FUNERALS IN FRANCE

According to a French paper, on December 29, 1904, it was decreed that the monopoly of funerals should be equally divided between the cities of France and the churches. The city has the exclusive right to transport the body, to decorate the exterior of the mortuary building and to furnish caskets. The church, on the other hand, has the sole right to decorate the house of the deceased and to decorate the churches. From the mortuary buildings provided by the city there go forth each day 150 funeral processions, or 55,000 a year. Twelve hundred persons are employed in the industry, including offices, workshops, warehouses, stables, etc. A stock of materials to the value of $1,000,000 is carried. The services rendered by this branch of the Paris municipal government are divided into many classes, but only the first five are profitable. On all the others there is a net loss. The institution is required to furnish caskets and other materials free to the indigent poor. The charges in the first of the five classes on which a profit is made amount to $1430, which includes $200 for the catafalque, each coachman and livery $3 and $1 extra for shoulder knobs and 80 cents extra for cockades. A standard of flags costs $5, and a war horse led by hand $8. The caskets vary in price from $9 to $60, according to material and finish. Although this department has been in operation but a short time, it is judged to be successful.

Sickening Shivering Fits of ague and malaria, can be relieved and cured with Electric Bitters. This is a pure, tonic medicine; of especial benefit in malaria, for it exerts a true curative influence on the disease, driving it entirely out of the system. It is much to be preferred to quinine, having none of this drug's bad after-effects. E. S. Munday, of Henrietta, Tex., writes: "My brother was very low with malarial fever and jaundice, till he took Electric Bitters, which saved his life. At J. C. Perry's drug store; price 50c guaranteed."

No Compulsion. "You sign this deed of your own free will, do you, madam?" asked the lawyer. "What do you mean by that?" demanded the large red faced woman. "I mean there has been no compulsion on the part of your husband, has there?" "Him?" she ejaculated, turning to look at the meek little man sitting beside her. "I'd like to see him try to compulse me."—London Tid Bits.

Greatly in Demand. Nothing is more in demand than a medicine which meets modern requirements for a blood and system cleanser, such as Dr. King's New Life Pills. They are just what you need to cure stomach and liver troubles. Try them. At J. C. Perry's drug store, 25c., guaranteed.

Teachers' Examinations. Notice is hereby given that the county superintendent of Marion county, Oregon, will hold the regular examination of applicants for state and county papers at the Methodist church beginning Wednesday, August 9, 1905, at 9 o'clock a. m. and continuing until Saturday, August 12th at 4 o'clock p. m. E. T. MOORES, County School Supt.

DOING THEIR DUTY.

Scores of Salem Readers Are Learning the Duty of the Kidneys.

To filter the blood is the kidney's duty. When they fail to do this the kidney's are sick.

Backache and many kidney ills follow.

Urinary troubles, diabetes.

Doan's Kidney Pills cure them all.

Mrs. Conradina Arnold, of 440 East First street, Albany, Oregon, says:

"Doan's Kidney Pills did me considerable good. I used them for rheumatic pains across the small of my back and down through the sides which were very severe when I stooped to lift anything or sat in one position for any length of time. I got Doan's Kidney Pills and commenced their use. I began to get better right away and continued taking them. They soon relieved me and I have had very little trouble since. I shall always try to keep Doan's Kidney Pills in the house and will recommend them at every opportunity."

A Grim Tragedy

is daily enacted, in thousands of homes as death claims, in each one, another victim of consumption or pneumonia. But when coughs and colds are properly treated, the tragedy is averted. F. O. Huntley, of Oakland, Ind., writes: "My wife had the consumption, and three doctors gave her up. Finally she took Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, coughs and colds, which cured her, and today she is well and strong." It kills the germs of all diseases. One dose relieves.
