A Beautiful Salem Home.

Salem has many beautiful residences, no city of its size anywhere excelling it, and the number of buildings now being erected indicate not only a rapid and steady growth for Salem, but the substantial character of the many beautiful residences under construction, tell of a wealthy country and a prosperous people. Among the new buildings there is none that will excel that of Mr. Henry Wenderoth, on Cottage street, now nearly completed. Mr. Wenderoth and his estimable wife were the nucleus around which that part of the city grew, moving there about 16 years ago. There were no near neighbors, but now stately residences, beautiful lawns and waving shade trees make it one of the prettiest sections of the city. Last winter Mr. Wenderoth concluded to build another and larger home, and early in the spring a contract was let for the present building. It is a splendid two-story 9-room house, with basement. The foundation is of stone and brick, and the basement floors cement. A broad porch extends around two sides of the house, and from the wide hall a broad stairway leads to the upper story. The house is most conveniently arranged with closets to delight a housekeeper's breast, porcelain bath tub, water up stairs and down, pipes and plumbing for furnace heating, broad kitchen porch, and the kitchen furnished with sink and pantry, and everything to make the work the lightest. The house is hard finished throughout.

Plenty of Graduates.

An invitation to attend the commencement exercises of the law department of the University of Michigan, at Ann Arbor, was received at this office today. There are 237 graduates, and among this number is Raymond A. Kerr, who is well known in this city. He is a brother of Prof. L. A. Kerr, and was graduated from Willamette University in 1902, and Ohio Wesleyan in 1903.

The Dalles, Or., June 23, 1905.—To the Salem Journal: The 52d session of the Oregon annual conference of United Brethren in Christ met at The Dalles at 8 a. m., Bishop W. M. Bell in the chair. After the devotional exercises were conducted by N. J. Crawford, of Salem, the conference roll was called. The reports of preachers without charges was then taken up, followed by pastors' reports. The afternoon session was taken up by pastors' reports and committee reports. Most of the reports are encouraging, some especially so. The conference seems to have a great deal of the missionary spirit, and promises well for the future of the church. MINTA SWABB, Com.

Close Sunday Evening.

The closing meeting of the Martin-McVay services will be held tomorrow evening, and there will, no doubt, be a large crowd present. After a few days spent at the Turner campmeeting, Rev. Martin will go to his home in Seattle to visit for awhile. He will then return and conduct meetings at Silverton.

Easy to Economize.

A friend writing The Journal this morning says: "The Oregonian yesterday bragged, as it has done several times of its stenographic report of the land fraud trials. It also, with a boastful wail, pointed to the great expense made necessary by so full a report. Readers appreciate this, but it can be shown that the appropriation may be economized and the service much improved by omitting all editorial remarks and the several three-column summaries."

SOCIAL EVENTS

Afternoon Reception.

Mrs. Clarence S. Hamilton and Mrs. Chas. Weller gave a most delightful "At Home" at the home of the former, corner of Front and Chemeketa streets, yesterday afternoon.

The spacious residence was beautifully decorated for the occasion, the porches were enclosed with Yador shades, and comfortable seats were placed everywhere. The flower decorations made them perfect bowers. The reception room was adorned with roses, ferns and palms. The front parlor was fragrant with ocean spray and pink roses, while the dining room was a profusion of sweet peas. The library where the musicians were seated, was all in red, crimson rambler being the main decorations. Everything was beautiful and tastefully arranged. The refreshments consisted of delicious cakes and ices.

The hostesses were assisted in receiving by Mrs. E. M. Waite, Mrs. Max O. Buren, Mrs. Weller's sisters, Miss Chamberlain, Mrs. C. B. Moores, Mrs. Geo. W. Belt, of Spokane, Wash., Mrs. M. L. Chamberlain, Mrs. Edward Weller, Miss Elma Weller and Mrs. Geo. H. Burnett.

Misses Gertrude Moores and Edna Byrd, of Spokane, Wash., served punch. Two hundred and seventy-five invitations were issued, many of the guests were from out of town. The reception was especially pleasant, in that it brought together friends that had not met for many years, and it was a delightfully informal occasion. Nothing could have been lovelier than the day, which was auspicious. Many handsome gowns were worn, and it will long be remembered as one of the pleasantest social events in the city.

Gardner-Stayton Wedding.

A beautiful wedding was solemnized at the home of the bride's parents in Stayton, when Miss Ethel Gardner was married to Mr. Charles D. Stayton. Wednesday evening at 8:30 o'clock.

The ceremony was performed on the lawn under a large arch of maiden-hair fern, with a background of the same. Suspended from the arch was a large horseshoe of roses, and the whole effect was indeed lovely.

Miss Carrie Miller played the wedding march, and the ceremony was performed by Rev. Crandall, pastor of the Methodist church, in the presence of about 60 guests.

The bride wore a handsome gown of champagne colliene over ecru silk, and carried carnations. Her sister, Miss Veva Gardner, attended her, wearing a pretty dress of blonde crepe de chine over reseda silk, and carried LaFrance roses. Mr. Giles Thomas was the best man. Little Miss Leone Stayton, sister of the groom, acted as flower girl, and scattered roses in the path of the bridal party.

