MARION LAND FRAUDS

The case of the State of Oregon vs. A. T. Kelliher and H. H. Turner, who are charged with forgery, was yesterday continued to the October term of court, as had been previously arranged. This morning, at 9 o'clock, was the time set for the hearing of their pleas, but as both defendants had filed demurrers the court set October 2d as the day on which to hear argument on the demurrers. These cases have gained a great deal of notoriety, on account of the prominence of the men, and the fact that this is the first one of the cases in the famous school land frauds which has been presented, and the court room was crowded this morning with people who were anxious to hear what their plea would be. They were doomed to disappointment, however.

Marquam Estate Trial.

The greatest real estate trial in the history of Oregon is on before the supreme court. It will require Thursday afternoon and all day Friday to submit the argument of counsel. Hon. W. D. Fenton, chief counsel for the S. P. Co., and Judge Watson, of Portland, appear for the Marquam estate and ex-Governor Lord and Wallace McCamant for the appellants, the Portland Title Guarantee and Trust Co., the U. S. Mortgage and Trust Co., the Oregon Realty Co. and J. Thornburn Ross. The record in the case comprises large bound volumes, and was only surpassed in extent by the records in the Jackson county tax case. P. A. Marquam, Jr., is the only heir, and is an able lawyer himself, conducting his case in part before Judge Sears, who gave him the property over the claim of the parties foreclosing the mortgage. The mortgage was given for money borrowed of a New York insurance company. J. T. Ross made the loan through the Title Guaranty Trust Co., and at the sale Ross bid it in for the Title Guaranty Trust Co. The property is worth about half a million, and the suit will be contested with a great deal of ability and learning on both sides.

Capital Against Capital.

In order to maintain their claim to the championship of the city, the bankers' baseball team will tomorrow afternoon, upon the diamond, meet the state house aggregation, which alleges that it was not fairly beaten by the hop men. They are still confident that they have the best team in town, and are sure that the bankers will be compelled to cash in their checks tomorrow. The game will be played on the old league grounds on Asylum avenue, and will be called at 5:30 p. m., so as to avoid playing such a swift game in the heat of the afternoon. The line-up of the two teams follows:

Capitols—Snyder c, Benson p, Kozler 1b, Gatens 2b, Miles 3b, McHugh ss, West lf, VanWinkle cf, Allison rf. Bankers—Catterlin c, Walton, F. D. Thilson p, Edw. Thilson 1b, F. D. Thilson p, Edw. Thilson 1b, F. D. Eyre ss, Iddings lf, Eastham cf, Baumgartner rf.

The umpires will be Bishop and Rhodes.

ADDITIONAL PERSONALS.

Ernest Smith, of Monmouth, was in Salem yesterday. He formerly resided in Englewood addition to Salem, a number of years ago.

Sam Dolan, of Albany, is in the city. He will be remembered by a number of Salem people as a member of the Albany College football team last season.

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Holmes and little son left today for Pendleton, where they intend to make their future home. Mrs. Holmes is the daughter of Mrs. C. H. Walker, of this city.

Yearly Meeting at Newberg.

Newberg, Or., July 13.—At yesterday's afternoon session of the Oregon yearly meeting of the Friends' church this year's officers were elected, as follows:

Presiding clerk, President H. Edwin McGrew, of Pacific college; recording clerk, Miss Mabel H. Douglas; reading clerk, Mrs. F. A. Stuart; announcing clerk, Hon. John S. Richie.

The conditions of the church were considered yesterday, as shown by the statistical reports, and were seen to be very encouraging.

At this morning's session both the general and special epistles from the present yearly meeting of London, England, were read.

Dying From Heat.

New York, July 13.—Three deaths and numerous prostrations are reported today as a result of the heat. No relief is in prospect.

LAUTH DROPS OUT

Geo. W. Lauth is no more. While murmuring "Into thy hands, oh God, I commit my spirit," the drop was sprung, and he fell to the end of the 6-foot rope with a broken neck. In 13 seconds he was pronounced dead by Drs. Calbreath and Griffith, of the asylum, and cut down. His body was not claimed by relatives, and he will be buried in Leo Mission cemetery. He professed Christianity soon after coming to the prison, and, according to the prison chaplain, Rev. St. Pierre, who was with him all morning, he has lived a model Christian life ever since. Together they read nearly half of the New Testament this forenoon. He walked smilingly to the scaffold, apparently the most cheerful man in the crowd.

