AMUSEMENTS.

TONIGHT.
Edison—Vaudeville.

POLLY SHOW AT THE EDISON.
Crowded Houses Prove How Popular
Vaudeville Is In Salem.

If you like good singing and clean, clever comedy, go to the Edison this half of the week. The bill is a comedy, singing bill of especial excellence. Baxter and Shadrick as "The Gent and the Tramp," made a big hit, their singing being a feature. Arthur Searles delighted the audience with his rich baritone voice, and in his monologue and imitations created many a laugh. Miss Mack made a very pretty Indian maiden, and the dance she introduced around the campfire was weird and pleasing. Baxter, single, scored with a neat song and dance. He is the possessor of a fine tenor voice. The Edisonoscope shows the late President McKinley making his last speech at Buffalo, and the funeral at Canton. Matinee Saturday as usual. Prize for the girls and one for the boys.

X-RAYS

Now bossy will you be good.
The cabinet has again taken Root.
And the goat butted into the ordinance, too.
The cow is a good milker, but the goat is a better butter.
When Loomis is on shipboard, it is safe to say he is not "treading on dangerous ground."
And the patient mule, the maligned Maud S, finds her name on the scroll of fame in the city ordinances.

Congressman Williamson steps into the lime light today. From the show bills he will do a very strenuous stunt.

The editor of Harper's insists that the late John Hay was the author of the novel "Bread Winners." He ought to be prosecuted for taking advantage of the dead.

Now that Sacajawea has been "monumentalized" let us give the saddle-colored "bird woman" a rest, remembering that there are other women alive who are birds.

Every one taking part in the program on the Fourth was either in the newspaper business or connected with it. Mrs. Minnie DeLong-Wells was a typo. D'Arcy and Davy and Manning, the orators, Averill, who gave the recitation, and Snyder, who sang, the whole batch newspaper men. No wonder the celebration was a success.

I'll brave the storms of Chilkoot Pass, I'll cross the plains of frozen glass, I'd leave my wife and cross the sea, Rather than be without Rocky Mountain Tea.

Mining Man Arrested.
J. L. Freeland yesterday evening filed a complaint in the justice court charging S. E. Hassan, of this city, of defrauding him out of $40 in cash. Hassan is a mining engineer and assayer, as well as manager of the Hassan Mining Co. The warrant of arrest was served by Deputy Sheriff Minto last evening.

Mr. Freeland charges specifically that Hassan represented to him that he was the representative of the Chinese Six Companies, a wealthy Chinese agency of China, and that this concern was contemplating the purchase of the Freeland gold mines in the Santiam district. He is also charged with representing that he had $100,000 of this company's money on deposit in a bank with which to purchase the mines, and, upon this representation, secured $40 from Mr. Freeland to defray his expenses in looking at the property.

Constipation and piles are twins. They kill people inch by inch, sap life away every day. Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea will positively cure you. No cure no pay. 35 cents, Tea or Tablets. Dr. Stone's drug store.

A Disastrous Runaway.
Mr. Julius Voget was driving out to his farm near Brooks yesterday evening, with a bicycle in his buggy, when the horse became frightened at the wheel moving around in the buggy, and started to run. Mr. Voget endeavored to keep the wheel in the buggy and hold his horse at the same time. The result was that the man and the wheel soon found themselves in the street. The horse continued to travel with the buggy, until in attempting to turn the corner of Cottage and Center streets the buggy collided with an iron lamp post, and stopped. The horse was caught a little farther on by Prof. C. O. Boyer. The man, horse and wheel escaped without injury, but the buggy was badly demolished.

The greatest system renovator. Restores vitality, regulates the kidneys, liver and stomach. If Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea fails to cure get your money back. That's fair. 35 cents, Tea or Tablets. Dr. Stone's drug store.
