WANT TO DEPOSE THE CZAR

Zemstvos Congress Prohibited Meeting Because it Wishes a Change of Ruler

St. Petersburg, July 18.—It is reported here that a large party of Zemstvos Dumais at Moscow favor issuing a proclamation deposing Emperor Nicholas, and establishing a regency for the Grand Duke Alexis Nicholasvitch, the infant, the throne to be held by four grand dukes. It is alleged that for this reason the Zemstvos congress scheduled at Moscow for tomorrow will be prohibited.

ROUGH ON SIBERIA

Berlin, July 18.—The Schlesiache Zeitung says the Japanese have released all the convicts on the island of Sakhalien. The ordinary criminals have been shipped to Siberia, and turned loose, after being supplied with provisions. The political prisoners have asked to remain as Japanese subjects.

Jaurca's Name Is Honored.

City of Mexico, July 18.—Today was observed as a holiday throughout the republic, being the thirty-third anniversary of the death of Bonito Jaurca, the famous Liberal party president. A long procession of prominent people marched to the cemetery of San Fernando wherein lie the remains of the illustrious soldier who led the successful struggles against the Maximilian empire. The procession included workmen's societies, government officials, members of scientific and literary societies, officers of the garrison, members of congress and surviving signers of the present constitution. President Diaz and other persons of eminence gathered about the tomb and heaped it with floral offerings.

Transmississippi Congress.

Portland, Ore., July 18.—Preparations on an extensive scale are being made for the Transmississippi Commercial congress to be held in this city one month hence. During the last few years the congress has enlarged its scope and membership in a wonderful degree, and the forthcoming meeting is expected to be the largest and most notable of its kind ever held. Though the congress was originally intended to devote its efforts to the development of the trans-Mississippi region it early outgrew this limitation of its scope and embraced as its object the commercial advancement of the entire country. As has been the case for several years past the coming session will be attended by delegates from almost every state and territory. Advice received by Secretary Francis indicate that the attendance will reach the 3000 mark. The governors of Utah, Idaho, Wyoming, California,

Colorado, New Mexico, Washington and Oregon are expected to be present.

Some of the many subjects slated for consideration are as follows: The union of interests between Pacific coast ports and ports of the Gulf of Mexico; the improvement of rivers, harbors and waterways; statehood for the territories; co-operation in laws covering waterways, irrigation and mining among Canada, the United States and Mexico; technical schools and experimental stations for the west; livestock interests of the trans-Mississippi region; the necessity for differentials favoring Pacific coast ports in the building of naval vessels; expositions and their influence upon the development of the country; interstate commerce commission and the betterment of rail and water transportation; encouragement of home manufactures; the Isthmian canal and its effect upon commerce.
