

Stockton & Co

THE OLD WHITE CORNER

A GREAT SALE

Ladies' White
SHIRT WAISTS
20 dozen at
HALF PRICE

FREE

Return to us $7.50 in Sale Slips and receive one year's subscription to McCALL'S MAGAZINE Free of Charge

SAVE YOUR SALE SLIPS

RUBDRY

Bath Towels

The kind you have always paid 50c for

35c each

3 for $1.00, $3.50 DOZEN!

See Court Street Window

TEDDY TALKS TO TEACHERS

Pays Glowing Tribute to Those Who Train Our Youngsters

Asbury, N. J., July 7.—This was "Roosevelt Day" at the annual convention of the National Educational Association. Though a number of departmental conferences were held during the forenoon the interest of all the teachers and of the hundreds of other visitors turned toward the great demonstration in the Ocean Grove auditorium this afternoon with the chief executive as the central figure.

The president's arrival was greeted with the booming of guns, the playing of bands and the enthusiastic shouts of thousands of teachers representing the public education system of the entire land. The president came under escort of the Third Regiment of Infantry of the New Jersey state militia.

There was not a vacant seat in the mammoth auditorium when the meeting opened, and hundreds were standing. Great enthusiasm was manifested in the singing of the Ocean Grove Festival Chorus of 600 voices, which began, as usual, long before President Maxwell, of the educational association called the meeting to order.

When President Roosevelt made his appearance he was greeted with applause lasting several minutes. The committee escorting him to the platform consisted of Lawton B. Evans, superintendent of schools, Augusta, Ga.; James M. Green, of the New Jersey State Normal School; F. Louis Selden, superintendent of schools, St. Louis, Mo.; Howard J. Rogers, First Assistant Commissioner of Education of the State of New Jersey, and Newton C. Dougherty, superintendent of schools, Peoria, Ill.

Governor Stokes, of New Jersey, introduced the president, who spoke as follows:

I am glad to have the chance of greeting the National Educational Association for in all this democratic land there is no more genuinely democratic association than this. It is truly democratic, because here each member meets every other member as his peer without regard to whether he is the president of one of the great universities or the newest recruit to that high and honorable profession which has in its charge the upbringing and training of those boys and girls who in a few short years will themselves be settling the destinies of this nation. It is not too much to say that the most characteristic work of the republic is that done by the educators, for whatever our shortcomings as a nation may be, we have at least firmly grasped the fact that we can not do our part in the difficult and all-important work of self-government, that we can not rule and govern ourselves, unless we approach the task with developed minds and trained characters. YOU TEACHERS MAKE THE WHOLE WORLD YOUR DEBTOR. IF YOU DID NOT DO YOUR WORK WELL THIS REPUBLIC WOULD NOT ENDURE BEYOND THE SPAN OF THE GENERATION. Moreover, as an incident to your avowed work, you render some well-nigh unbelievable services to the country. For instance, you render to the republic the prime, the vital service of amalgamating into one homogeneous body the children alike of those who are born here and of those who come here from so many different lands abroad. You furnish a common training and common ideals for the children of all mixed peoples who are here being fused into one nationality. IT IS IN NO SMALL DEGREE DUE TO YOU AND YOUR EFFORTS THAT WE ARE ONE PEOPLE INSTEAD OF A GROUP OF JARRING PEOPLES.

A Most Noble Calling.

Moreover, where altogether too much prominence is given to the mere possession of wealth, the country is under heavy obligations to such a body as this, which substitutes for the ideal of accumulating money the infinitely loftier, nonmaterialistic ideal of devotion to work worth doing simply for that work's sake. I do not in the least underestimate the need of having material prosperity as the basis of our civilization, but I do most earnestly insist that if our civilization does not build a lofty superstructure on this basis, we can never rank among the really great peoples. A certain amount of money is of course a necessary thing, as much for the nation as for the individual; and there are few movements in which I more thoroughly believe than in the movement to secure better remuneration for our teachers. But, after all, the service you render is incalculable, because of the very fact that by your lives you show that you believe ideals to be worth sacrifice, and that you are splendidly eager to do nonremunerative work if this work is of good to your fellow men.

