Doings Down by the Restless Sea

Newport, Aug. 1.—The Portland fair is keeping down the crowds at this summer resort. The thousands here at other seasons by the opening of August are represented only by hundreds. Parties of transients composed of fair visitors from the East come to this jumping-off place of the Pacific coast, and are surprised at the cheapness of hotel accommodations and the excellent sea-bathing and beautiful beaches. That they should look out from the same hotel windows, sitting in the same chair, on the broad Pacific and upon the Coast Range of mountains, is a rare treat, indeed. The plenitude of sea-food, and the splendid supply of fruits and vegetables and meats makes the bill of fare at Newport about the best in the world for the prices, which are one-half to one-third what is asked at similar places on the California and Atlantic beaches. The weather has been very mild, southeasterly winds prevailing and little or no rain. The first Chinook salmon are running in.

Idiots With Guns.

It is outrageous the way sea-birds are being slaughtered by the ruthless hunter who kills for the sake of killing. It is related of an Englishman recounting another Englishman: "Fine day this; let's go out and kill something." The spirit that prompts men to bring guns to the beaches, and that allows mothers to give their boys revolvers and rifles, and have them parade the beaches and shoot surf ducks, divers, terns, snipe, shags and gulls, and to fire at every seal that comes within a mile of land, is almost devilish. These same birds and animals are all harmless and beautiful, and are a great attraction to the visitors from the interior. The fact remains that nine persons out of ten enjoy seeing them, and only the selfish, murderous tenth individual seems to enjoy killing. The steam launch that runs out to sea and makes trips to Seal Rocks advertises that persons going will have the glorious privilege of shooting birds and seals off the rocks, and men do go out on those trips and fire into the flocks of harmless sea-birds perched on the crags out at sea where they are supposed to be permitted to breed and colonize unmolested. It is to be hoped no bad luck will ever attend one of those launches on one of these bird-killing trips, but if the Author of Creation watches over the sparrows, as we are told He does, it stands to reason that His care also extends to the harmless sea-birds.

Great Sunday Excursion.

The Corvallis and Eastern had another very successful Sunday excursion and the crowds assembled in the evening to see the crowded boat and covered barge got off. There are always a number of people who get left and it is great fun to see belated couples race to catch the boat, and then some of them miss it by a few feet only. One less lingering look at the ocean, one minute less of sitting on the sand with his arm around his sweetheart would have saved the young man losing his return trip. Some of the belated parties are very angry because the boat will not come back to them, and Captain Jacobson would have to be a man with an India-rubber conscience to do his duty by the company and also accommodate the stragglers. One slim youth, tall and with a red necktie, with a little sawed-off girlie clinging to his arm, came ploughing down the hill Sunday evening through the sand from Nye Creek, and the boat was nearly out of sight. He rushed over onto the dock and shouted to the steamer in vain, while the crowd guyed him and the young woman blushed and rushed George down to the float where there was a launch that was soon puffing away with them in its little cabin, and they were sure of a lovely time because they had it all to themselves. It cost a little more, but what does a young man in love care for expense?

A Fine Base Ball Game.

Saturday witnessed one of the stiffest base ball games of the season at Newport between the Newport team, mostly visitors, and the Corvallis nine. The score was 2 to 1 in favor of Newport, and this one was made by Bradshaw, a Newport man who is no longer a kid, but naturally a player. Frank Blackberry of Bandon pitched for Newport, and this nephew of the Silver-ton dentist is about the prettiest pitcher on the coast. The game Sunday was between Corvallis and the Siletz team, and stood 11 to 2 in favor of the Hayseed college boys. The game was well attended and well managed by W. G. Ewing, who has great success in arranging games and pulling them off on time. There is to be a prize fight one night this week, and Newport is putting on sporting airs. There is the usual contingent of gamblers here every summer, but like other sports that depend on the crowds, they have slim picking. The incoming crowds are increasing, and the month of August promises better than July. Bonfires on the beaches and warmer water for surf bathing are adding to the daily and nightly pleasures.

Newport's Social Side.

