Edison—Vaudeville.

EDISON CROWDED AGAIN.

Princess Majuna and Her Company the Best Ever Presented at the Edison.

Vaudeville of the very best quality is what you get at the cozy little theatre this week, for all the acts appearing there are star acts, even the motion pictures are extraordinarily good. Majuna is the only Indian girl actress on the vaudeville stage, is a very beautiful woman, and an accomplished actress. Her sketch is great, and her supporting company is excellent. Yesterday Majuna visited the Indian school, where she was royally entertained. Tomorrow night is her last appearance in Salem, and no doubt the Edison will be packed to the doors at every performance, both tonight and tomorrow. The Zat Zams are a wonderful team. Zat Zam is a marvelous manipulator of high knives. His act is hard to explain. It must be seen to be appreciated. The new fan added last night, in addition to the other fans, kept the back of the theatre, under the balcony, cool and comfortable.

TWO WHEELS ARE FOUND.
But Disappear Before the Police Can Surround Them.

Geo. Steele, who lives north of town near the river, discovered a man's and a ladies' wheel hid in the brush just under the bank, early this morning. He came to town and reported his find to the police, but when they went to get them the wheels were gone. Although Mr. Steele did not take the number, the police are certain that these wheels are among the number that have been stolen recently. The ladies' wheel was a Tribune.

Refused to Advertise

A special to the Indianapolis News from Marion, Ind., says that after a hard fight of seventeen years against competitors who advertised, Gunder Bros., dry goods merchants, the oldest mercantile firm in Marion and at one time the largest retail house in northern Indiana, have given up the hopeless struggle and sold out their business.

When gas was discovered in Marion the town began to grow rapidly, and competition in all business was soon encountered by all the old local merchants. The new merchants advertised, but many of the old established firms were slow in believing that it was necessary for them to use printer's ink, as they knew nearly every man in the county. All of them who are now in business concluded that it was necessary to advertise in order to hold what trade they had and to increase it, except Gunder Bros., who absolutely refused, claiming it was money thrown away. The firm had the best business site in the city, but the store was never filled with shoppers. Thousands passed and repassed the place day after day without stopping. The firm carried an excellent line of goods and treated customers well, but only a few farmers and some of the old citizens of Marion patronized the place. The store is now closed for notice.

Most merchants now agree that advertising is a necessity and that the best medium is the local paper.