To furnish in your lives such a realized high ideal is to do a great service to the country. The chief harm done by the men of swollen fortune to the community is not the harm that the demagogue is apt to depict as springing from their actions, but the fact that their success sets up a false standard, and so serves as a bad example for the rest of us. IF WE DO NOT OURSELVES ATTACH AN EXAGGERATED IMPORTANCE TO THE RICH MAN WHO IS DISTINGUISHED ONLY BY HIS RICHES, THIS RICH MAN WOULD HAVE A MOST INSIGNIFICANT INFLUENCE OVER US. It is generally our own fault if he does damage to us, for he damages us chiefly by arousing our envy or by rendering us sour and discontented.

Foolish to Envy.

In his actual business relations he is much more apt to benefit than harm the rest of us and though it is eminently right to take whatever steps are necessary in order to prevent the exceptional members of his class from doing harm, it is wicked folly to let ourselves be drawn into any attack upon the man of wealth merely as such. Moreover, such an attack is in itself an exceptionally crooked and ugly tribute to wealth, and therefore the proof of an exceptionally ugly and crooked state of mind in the man making the attack. Venomous envy of wealth is simply another form of the spirit, which in one of its manifestations takes the shape of cringing servility toward wealth, and in another the shape of brutal arrogance on the part of certain men of wealth. Each one of these states of mind, whether it be hatred, servility, or arrogance, is in reality closely akin to the other two; for each of them springs from a fantastically twisted and exaggerated idea of the importance of wealth as compared to other things. The clamor of the demagogue against wealth, THE SNOBBERY OF THE SOCIAL COLUMNS OF THE NEWSPAPERS WHICH DEAL WITH THE DOINGS OF THE WEALTHY, and the misconduct of those men of wealth who act with brutal disregard of the rights of others, seem superficially to have no fundamental relation; yet in reality they spring from shortcomings which are fundamentally the same; and one of these shortcomings is the failure to have proper ideals.

Few Really Rich.

This failure must be remedied in large part by the actions of you and your fellow-teachers, your fellow-educators throughout this land. By your lives, no less than by your teachings, you show that while you regard wealth as a good thing you regard other things as still better. It is absolutely necessary to earn a certain amount of money; it is a man's first duty to those dependent upon him to earn enough for their support; but after a certain point has been reached money-making can never stand on the same plane with other and nobler forms of effort. The roll of American worthies numbers men like Washington and Lincoln, Grant and Farragut, Hawthorne and Poe, Fulton and Morse, St. Gaudens and MacMonnies; it numbers statesmen and soldiers, men of letters, artists, sculptors, men of science, inventors, explorers, roadmakers, bridge builders, philanthropists, moral leaders in great reforms; it numbers men who have deserved well in one or more of countless fields of activity; but of rich men it numbers only those who have used their riches aright, who have treated wealth not as an end, but as a means, who have shown good conduct in acquiring it and not merely lavish generosity in disposing of it.

Three fortunate are you to whom it is given to lead lives of resolute endeavor for the achievement of lofty ideals, and, furthermore, to instill, both by your lives and by your teachings, these ideals into the minds of those who in the next generation will as the men and women of that generation, determine the position which this nation will hold in the history of mankind.

Huffman Trial Postponed.

The trial of Jack Huffman, the alleged Woodburn bank robber, was continued over until the October term of court by Judge Burnett this afternoon. This was done at the request of one of his attorneys, in order to give them plenty of time to bring witnesses over from Crook county in order to prove that Huffman was on the sheep ranch of a man by the name of Walker on the day that the robbery was committed.

Drowned His Baby.

Chicago, July 7.—John Wieher, aged 21 years, was arrested today charged with throwing his six-months-old baby into the river at the foot of Wabash avenue last night. His wife identified the body. Wieher confessed, and said he had quarreled with his wife, and was tired of both baby and wife, and was willing to hang.