Monster Battleship.

London, July 13.—Construction of the largest and most powerful battleship in the world is soon to begin at the Portsmouth dockyard. It is planned to build the vessel from the laying of the keel plates to the hoisting of the pennant in a period of sixteen months. Thirty to thirty-six months is the average time at present devoted to the building of battleships of smaller size. This rapidly is calculated to result in a great economy, but, nevertheless, the cost is estimated at nearly $10,000,000. So heavily will this vessel be armed that she will be equal to any two battleships now afloat, and her striking power at such a range as that at which the engagement opened in the battle of the Sea of Japan will be as great as any three battleships of the ordinary type. The displacement will be about 18,000 tons. The Dreadnought, as this battleship will be called, will mount twelve 12-inch guns of the latest type, throwing three 850-pound shells every two minutes. The vessel will be driven by turbines, and will be able to steam at upwards of 20 knots an hour. She will carry no secondary armament.

The elimination of the 6-inch guns, borne by practically all the battleships of the world hitherto, is one of the main lessons deduced from the long-range actions which have been fought in the Far East. The essential feature of a battleship in modern conditions, it is now realized, must be ability to deliver stunning blows at a distance of five or six miles, and this the Dreadnought, with her dozen great guns, will be able to do with terrific effect. No battleship has hitherto mounted more than four of these weapons.

Frenchmen Got Noisy.

Paris, July 13.—There was a scene of great disorder in the chamber of deputies during the discussion of the bill granting amnesty to those condemned in connection with the revolutionary conspiracy of 1899. The bill passed the senate Tuesday and during the course of the sensational debate Minister of War Bertheaux announced that he withdrew his signature from the amnesty project. President Doumer adjourned the chamber in the midst of the uproar.

Teddy and Rosen.

Oyster Bay, N. Y., July 13.—The Sylph arrived at noon. Contrary to precedent, no formal speeches were exchanged. Rosen merely assured the President of his pleasure over the visit, presented Cassin's letter of recall, and his own credentials. The President shook hands cordially, and the ambassador expressed his pleasure at the meeting. Rosen left at 2:30 to return to New York on the Sylph.

A Ladylike Game.

London, July 13.—The first group of international tennis matches for the Davis cup was played today at the Queen's Club grounds, at Holcombe, Ward, of New York, won his match from Germot, his French competitor, 6-2 6-3.

DIED.

BOTSFORD.—At the family home in Nob Hill addition to Salem, Thursday, July 13, 1905, at 1:30 a. m., Henry W. Botsford, of inflammation of the stomach, aged 52 years, 3 months and 23 days.

Henry W. Botsford was born in Ohio in 1853, and spent most of his life in Missouri. In 1892 he came to Salem, where he has resided ever since. On March 9, 1890, he was married to Elva Hanna, who, with their one child, Irma, and a stepdaughter, Iris Hanna, survive him. He also leaves seven sisters in the east, and Mrs. J. R. Davis, Mrs. C. J. Sheck, of Linn county, and Mrs. G. W. Davis, of Bakersfield, Cal. He was a member of the Methodist church.

The funeral will be held at the Leslie M. E. church Friday, July 14th, at 4 o'clock p. m.

Crop Outlook in the Northwest.

Chicago, Ill., July 13.—Officials of the Northwestern, Burlington, Rock Island and other railroads of the Northwest, are optimistic regarding crop conditions in that section. They declare that while there has been more or less bad weather the reports have been much exaggerated as to the damage done.

Amnesty for Deroulede.

Paris, July 13.—It is semi-officially announced that Paul Deroulede, the famous irreconcilable, duelist and journalist, who was banished from France for ten years for alleged participation in a plot to overthrow the republic, is to be included in the general amnesty which will be granted tomorrow on the occasion of the national holiday. Since his banishment from France Deroulede has been residing in Spain, chiefly at San Sebastian, where he became well acquainted with King Alfonso, and it is reported that his permission to return to France is largely due to a good word spoken for him by the young Spanish sovereign on the occasion of the latter's recent visit to President Loubet.