After the ceremony a reception was held in the house. The parlors were elaborately decorated in green and pink, beautiful vines and LaFrance roses, carrying out the color scheme very nicely. The sitting room was decorated with a profusion of crimson rambler roses, and ocean spray, while the dining room was in white and green. The special feature of the room was the bride's table, where the bridal party and guests of honor were served. The centerpiece was a large bouquet of LaFrance roses, and the bride's cake adorned the table. The other guests were served at small tete-a-tete tables.

The presents received were many and beautiful.

Both the young people are well-known in this city. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Gardner, of Stayton, and attended Willamette University here for several years, where she made many friends by her sweet and loving disposition and charming manner. The groom is a young business man of Stayton, and a man of sterling qualities. They left Thursday for Portland, where they will spend their honeymoon, after which they will reside at Stayton.

Farewell Reception.

A pleasant reception was held at the rooms of the Y. M. C. A., last evening by the ladies of the auxiliary in honor of Mr. and Mrs. John Fechter. The rooms were decorated with flowers and vines in an attractive manner, and Wenger's orchestra discoursed music throughout the evening.

A large number of ladies and gentlemen were present and the evening was one of enjoyment. Refreshments were served.

Mr. and Mrs. Fechter leave soon for California, where they will visit, after which they will return here for a short time before going to Mr. Fechter's new field of labor.

At Home.

Cards are out announcing the "At Home" at which Mrs. Albert N. Moores, Mrs. Charles N. Welverton and WOMEN SUFFER NEEDLESS MISERY.

There are hundreds of thousands of women in America suffering from Female Diseases, endangering their lives by doing nothing. If they write to me I will give them the benefit of my extensive experience.—S. B. Hartman, M. D.

IN view of the great multitude of women suffering from some form of female disease and yet unable to find any cure, Dr. Hartman, the renowned gynecologist, has announced his willingness to direct the treatment of as many cases as make application to him during the summer months without charge.

The treatment will be conducted by correspondence.

The medicines prescribed can be obtained at all drug stores.

The Doctor will prescribe all medicines, applications, hygienic and dietary regulations necessary to complete a cure. Furthermore, all correspondence will be held strictly confidential.

This offer will hold good only during the summer months. Any woman can become a regular patient by sending a written statement of her age, condition of life, history and symptoms of her derangements, and previous treatment.

Pe-ru-na Brought Health and Happiness.

Miss Nellie South, late of Manchester, Eng., writes from 86 Prince Arthur St., Montreal, Can., as follows:

"Pe-ru-na has made a wonderful change in my life. It has brought me health and happiness."

"Since my seventeenth year I have had female complaint and irregularities. My general health suffered, I had pains in my back and lower limbs, my eyes were dim, and I became morose and unreasonable."

"Mother sought the advice of our family physician, who prescribed for me, but I grew no better."

"I then read of Pe-ru-na and procured a bottle. That one bottle was worth more than all the doctor's medicine I had taken previously."

"I cannot express my gratitude. Pe-ru-na has been a great blessing to me."—Nellie South.

Miss Edna Moore, 46 Elm street, Buffalo, N. Y., Secretary East End Literary Association, writes:

"I was a great sufferer from systemic catarrh, was extremely nervous, could not sleep, fainted easily, was very irritable, had a confusion of the senses, and got up in the morning feeling more tired than when I went to bed."

"I was very wretched, but upon taking Pe-ru-na I began to improve, and after using the medicine four months, I felt like a new woman and was completely cured."—Edna Moore.

The principal remedy which Dr. Hartman relies upon in curing catarrhal diseases of women is Pe-ru-na. Hundreds of women sufferers find Pe-ru-na a household necessity.

MISS Angelina Grotten, 305 St. Urbain

street, Montreal, Can., writes: "Having heard Pe-ru-na praised so highly induced me to try it for my cold, and pains in the groins with which I had been suffering for months. It took nearly three bottles to cure me, but I consider that was but a short time, as I have often taken doctors' prescriptions for months before I got relief."—Angelina Grotten.

As is well known, Dr. Hartman is the President of the Hartman Sanitarium, an institution which has a department devoted to the treatment of female diseases.

He is thus brought to see thousands of such cases every year, the most of whom return to their homes to be treated by correspondence.

Those wishing to become patients should address Dr. S. B. Hartman, Columbus, Ohio.

Half of Woman's Ills are Catarrh and for Catarrh Pe-ru-na is Unrivaled.

We have on file thousands of testimonials like the ones given here. We can give our readers only a slight glimpse of the vast array of unsolicited endorsements we are constantly receiving. No other physician in the world has received such a volume of enthusiastic letters of thanks as Dr. Hartman for Pe-ru-na.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Mary Reed, who passed away in this city Wednesday evening, was held at the Leonard Hotel parlors today, and interment will be made in the Silverton cemetery. Rev. She had requested that the songs, "Lead Kindly Light" and "One by One Our Loved Ones Leave Us," be sung, and this request was carried out, also another one, that her brother and three brothers-in-law act as pallbearers. The floral offerings were many and beautiful.