CHICAGO STORE

PEOPLES BARGAIN HOUSE

Our Great Annual Clearing Sale

Started on Monday Morning and Will be Kept in Full Blast Until Further Notice.

No reserve out; they have to go; every article in this progressive establishment is at the mercy of your cash. This clearing sale will be one you won't forget for many a day. The prices will be slaughtered in every department. Read and remember don't pay too much elsewhere.

1000 yds Pretty Scotch Lawns that was 7 1/2c and 8c, sale price .3 1/2c 12 1/2c, 15c and 18c Imported Fancy Lawns, sale price .8 1-3 and 10c Hundreds of yards of summer goods at half price. 1/2 price on Remnants of Silks and Dress Goods; this season's. 1000 yds Fine 85c and $1 Dress Silks, sale price50c and 60c 1000 yds of this season's latest Dress Goods, worth from 75c to $1.50 yd, price33c, 49c and 75c This season's latest styles in parasols; half price. Prices on Domestic, Muslins and White Goods cut away down. Table Linens, Towels and Napkins all at the mercy of your cash; little prices. 500 yds Mosquito Bar, yd.3c Chamberly 8 1/2c 12 1/4 Scotch Thread, spool3c Best silk thread, spool3c 500 Fringed Napkins, each4c Sold Bed Spreads and Blankets; half price. Prices on Laces, Ribbons and Embroideries cut to pieces.	Clearing prices on Foreign and Domestic Dress Trimmings. Half price and less on Ladies' Silk Shirt Waist Suits. $18 and $25 Suits, sale price $9.50 and $11.50 Prices cut away down on every article in our Cloak, Suit and Millinery room. $3.00 Trimmed Hasp-c, c bkq $3.00 Trimmed Hats, price . . . $1.49 Children's and Misses Hats all reduced. $2000 worth of the latest and prettiest Shoes in Salem at clearing prices. Ladies' $2.50 shoes, sale price $1.45 Prices on Men's Goods Slaughtered. Men's 35c Summer Underwear . . . 12c Men's 8c Sox, sale price3c Men's 45c Working Shirts, price 25c Men's and Boys' Straw and Felt Hats, all reduced. Children's 35c Wash Hats19c Children's Swiss Caps 4c Sunbonnets 10c and 15c Ladies' 25c Shirt Waist Sets . . . 10c Best Sans Silk, ball 2c Best Hairpins 2 packages for 1c
--	--

SALEM'S FASTEST GROWING STORE.

MCEVOY BROS.

Corner of Commercial and Court Streets

ADDITIONAL PERSONALS.

Mrs. J. Hinnell and Mrs. Pitman spent the Fourth with Mrs. Wm. Courtney in Newberg.

Mrs. J. Griffin has returned to her home in Southern California, after spending a few days with Mrs. J. Hinnell, on South Commercial street.

CATORIA.

Bears the Signature of Chas. H. Fletcher

The Southern Pacific Company Will sell tickets, Salem to Boswell Springs and return up to and including September 30, 1905, 1905, limited to 30 days, rate of $5.55. 6-5-1f

The Club Stables

First-class Livery and Cab Line. Funeral turnouts a specialty. Tally-ho for picnics and excursion parties. Phone Main 241. Corner Liberty and Ferry. Chs. W. Yanke Prop.

Shingles

Best Star A. Star Shingles
$1.85 PER 1000.

SALEM FENCE WORKS
Walter Morley
60 Court Street, Salem.

BORN.

YOUNG.—At the Florence Sanatorium, in this city, July 5, 1905, to Rev. and Mrs. W. B. Young, of Havre, Montana, a son.

Mrs. Young was formerly Miss Marie Vandesol, of this city.

DIED.

KAYLOR.—At the family home in this city, Friday, July 7, 1905, at 3:30 a. m., Robert Boyd Kaylor, aged 34 years of a complication of diseases.

Deceased was born at Lester, Iowa, and has lived in this city for a number of years. He was a member of the Woodmen of the World, and a painter by trade. He lived with his mother, Mrs. Anna Kaylor, on Court and 20th streets, in this city. Besides his mother, he leaves two sisters and one brother, Estelle Kaylor, Mrs. Isaac Conklin and Frank Kaylor, all of this city.

