WANTED AT GRANTS PASS.

Two Young Men Charged With Robbing an Insane Man.

Upon authority received by telegram by Sheriff White from Grants Pass, Chief of Police McClain yesterday afternoon arrested Arthur Murry and J. L. Maddox on the delayed overload, while on their way to Portland on a ticket from Grants Pass to Portland. Constable J. C. Randle arrived this morning, and took them back, handcuffed together, on the afternoon train. They had $40.10 when arrested. Several days ago an insane man was committed at Grants Pass and taken down to the asylum. When committed he had about $65 in cash. When he reached the asylum he had only $3. Young Maddox was a clerk in the hotel, and Murry is said to be from Vancouver. The charge is that Maddox and Murry, with a key the latter had, went into the room of the insane man and helped themselves to his money, taking it from his pocket. This will be the thing the prosecution will have to prove, making an interesting case.—Albany Democrat.

Spilled Her Beauty.

Harriet Howard, of 209 W. 34th St., New York, at one time had her beauty spoiled with skin trouble. She writes: "I had salt rheum or eczema, for years, but nothing would cure it until I used Bucklen's Arnica Salve." A quick and sure healer for cuts, burns and sores. 25c at J. C. Perry's drug store.

Vast Power at Small Cost.

Morris C. Lockwood of Vineland, N. J., has invented a hydrostatic motor which, he declares, is past the experimental stage and will soon be put on the market.

For 27 years he has expended his money and time on this invention and has done, he says, what science could not be done. The motor is intended to run the machinery of the world with air and water. The model, he says, works perfectly and he is now looking for capital with which to exploit it.

It is said that it will take but two quarts of water to run a 50-horse motor 24 hours.

Mr. Lockwood zealously guards his workshop and is so sure that he has solved the problem of cheap power that he has spent his all in perfecting the machine.—New York World.

THE FORCE OF PUBLIC OPINION

At the Fourth of July banquet in Paris the eminent banker William Seligman made an interesting address, in which he dwelt upon the operation of the mighty force we call public opinion. We extract the following paragraphs from his speech: "In our days there exists not only a public opinion limited to each country, but also a public opinion of the combined civilized world, and this opinion is omnipotent and irresistible. It is on the side of emancipation and progress. The partisans of civil and religious despotism are impotent against this public opinion, and we rejoice in the steady diminution of whatever influence they still possess.

"In the United States we have no state religion. Our states appropriate large sums toward hospitals, asylums and especially toward free schools and universities, but nothing at all for religious purposes. Every person can worship according to his taste and conviction, and those who want to build churches and engage preachers can do so to an unlimited extent by simply furnishing the necessary funds. With us politics do not interfere with religion, and religion does not interfere with politics. Clergymen of all denominations, Catholics and Protestants, entertain different political views. Some of them belong to the Republican party and some are Democrats, but among them all not a single voice is raised against the Republic, nor our republican institutions. Whereas, in many other countries despots and the partisans of oppression, persecution and fanaticism, the enemies of liberty and progress, proclaim that they act in the name of God and their holy religion, as they call it, and even appeal to the patriotism of those whom they oppress and afflict.

"The time is approaching when there will exist but one religion, namely, the religion of Justice, Truth and Charity, as well as the golden rule: 'Do as you would be done by.' When this religion, which we see gaining ground daily, become universal, there will be no more heretics, nor bigots, nor free-thinkers; all good men and all good women will become disciples of such a religion.

"It is now nearly three-score years and ten since I began to observe the gradual and steady progress of liberty and humanity, and especially the amelioration of the condition of the humbler classes. The burning of heretics and witches had ceased, yet oppression and intolerance reigned throughout the larger part of Europe. All the countries of Eastern Europe, including Austria and Germany, were governed autocratically. The rights and privileges enjoyed by a few individuals were denied to the masses. But owing to the accounts received from American emigrants, as also owing to the French revolution, the people of several countries became aware of their unjust subjection, and after shedding rivers of blood they succeeded in obtaining an alleviation of their condition, with the advantage of a constitutional government. But a great deal still remains to be done in relieving the masses from injustice, and in promoting the spirit of peaceful fraternity among nations."