Captain James P. Patrick entertained a party of friends and relatives with a dinner party at the Monterey hotel on Monday afternoon. Iowa representatives are here from Fayette county and different parts of the old Hawkeye state.

The principal hotels down town are well filled and are putting guests into outside rooms. But Newport has wonderful expansive powers when it comes to holding a crowd.

Among those at the Grand Pacific are Chas. Staats and wife, North Yakima; Mrs. C. H. Park, Eugene; W. B. Crane and wife, Portland; Mrs. Lillian McMorris, Portland; Mrs. Thomas A. Purdy, Walla Walla; A. B. McClellan, P. D. Nicklin, Portland; A. C. Westgate and wife, Albany; Mrs. Northrup and Mrs. Alice Harder, Portland.

At the Abbey house: Wm. S. Crowell, Medford; L. A. Madison and wife, Dallas; J. F. Mair, D. McLaren, P. H. Downs, Jos. Dixon, Boise, Ida.; F. J. Randall, Los Angeles; C. P. Lansing and wife, Salem, and Mrs. Nora Bowman, West Unity, O.; R. M. Walker, Independence; H. H. Hobbs, Paul R. Willoughby, Eugene; John L. Sweeney, Salem.

Bay View hotel: Leon L. Cox, Bandon; M. Arant, Monmouth; C. M. Stout and wife, Roseburg; Dr. George W. Diggers, La Grande; Mrs. C. C. Glover, Hille, Col.; E. E. Wyman and wife, Galena, Kan.; Hanna Austin, Fargo, N. D.; Mrs. T. K. Ford, Salem; C. A. Crawford, Frankfort, Kan.

Martin Maloney, agent for the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul R. R., of Fayette, Ia., accompanied by his wife and daughter are "chaperoning" the following party of Fayette county citizens:

John Turner and wife, George Shaffer and wife, H. Matthews and daughter, Robt. Matthews and daughter, J. M. Edmonds, Carl Edmonds and Miss Bessie Edmonds, John Matthews and wife, Allen Belknap, Frank Kelly, Roy Sanders, and Miss Mattie Lee, Miss Proctor and Miss O'Brien. There were several others whose names we did not learn.

The party came out to visit the Lewis and Clark exposition. After taking in the fair and sights of Portland they went over to Long Beach and from thence up through the great Willamette valley to Corvallis, where they secured a camp outfit and came over to Oregon's charming summer resort and are enjoying a jolly good time.

They are highly pleased with what they have seen of Oregon, and the treatment accorded them by the people of the west.

Want Hog Engines.

Probably Harriman will make a change. A crowd of brakemen at the depot yesterday afternoon, when the northbound passenger train came in with two locomotives, expressed their disgust with the management of the road, and one of the bunch voiced the sentiment of the other brake-twisters, when he opined that Harriman would make more money on the passenger runs if he would pull off some of the "hog" engines from his O. R. & N. or O. S. L. roads and put on the S. P. A "hog" locomotive will pull about three times as much tonnage as the passenger locomotives now in use on the S. P.

Mrs. Conradina Arnold, of 440 East First street, Albany, Oregon, says:

"Doan's Kidney Pills did me considerable good. I used them for rheumatic pains across the small of my back and down through the sides which were very severe when I stooped to lift anything or sat in one position for any length of time. I got Doan's Kidney Pills and commenced their use. I began to get better right away and continued taking them. They soon relieved me and I have had very little trouble since. I shall always try to keep Doan's Kidney Pills in the house and will recommend them at every opportunity."

Saucier's Body Recovered.

The body of Joseph Saucier, who was drowned while swimming in the Willamette at Eldridge's landing last Sunday, was found floating in the channel by the crew of the Oregon yesterday afternoon about 4 o'clock. The body was found about three miles below the scene of the accident, and was placed on the shore near the point where found, to await the action of the coroner.

The drowned boy was about 15 years of age, and is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ansel Saucier, who live near Simond's landing. The family yesterday telegraphed to Hugh Brady, the noted longshoreman, who has the record of having recovered more than 100 bodies of the drowned from Oregon waters. The body was found, however, before he arrived.
