Edison—Vaudeville.

MAJUNA, THE INDIAN GIRL.

Only Indian Girl in Vaudeville. Will Appear at the Edison Tonight.

The management of the Edison has been very fortunate in securing the wonderful Indian girl and her splendid company of actors. This turn is one of the most expensive, and considered one of the best on the vaudeville stage today. Another great and sensational feature of the bill are Zat Zams, knife throwers extraordinary. This act, for one of its kind, has no equal, and has won applause at all the best vaudeville houses in the world. The management is able to secure these great acts by being affiliated with the new $1000 vaudeville combination of the Pacific coast. The illustrated song is one entirely new, entitled "Mamma's Boy," and the motion pictures shows the trials and tribulations of poor old Robinson Crusoe. Remember the souvenir matinee Saturday, when a picture of F. J. Byrd will be given to each person present.

Are the Colored Races Doomed?

(Max Nordau.)

Looking forward into the future, one often thinks of how future generations will solve the question of food supply when the old countries of the world have become so crowded that they can no longer feed themselves.

Here one of the laws of nature will come into operation. The excess of the European population will flow out of the continent is offered by the colored races, and these, therefore, are of necessity doomed first of all to be dislodged by the sons of the white race and then to be annihilated.

The feeling of mutual responsibility which is gradually being embraced by all Europeans will not extend to the colored races. That uniformity of civilization which makes the peoples of Europe like to one another will not subside between these and the inhabitants of the remaining continents.

The application of force, which in Europe will be prospectless, will guarantee an easy success beyond its bounds. The European emigrant will not remove out of the temperate zone, which is the most beneficial and agreeable to him, farther than may be absolutely necessary. He will the first of all settle the whole of North America and Australia and the whole of Africa and America south of the Torrid zone. Then he will take possession of the southern coasts of the Mediterranean sea and penetrate into the more hospitable portions of Asia.

The natives will first of all try to organize resistance, but will soon see that their only salvation is in flight. They will retreat before the Europeans and in their turn overwhelm the smaller and feebler landholders, treating them in the same way as they themselves have been treated by the stronger whites.

Every generation, however, will produce in Europe a fresh, superfluous swarm of human beings who will have to emigrate. The new torrent will mount up beyond the highest watermark of the earlier stream, and the summits of European civilization will press farther and farther into foreign continents, always more and more approximating the equator.

The inferior races will soon completely perish. I fail to see any hope of deliverance for them.

SOCIAL EVENTS

Welch-Fleischauer Wedding.

One of the prettiest June weddings took place at the home of A. Welch, corner of Cottage and Marion streets last evening, when Miss Clara Welch was united in marriage to Mr. Henry G. Fleischauer, Rev. Errett, pastor of the First Christian church performing the ceremony in the presence of a large number of relatives and friends.

The Welch home was beautifully decorated throughout. The hall was a mass of beautiful palms. The parlors were in white and green, roses and ferns being used in abundance. At 8 o'clock Miss Helen McCoy played Lohengrin's wedding march and the bridal party entered the parlors and stood beneath a huge bell of cream roses where Rev. Errett performed the ring ceremony. The bride was attended by Miss Jean McMurdo, of Baker City, and Mr. Guy Clark, of this city, acted as the groom's best man. Little Miss Gladys Welch, niece of the bride, was ring bearer.

The bride wore a handsome gown of white crepe de chine over silk, and carried cream rose buds. The bridesmaid wore a pretty dress of soft white silk and carried pink carnations.

After the ceremony refreshments were served in the dining room, which was elaborately decorated, one being all in sweet peas, while the other was beautifully arranged with LaFrance roses. Four little girls dressed in white served. The punch room was presided over by Miss Etta Welch.

Many telegrams of congratulations were received from relatives and friends, who were unable to attend, and the gifts were many and beautiful.

The young couple are well-known in this city. The bride is the sister of Mr. A. Welch, manager of the Citizens' Light & Traction Co., and is a most charming young lady, who has scores of friends. She has held for some time the position of bookkeeper at the light office.

Miss Cora Moore and Dr. E. B. Todd were married at the home of the officiating clergyman, Rev. W. C. Kautner, at 2:30 o'clock yesterday, only a few relatives being present.

Both the young people are well and favorably known in this city. The bride has lived in this city for several years and has many friends. The groom is a graduate of the medical college of Willamette University. The young couple will reside at Adams, Umatilla County. They left en route to that place last evening.
