AMUSEMENTS.

TONIGHT. Edison—Vaudeville. ENTIRE CHANGE OF PROGRAM. Splendid Show Booked for This Half of the Week at the Edison.

Walsh and Maitland, a very fine team of comedians and acrobats, head the bill at the Edison this part of the week, including Thursday, Friday, Saturday and Sunday nights and Saturday matinee. The Ryersons, hypnotic marvels, perform feats one of which is the breaking of 200-pound rocks on Miss Ryerson's chest with a sledge hammer.

New Edison Theatre

F. J. Byrd, Manager. Thursday, Friday, Saturday and Sunday nights and Saturday matinee. WALSH AND MAITLAND. Song and dance and acrobatic medians par excellence. THE RYERSONS. Hypnotic marvels, breaking a 200-pound stone on Miss Ryerson's chest, and a number of other equally surprising feats. WILEY LENERT. Wire walker of international reputation. F. J. BYRD. Singing illustrated song entitled "A Little Boy Called Taps."

Fish Obstructed. Local fishermen, people who like to take a day's recreation on the river with rod and line occasionally, not professional fishermen, are complaining that the fishing in the upper river is being ruined, owing to the fact that fish are not able to get over the Golden Drift dam, near Grants Pass, and that the company owning the dam have so far failed to provide an adequate fishway. Complaint has been made several times concerning this matter, and a movement is now on foot here to bring the case before the courts. If fish could pass this dam easily they would have no trouble in reaching the upper river.—Medford Mail.

A Fearful Fate. It is a fearful fate to have to endure the terrible torture of Piles. "I can truthfully say," writes Harry Colson, of Masonville, Ia., "that for Blind, Bleeding, Itching and Protruding Piles, Bucklen's Arnica Salve, is the best cure made." Also best for cuts, burns and injuries. 25c at J. C. Perry's Drug Store.

Wm. Wallace Graham will give a pupils' recital at the Presbyterian church on Saturday evening, July 1st, to which everyone is invited.

A Portland paper says: Owing to low water the boats operated by the Oregon City Transportation company will not go farther up the Willamette than Salem, until next fall, when the rains are expected to swell the stream. Until then the towns of Corvallis, Albany and Independence will be obliged to depend on the railroad for transportation facilities.

This is a little difficult to reconcile with the fact that the government is putting in the entire month dredging between Salem and Independence. According to Major Langfitt, a channel is opened or will be in a few days through every bar between Salem and Independence, eight feet deep and four feet above low water mark. What depth do the boats want to enable them to run?—West Side Enterprise.

Maud—Isn't 5 and 30 too old to hope for any improvement? I should say not. One just begins to live. Take Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea. You will be blooming and fair at 60. 35 cents, Tea or Tablets. Stone's Drug Store.

Supreme Court Listens. Three cases were argued before the supreme court yesterday, as follows: A. A. Kaddery, et al., vs. The City of Portland; W. H. Holmes vs. A. G. Wolfard; and C. A. Schibredre vs. George Chamberlain, et al. The last case is one in which Schibredre is suing the state land board for the possession of land upon which they allege that he failed to make payments when they became due, and thus forfeited it. The land has since been sold to another man.

Why suffer with your stomach, kidneys and liver when Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea will make you well. If taken this month, keeps you well all summer. 35 cents, Tea or Tablets. Stone's Drug Store.

Easterers Are Well Pleased. A party of seven people from Aberdeen, South Dakota, touring the West and seeing the country as they go, are stopping at the Salem Hotel for a few days. The party consists of John Makers and wife, Jo' a Breidenbach and wife, A. A. Schmidt, A. C. Schmidt and Frank Moser. They came directly from California here, and express themselves as being as well pleased with the country around Salem as any they have ever seen.

If fortune disregards thy claim, Don't hang thy head in fear and shame, But marry the girl that you love best; Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea will do the rest. Stone's Drug Store.

SOCIAL EVENTS

Miss Cox's Recital.

The pupils of Miss Eva Cox gave a most enjoyable recital at the Unitarian church Tuesday evening, which was well attended. She was assisted by Miss Gertrude Johnson, as reader, who gave "Knee Deep in June," by James Whitecomb Riley, which was much enjoyed. Miss Johnson has a wonderful talent, and she charms her hearers.