He was well known and had many friends. He has been ailing for two years, but only took to his bed last Tuesday, and his death comes as a sad blow to his people.

The funeral will be held from the house tomorrow afternoon at 4 p. m.

CHILDREN CRY FOR FLETCHER'S CATORIA.

Money to Loan

THOMAS K. FORD,
Over Ladd & Bush's Bank, Salem, Or.

More Tires

Just received, another shipment of tires, all kinds and all prices. Our stock of tires and sundries is fresh, as we have no old stock to work off. Come in and let us put on a coaster brake for you, so you can take it easy this hot weather. Best work at honest prices.

FRANK J. MOORE,
Phone 301 Black. 239 Court Street.

YOU CAN Have Your Silverware Made New Again

We're replating anything in silverware and warrant it for ten years of ordinary use. It won't cost much to have your silver-plated table ware made new again. Come and see us about it.

Or if our solicitor, Mr. H. I. Brown, calls let him show you samples of our work. We also nickel plate tools and instruments of any kind—bicycle parts or anything of that nature.

Boni's Jewelry Store

State and Liberty Sts., Salem, Ore

FREDDIE HURST DROWNED

While Swimming in the Slough South of Town

The youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hurst, of South Commercial street, in this city, was drowned this afternoon while swimming in the slough south of town, near the Schindler place. The boy was about 10 years old, and the youngest child in the family. Mr. and Mrs. Hurst are prostrate with grief, as the boy was the pet of the whole family, and a very bright lad. He was a student at Lincoln school, and advanced for his year. The body was recovered, but was beyond resuscitation when taken out.

How It Happened.

At a quarter to two o'clock, with a number of other boys, about the same age of Freddie, was wading near the shore, when he stepped over a log and went down in water over his head, and was drowned. There was one boy of 16, who got onto the log, but could not swim, and could not help the little fellow, who struggled in vain. Little Algie Humphrey ran up the brick store, and gave the alarm. Hubert Daue was first on the scene of the drowning, and dove down and brought Freddie to the surface. With other boys efforts were made to revive him, but nothing could be accomplished. The deepest sympathy of the whole community is expressed for the afflicted family.

Lewis and Clark Edition Saturday.

The Daily Capital Journal Saturday will be at least 16 pages, and will be devoted largely to showing up the industries and resources of Salem, the Flower City of the Western Oregon Paradise. There will be press work done Friday night and all day Saturday to get out so large an edition for free distribution at the Oregon and Marion county headquarters of the Portland exposition. Get in your best thoughts about our city and surrounding country, and let us show the world that we are alive.

Norwich Union Fire Insurance Society.

Frank Meredith, Resident Agent
Office with Wm. Brown & Co., No. 123 Commercial Street.

NEW TODAY

Theo. M. Barr—Successor to Barr & Petzel, tinner and plumber. Hot air water and steam heating a specialty. Salem, Oregon. 3-3.

For Sale.—Second-hand McCormick binder, in good condition. Mitchell, Lewis & Staver Co. 7-7-31

For Sale.—Forty-six cord of fire wood $2 per cord, on the ground. Two and one-half miles from town. Inquire of C. W. Basher, Model barber shop. 7-7-31

Partner Wanted.—In good paying upholstery business, to do outside work. Business will bear investigation. Address "X," Journal office. 7-7-1f

For Sale.—Single-seated buggy, ebony cabinet dining table, relic of the pioneer days. Phone 283 Blue. 7-7-31

CATORIA.

Bears the Signature of Chas. H. Fletcher

STRICTLY CONFIDENTIAL

The officers and clerks of this institution are pledged to impart no information concerning the dealings of its customers who have a right to expect that their banking business will be treated as CONFIDENTIAL. This we do, and we also aim to protect their interests in every legitimate manner.

Possibly you have need of such an institution. If so, it becomes our pleasurable duty to invite you to come to this bank.

Salem State Bank

L. K. PAGE, President
E. W. HAZARD, Cashier