A Grim Tragedy

is daily enacted, in thousands of homes as death claims, in each one, another victim of consumption or pneumonia. But when coughs and colds are properly treated, the tragedy is averted. P. G. Huntley, of Oakland, Ind., writes: "My wife had the consumption, and three doctors gave her up. Finally she took Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs and colds, which cured her, and today she is well and strong." It kills the germs of all diseases. One dose relieves. Guaranteed at 50c and $1.00 by J. C. Perry, druggist. Trial bottle free.

HARVEST IS ON.

Wheat Crop Is of Average and Oats Near It.

Harvesting may be said to have begun Monday, and by next Monday it will be in full blast. The season was unusually favorable for sowing and the result of something more than the average acreage is in grain. A fair percentage of the crop has been cut for hay, and this is now mostly in the stack or barn. The yield is generally above the average, and this may be said more particularly of wheat. The stand is good and the heads long and filled with plump, sound, first-class grains. The oat crop is not so good, some fields showing traces of blight, an entirely new thing in this section, but it is thought to be due to the peculiar season and long dry spring. In spite of this, however, the crop will be a good average one and the quality generally good. The weather is ideal, and if it holds for a couple of weeks one of the best and biggest crops ever raised in the valley will be safely cared for.

The Air Is Conquered.

Roy Knabenshue, in his Toledo flight in an airship, has demonstrated that the long-dreamed-of navigation of the air is to some degree at least practicable.

His is the first flight ever made that may be called successful. He sailed three miles against a strong wind, with his machine always under perfect control, landed where he had previously announced that he would land, and then made the return journey to exactly the spot from which he had started.

The essential requirements of aerial navigation have been met. Correct principles have been discovered and properly applied. But a host of difficulties will develop and must be overcome.

One swallow does not make a summer, nor does one successful flight fill the sky with airships.

The automobile was an accomplished mechanical fact long years before it was made practicable for general use. So was the steam engine and every other mechanical innovation.

The popular mind requires development quite as much as an invention. A long campaign of education through advertising was necessary to make even so simple a thing as the bicycle popular. Far more than that will be required to induce the public to take to the air, even though airships be made perfectly safe.

A MEASURE OF MERIT.

Salem Citizens Should Weigh Well This Evidence.

Proof of merit lies in the evidence. Convincing evidence in Salem. Is not the testimony of strangers. But the endorsement of Salem people.

That's the kind of proof given here. The statement of a Salem citizen.

William H. Spayd, living at the corner of North Winter and D streets, says: "Words cannot express my opinion half strong enough of Doan's Kidney Pills. I have known their remarkable merits for the last eight years having used them in Clinton Co., Mich., where I was living. My kidneys were a source of annoyance for quite a number of years. I had much pain across my loins and the secretions from the kidneys were irregular in action, causing me to rise often in the night, and at times there was a scalding. I also had more or less dizziness. I procured Doan's Kidney Pills from Dr. Stone's drug store and gave some to a person visiting us and they gave her wonderful relief, and in my case I was benefited in every way. My backache was relieved and the trouble with the kidney secretions was corrected. You are at liberty to refer to me as one who can endorse the claims made for Doan's Kidney Pills and I also know of a great many others who have used them with the best of results."

A Remarkable Athlete.

Pendleton Tribune: George W. Hug, of Elgin, was in the city yesterday, having stopped off to visit his college friends while on his way home from Portland, where he had been competing in the exposition athletic games. Mr. Hug is a student of the University of Oregon, and was the captain of last year's track team. He is one of the greatest athletes produced by the state of Oregon, and holds the state record for having thrown the former 128 feet, 9 inches and the latter 112 feet, 10 inches. He holds the three university records in the weights. Mr. Hug is also a member of the 'varsity football team, playing center.

Mr. Hug is a member of the junior class, and before he leaves the institution will be one of the best athletes on the Pacific coast. He says that Oregon will have the best football team of years next fall, and that the team will easily take the championship of the Northwest again, and will give the California colleges a hard go for the coast championship.
