MARION COUNTY'S EXHIBIT

Portland Paper Says it is One of the Largest and Best on the Grounds

Last night's Telegram has the following description of Marion county's exhibit at the Lewis and Clark fair: "Sawjawen in grains and astride a coal black steed never looked down upon a fairer scene than that of the Marion county, Oregon, booth in the agricultural building, Lewis and Clark exposition. And to lend to the dignity of the state capital to the exhibit and to also represent the wealth that grows in the soil of both the county and the state, a great seal of the state of Oregon is mounted in grains on one of the lofty beams of the booth."

"There are but fewer larger reservations in the building than that of Marion county, and but few exhibits which show a greater variety of products and manufactures. On the counters encircling the display are mammoth cabbages, some of which weigh more than 35 pounds; beets, wax beans, potatoes, turnips, pie plant, peaches, apples, cherries, plums, prunes, chestnuts and walnuts. And in the center of the booth are pyramids and cases containing specimens of dried onions, parsnips, potatoes, carrots and mushrooms. The display of canned and preserved fruits is magnificent. The designing of the walls in grains and grasses is both beautiful and unique.

"Heavy luxuriant stalks of alfalfa six feet long, stalks of vetch, of cheat hay, of flax, of wheat, of timothy and of oats, and lastly, of hops, are arranged in such a manner as will best bring their good points in relief. Prune portieres grace one end of the booth, and represent another giant industry of the county.

Great Industry.

As indicative of another great industry there is shown an extremely beautiful Angora goat fleece. On top of a glass cabinet there stands as if in life an Angora buck and a Cotswold sheep. In the cabinet are shown lap robes made of very fine mohair, and in another case are shown blankets and samples of broadcloth and suitings made of Marion county wool and by Marion county mills.

Of the other products of the soil of Marion county and of its factories are samples of almost 40 different kinds of woods, of which there is now standing about 3,350,000,000 feet; harness made of leather secured from Marion county cattle, and by Marion county workmen; cheeses of all kinds, beautiful couches and bits of furniture made of Marion county woods and by Marion county turners, and firebrick.

Nothing more convincing can be said than that in 1904 Marion county yielded grain valued at $1,421,850 and numbering 2,369,750 bushels, and that the total value of her farm products for that year was $5,325,000. And of the gold under the earth there are shown samples of rich ore.

Greatly in Demand.

Nothing is more in demand than a medicine which meets modern requirements for a blood and system cleanser, such as Dr. King's New Life Pills. They are just what you need to cure stomach and liver troubles. Try them. At J. C. Perry's drug store, 25c., guaranteed.

AN UGLY THREAT

A TINSMITH ALARMED BY THE TREMBLING OF HIS LIMBS.

Finds Out How to Regain Control of His Nerves and Is Freed From the Greatest Anxiety.

It is a much easier task to meet the attack of an open enemy that to dwell in constant dread of an assault in the dark that is vaguely hinted at and may come at the first unguarded moment. Hints of possible nervous breakdown may well terrify any workingman for his command over his nerves is a large part of his capital. Mr. William Browne, of No. 1019 Lincoln street, St. Joseph, Mo., is an expert tinner in the employ of the National Biscuit Co. He tells the following story of a trying experience:

"In the spring of 1902," he says, "while I was regularly working at my trade, I grew somewhat careless in my habits of eating and drinking, and finally found that my appetite was feeble, a bad taste lingered in my mouth, my nerves twitched and were beyond my control, my kidneys were out of order, and cold sweats would break over my body at odd times. Perhaps, while I stood talking with some one, this trembling of the limbs, and profuse sweating, a severe chill would seize me. I became alarmed at my condition and, having read an advertisement of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, I got a box and began using them. They helped me at once. After I had used one box the twitching of the nerves, the trouble with the stomach and the cold sweats stopped and have not reappeared, and my appetite is good. I have told several friends that Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are all right and I recommend them to everybody."

Much has been said and written recently about medicines that contain alcohol, and while most of the criticism has been unnecessarily alarming, it is evident that a remedy in pill form is certain to free from objection on this score. Furthermore, Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People are absolutely guaranteed to be entirely harmless to the most delicate constitution and may be taken without fear. They have cured thousands of cases and if you will write to Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y., stating your trouble, you will receive a frank reply. If the pills will cure you, proof will be furnished; if they are not suited for your trouble, you will be honestly told so.
