 The Lewis and Clark fair broke all admission records on the Fourth. It also broke a good many visitors.

 The scent of roses is better than the smell of punk and powder, anyway. Glad the old Fourth is over.

 When the robins nest again what will become of the seats in the park? It may require an X-Ray to illuminate this query unless you go to the park.

 District Attorney Henry makes a nice discrimination, being punctilious in his observance of official precedence, Senator Mitchell, Congressman Williamson, State Senators Brownell and Pierce Mays and then everyday people.

GOOD SHOW TONIGHT.
 Program Arranged for This Half of the Week Is One of the Best.
 Baxter and Chadwick head the new bill at the Edison theatre, and they make one of the funniest and best teams that ever struck Salem. Their act is called "The Gent and the Tramp," and is built for laugh-producing purposes only. Arthur Searles, in a bright monologue, will occupy the stage for a few minutes each show, and, judging from his past successes, should please all. As a special feature Mr. Searles will sing two of his favorite songs, illustrated. Miss Mack will present a new act to Salem, an Indian impersonation. Her sweet voice will be heard to great advantage in both Indian and classic songs and ballads. The great Baxter will entertain in his inimitable way, and the Edisonoscope will close a bill that is chock full of the best in vaudeville. Prize matinee Saturday at 3:15 p. m.

 A death at Turner Wednesday got mixed up with a very much alive lady at Salem. By some mistake Mrs. Ramp's name was substituted for Grand ma Hall's, and B. F. Ramp and family and Harrison Jones and family, of Brooks, came up to attend the funeral and found her alive and well.

The Side Delivery Windrower and Buncher

HERE IS AN ATTACHMENT THAT FITS THE CUTTER BAR OF ANY MOWER, AND DELIVERS THE HAY IN WINDROWS OR BUNCHES AT THE REAR OF THE MOWER WHERE IT IS THOROUGHLY CURED WITHOUT BEING BURNED TO A CRISP. FOR CLOVER OR LIGHT CROPS OF ANY SORT, IT IS INVALUABLE, BUT IT WILL HANDLE HAY OF ANY WEIGHT. IT SAVES ENOUGH EXTRA SEED IN A CLOVER CROP TO PAY FOR ITSELF IN A FEW ACRES, AS THE HORSES DO NOT TRAMPLE IT OUT ON THE SUCCEEDING ROUND, AND THERE IS NOT THE DEAD GRASS AND TRASH BAKED UP AS IN THE CASE WITH THE DUMP RAKE. CALL AND SEE THIS.
