good thing on general principles. Surely there's millions in it. Let the good work go on. Below is a list of the happy people who are involved:

Anna O. Momp to Wenzel Stirber.
H. Louise Southwick to J. A. H. Baird.
Mattie Southwick to Wm. R. Norwood.

Lena Giger to Chas. LaFlemme, aged 17 and 19, respectively.

H. Edwards to Bertha Eoff.
Cora M. Moore to E. R. Todd.

Clara B. Welch to Henry Fleischauer.

Three Thousand Brawny German Turners in Indianapolis

Indianapolis, Ind., June 21.--Three thousand German turners and several times that number of other visitors are in Indianapolis for the twenty-ninth annual national assembly of the North American Gymnastic Union. The visitors come from every section of the United States, though the cities having a large population, such as Cincinnati, New York, Cleveland, Milwaukee, St. Louis and Chicago, are naturally the best represented. As special guests of the occasion there is a delegation of German turners from the fatherland.

The business district of the city is tastefully decorated in honor of the visitors. Myriads of American and German flags and festoons of red, white and black bunting meet the eye at every turn. At four of the principal street intersections have been erected colossal statues typifying the German idea of physical culture.

The competitions and drills will be inaugurated at the state fair grounds tomorrow and will continue through the remainder of the week. Teams and whole societies, some including 400 people, will participate, and there will be events which will show the entire 3000 in beautiful formations.

The festival will be formally opened tonight with a torchlight procession through the downtown streets. Herman Liber, president of the North American Turnerbund, will deliver an address in Monument Place, and Mayor Holtzman will welcome the visitors to the city. Following these formalities there will be a concert in the German House.

The programme for the remaining days of the festival is as follows: parade, with floats and costumes; 2 P. M.--Beginning of the tournaments and contests; 8 P. M.--Contests in oratory and declamation. Vocal concert.

Friday--7 A. M.--Continuation of the gymnastic contests; 2 P. M.--Conclusion of the gymnastic contests; 8 P. M.--Production of festival play at opera house.

Saturday--8 A. M.--Popular gymnastic exercises and field contests, at the Turner Park; 2 P. M.--Mass gymnastic exhibitions by seniors, women and children; 5 P. M.--Mass exercises and drills by all the turners, numbering at least 3000; 8 P. M.--Informal reception to visitors at the German House, South Side Turner Hall and the Independent Turner Hall.

Sunday--10 A. M.--Meeting for pioneer members of the North American Turnerbund; 2 P. M.--Open air entertainment, addresses, singing, gymnastic exhibitions and other features, in Germania Park; 6 P. M.--Announcement and distribution of prizes for the different contests, consisting of diplomas and laurel wreaths. The laws of the Turnerbund forbid the giving of prizes having a pecuniary value.

Monday--Trips to points of interest in the city. Informal closing of the assembly in Turner Park.
