Edison—Vaudeville.

EVERYBODY ENJOYS THE SHOW.

Edison Entertainment of a Kind to Please Old and Young.

Baxter and Shadrick continue to please in their turn at the popular little vaudeville theatre, the finish of the act being especially strong. Miss Mack, singing "The Message of the Violets," and a fine Indian song, with pretty effects and weird dance always wins her audience. Arthur Searles, in a monologue, is good, and when a few moments later he sings two fine illustrated songs he makes a big hit. His voice is a baritone of a very sympathetic quality. Baxter sings and dances in a single specialty. The old reliable Edisonoscope has about 2000 feet of fine motion pictures. Coming Monday to this little theatre, Hopper and Burrell, in "Uncle Joshua's Visit," Hawley and Vass, Hebrew impersonators, and Henry Miller, mimic; new illustrated song and motion pictures.

X-RAYS

Taft is a bigger man than Hancock, but not so dressy as Miles.

Salem should have a ladies' riding club. The X-Ray man would organize one, but he is not a lady.

If John Paul Jones was in command of the expedition—well some folks wouldn't be so important.

The auto is good when it is good, but when it is bad it is an unruly and altogether unreasonable creature.

When Taft gets on the briny deep there will be a feeling of rest and quiet and peace—much needed.

The czar is somewhat timid about sending battleships after the pirate Potemkin, for he does not know who they will shoot at.

This is the kind of weather of which Dean Swift said "It makes a fellow feel like taking off his flesh and sitting around in his bones."

At midnight, in his guarded tent, The sleeping lion lay,
He dreamed of eating fried spring lamb And drinking bottled hay.

Senator Dubois' wife is chaperoning Miss Alice Roosevelt, but the dispatches don't say who is performing that service for Taft.

Corvallis has voted to issue bonds for waterworks. Occasionally an Oregon town comes to its senses, and decides to own its water and light plant.

If the Russo-Japanese peace commissioners want a nice quiet cool place for their deliberations, Tacoma presents its claims in thunderous tones.

Equi-distant between the mountains and the sea, the seeker after recreation can pay his money and take his choice. The really sane person who wants to rest will stay at home and lie in the shade.

The Kansas supreme court has fired the natural gas company out of the state. It still has Sockless Jerry and Frenzied Lawson, so the supply will not be affected.

"A 13-year-old boy with a whisky flask in two pockets was seen on the train coming out from the bay recently," says the Albany Democrat. Now how could a Democrat man see a bottle in two pockets, and on opposite sides of the boy, at the same time. We fear he has been naughty, else why this double vision?

The number of persons who are ready to turn against friends the moment they are in trouble is quite large. The world is far from being perfect or erecting monuments to gratitude in all cases. It is far more ready to applaud the man who turns and rends another and helps in the delightful cannibalism of wiping him off the face of the continent.

Constipation and piles are twins. They kill people inch by inch, sap life away every day. Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea will positively cure you. No cure no pay. 35 cents, Tea or Tablets. Dr. Stone's drug store.

Who Could Blame Them?

A Paris newspaper relates an amazing story which most people will probably regard rather as an example of the bon trovato than of strict fact. According to the story, an automobile proceeding from Nantes to Rosny met a herd of 50 horses being led to a neighboring fair and stopped so as not to cause a stampede. But the horses seemed to have instinctively recognized the rival of their species and without more ado set on the machine in a body, kicking it to pieces. The chauffeur was with difficulty got out of the maellee uninjured.—London Globe.

The greatest system renovator. Restores vitality, regulates the kidneys, liver and stomach. If Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea fails to cure get your money back. That's fair. 35 cents, Tea or Tablets. Dr. Stone's drug store.

Adulteration goes full length in spices and flavoring extracts—you think it isn't worth while to cheat in such trifles—four-fifths of "vanilla" is tonka; cost's one or two cents for "$1-worth". Schilling's Best are entirely pure; at your grocer's.

PERENNIAL VERDURE.

The following verses were written for The Journal upon the occasion of Salem's day at the Lewis and Clark Exposition, as descriptive of Marion county, though indeed they would apply to the Willamette valley in general, which, owing to the mild winters and cool summers is green the year 'round, making it indeed "An Emerald Gem."

SALEM, THE GEM.

(By John H. Cradlebaugh.)

Bloom of apple and orchard trees,
Scent of clover and hum of bees,
Spreading oak and towering pine,
Billowing wheat and climbing vine,
Tinkling brook by wild rose traced,
River with balm and willow laced,
Grove and glen, and sun and shade,
Fairest of lands that God has made.

Far as the gladdened eye can see,
Meadow and brook, and flower and tree,
Miles on miles of emerald sward,
Mountains that keep eternal guard,
Pillars of flame in the morning sun
Pointing a Paradise lost and won
Where Sundown sleeps with her banners furled,
An emerald gem in the ring of the world.

WOODBURN BANK ROBBER

Hoffman, the alleged Woodburn bank robber, has employed Attorneys Frank Holmes and J. A. Finch to defend him of the serious charge under which he is held. The attorneys secured a postponement of the trial until the October term, and will endeavor to show that he was working in Eastern Oregon at the time of the commission of the crime. The case promises to be hotly contested, as a number of Woodburn people claim they are positive Hoffman is one of the robbers, and identified him at the time of the preliminary examination.