The musical part of the program consisted of 15 numbers, which were well rendered, showing much talent and careful preparation. Many of the pupils deserve special notice on account of their perfect understanding in one so young. Those appearing on the program were Joy Turner, Maude Hill, Mildred Looney, Frances Smith, Lillian Slater, Sylvia Murphy, Helene Dalrymple, Murah Hatch, Harold Hatch, Ada Coleman, Gladys Reynolds, Carolyn Dick, Olive Reynolds, Lela Slater, Elizabeth Harding, Mary Davidson, Alice Clough and Blanche Brown.

Paine-Topping Wedding.

One of the notable society weddings of the year was the marriage of Miss Carrie Paine, of Eugene, to Dr. Frank P. Topping, of San Francisco, at the home of the bride's parents at Eugene Wednesday.

The residence was beautifully decorated with cut flowers, in which sweet peas, roses and poppies predominated. At 10:30 Miss Lillian Metschan, of Portland, played Lohengrin's wedding march as the bridal party entered the parlors. The matron of honor, Mrs. Luke L. Goodrich, preceded the bride. They were met at the altar by the groom and his best man, Elmer Paine, brother of the bride. Dr. D. E. Loveridge, rector of St. Mary's Episcopal church, pronounced the ring ceremony. The company present was a noteworthy one, many handsome gowns being in evidence. The bride wore a beautiful costume of white Dresden silk, and carried a shower bouquet of white jasmine. The matron of honor wore a handsome costume of white organdie net. She carried pink bride's roses. Miss Zida Goldsmith caught the bride's bouquet.

After the wedding ceremony a wedding luncheon was served. Misses Erma Church, Theresa and Rosalie Friendly, Sibyl and Mabel Kuykendall, Lillian Metschan and Lulu Renshaw assisted in serving.

Many beautiful and costly presents were received. The young couple are spending a short time in Portland and other points, and will soon leave for San Francisco, where they will make their home.

The bride is a daughter of Dr. and Mrs. D. A. Paine, formerly of this city, but now of Eugene, and is a charming and accomplished young woman, with scores of friends.

The groom is a prominent doctor of San Francisco, and prominent in society circles.

Stuart-Davis Wedding.

Dr. W. H. Davis, mayor of Albany, and Miss Loretta Stuart were married at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. J. R. Stuart, yesterday, Rev. Clark Bower performing the ceremony in the presence of a number of relatives and friends. Miss Vera Stuart was bridesmaid, while Mr. J. M. Warfield acted as best man. Miss Hattie Parker played the wedding march. Just before the wedding ceremony Miss Ethel Redfield rendered a solo, followed by Mrs. R. L. Burkhart after the ceremony.

The ceremony was followed by a wedding luncheon, after which the couple left for Portland, where they will spend a few days.

The groom is one of the leading citizens and physicians of Albany, and a most popular man. The bride is a charming and accomplished young lady, and has been employed as a teacher in the public schools of Albany for several years. Both are well known in this city.

Bushnell-Hewitt.

The home of Judge H. H. Hewitt, on South Ferry street, in Albany, was the scene of a very pretty wedding last evening, when his daughter, Miss Olga Hewitt became the wife of Prof. Chas. J. Bushnell, of Tiffin, Ohio. A large number of people, from Albany and out of town, were present at the wedding. Rev. H. A. Nelson performed the ring service at 8:30 o'clock, and the bridal party stood under a canopy covered with white ribbons and floral decorations in the parlors. Mrs. C. E. Sox rendered a beautiful solo just before the service, and Miss Hattie Parker played the wedding march. Miss Inez Hewitt, of Portland, was maid of honor and the bridesmaids were Nellie Hogue, Grace Payne, Edna Allen and Hortense Greffox. Little Hortense Hogue was the flower girl. The groom was attended by Owen Beam as best man, and the ushers were Phil Goodwin, Neal Murray, Elvin Crutehfield and Charles Stewart.

Commercial Club Tonight.

There will be an important meeting of the Commercial Club this evening. Members of some of the labor organizations of the city are interesting themselves in a working man's celebration here at home, instead of having all the places of business closed up and everybody going to Portland or leaving the town. Members of the club and business men, and members of the labor organization and workmen generally are urged to attend the meeting this evening, at the city police court room at 8 o'clock, and have the matter discussed.

The bride is the only daughter of Judge H. H. Hewitt, and is a most charming and accomplished young woman. She is a graduate of the Albany college and also of Mills college, California. The groom is a professor of social science and history at Heidelberg University, Tiffin, Ohio, where they will reside. They will spend the summer in Albany.
