UNLOAD PORTLAND LINES

Labor Organizations Are Backed by Capitalists

In an Effort to Have Public Ownership of the Street Car System

(Special to the Daily Capital Journal.)
Portland, Or., July 12.—Richard Cornelius, president of the San Francisco division of the Amalgamated Association of Street and Elevated Railway Employees, and a member of the national labor organization, arrived here today. He claims that he comes to effect municipal ownership of the Portland street car lines.

This announcement has caused great excitement in this city, and is part of a general movement to accomplish public ownership of street car lines in all the larger cities of the country. It is believed that the Eastern syndicate who recently bought the Portland system is desirous of unloading the same on the community as soon as the Lewis and Clark fair is over.

It is reported copies of such letters are in the hands of the commissioner.

ELKS AND BUFFALOES

Have a Big Meeting at Buffalo N. Y. Today

Buffalo, N. Y., July 12.—This was the big day of the Elks' national convention and reunion. This forenoon 20,000 members of the antlered parade through the downtown thoroughfares and received the applause of the thousands of spectators who lined the sidewalks and filled every available door and window. The parade was one of the biggest things of its kind ever seen in Buffalo. The paraders represented every state and territory of the Union and many were garbed in fantastic or picturesque costumes typifying the section of the country whence they came. Forty bands were included in the line.

The parade formed at 1 o'clock in Franklin street near Huron and proceeded to the Terrace and thence through Main street, passing in review before the grand lodge officers and invited guests who occupied a stand erected in Lafayette Square.

KANSAS AGAINST JOHNNY

Oil the Great Question in Kansas for the Present Only

Kansas City, Mo., July 12.—The taking of the testimony in the proceedings to oust the Standard, Waters, Pierce and Republican oil companies from the state on the grounds that they combined the illegality, was resumed at noon. The attorney-general asked the court to compel the defendants to produce the alleged contracts and other documents to show a conspiracy in restraint of trade.

NO COST TO "MASSA JOHNNY"

Rockefeller Wants His Dad to Have a Good Reputation

Cleveland, O., July 12.—Frank Rockefeller, brother of John and William, today branded Miss Ida Tarbell's story of his father's life, as printed in McClure's Magazine, as a lie. He says the truth will be known, and suggests the family may take action to protect the name and honor of his father. Miss Tarbell's pictures of the elder Rockefeller, as a convivial quack doctor and wandering merchant well known to taverns and the associate of horse drivers. Rockefeller refused to divulge his father's whereabouts.

About Thirty Cents.

Chicago, July 12.—Walter Scott, the Death Valley miner, and candidate for notoriety, was up early this morning, and got out of his hotel unobserved, thereby eluding a fair-sized crowd, made up largely of old schoolmates and boyhood friends of the plunger, with a liberal sprinkling of people representing charitable institutions. All were sorely disappointed. The only munificence of Scott registered up to noon, was 30 cents to a waiter who brought him his breakfast. Scott visited the stock yards and a number of railroad offices, where he renewed his request for a record train to New York. None of the railroads seemed to favor the project. The miner is not verifying the reports of fabulous tips and easy financial manner, consequently his stock is on the decline in the windy city.

Lawson Blows Hard.

Sioux City, Ia., July 12.—The Lawson train stopped here long enough to enable Tom to say: "When I've finished the fight on the 'system,' when freight and passenger rates are lowered, the prices of meat and food stuffs will be cut, and the American can again start a bank account. Thousands upon thousands have assured me they will sell their securities when I tell them to do so, and thus I will put Rockefeller into the receiver's hands, and only death can save him."

Just a Few Nickles.

Keith Dargan, until recently president of the Darlington Trust Company, of South Carolina, an independent oil company, drank carbolic acid in the presence of his brother-in-law last night, and died soon afterwards. Visitors from Canada.

Mrs. R. A. Skinner, of West Salem, has been having a visit from her daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Becken, who reside within 14 miles of Niagara Falls, Canada, her old home. They had their children with them, and enjoyed the visit to Oregon very much, leaving for home the other day. Mr. Becken liked Oregon very much, and, of course, his wife did, too, and, as for the children, they thought it was heaven. Mr. Becken's people are very much alarmed lest he come to the coast to live, and Mrs. Skinner has given him two years to come to Oregon to stay, and Mrs. Skinner is a lady who generally hits things about right.

Boy Having a Time.

Detroit, July 12.—Percy Deneau, a young lad living at 46 Bruce avenue, is supposed to be locked in a freight car which left Detroit Tuesday, the destination of which is not known. Playmates locked the door in fun when the Deneau boy climbed inside. When the car was taken out of the yards they became frightened, and told what they had done. They were unable to give any adequate description of the car, and the parents of the lad are frantic with anxiety.

Meeting of Brothers.

L. D. Dennison, of the fair grounds neighborhood, has been enjoying a visit from his brother, E. F. Dennison, of Aberdeen, North Dakota. They were in the same company together during the Civil War, serving in the Seventh Illinois cavalry, in Company K, for three and a half years. L. D. Dennison also served in the Twelfth Illinois cavalry. The Dakota brother is accompanied by his better half, and is seriously impressed with the desirability of Oregon as a place of future residence.

Rare Shakespeare Find.

London, July 12.—The announcement that the Shakespeare quarto of "Richard III," recently discovered in a little village in Buckinghamshire was to be put up for sale attracted a great crowd of book collectors and dealers to Sotheby's today. It is expected that the work will be knocked down for not less than $5,000 or $6,000 and the prediction is made that it will ultimately find its way to America. The book is of particular interest to Americans for the reason that it contains in five places the autograph of William Penn, the Admiral, and father of the founder of Pennsylvania.

The copy to be sold is a survival of the 1695 imprint, and it is believed that only two others of this edition are extant.

Want Grand Jury System Abolished.

Des Moines, Ia., July 12.—Prominent members of the bench and bar of Iowa to a total of several score are gathered in Des Moines for the annual meeting of the Iowa Bar association. LAWSON TALKS SENSE

Gets Away From Frenzied Finance for a Few Minutes

Omaha, Neb., July 12.—In an interview on his board his private car this morning Thomas Lawson said he would soon take his first step against the insurance companies in the form of a lawsuit, in which he would be joined by $5000 policy holders. The suit will be aimed at the New York Life, Equitable and Mutual. He said: "The suit will be for the restitution of millions illegally received by the companies in the shape of commissions and perquisites. The result will be the people will recover their money. The Equitable fight is a nasty one, but it shows the charges I made against the companies are mild in comparison with the facts." Lawson said that over 14,000 policy holders had responded to the request to join in the suit.
