Little Florence Cartwright. Slept While Hundreds Search for Her.

Little Florence, the 3-year-old daughter of Dr. and Mrs. R. Cartwright, of the Florence Sanatorium, late yesterday afternoon wandered away from her home, and when her parents looked for her at supper time she could not be found. As the little one had been in the habit of playing near the mill race some thought she might have fallen in the water and drowned. The water was shut off at the headgates of the race, and anxious parties lined the bridges west of Cottage street, to look for the body, while others were searching in the different localities near the Sanatorium for the lost one. As no trace of the little one was discovered the news spread throughout the city, and nearly every one who heard the news engaged in the search.

While the search was at its height, Mrs. S. R. Vail, a neighbor, thought it might be possible that little Florence had entered one of the nearby houses, and gone to sleep, without being noticed by the occupants, which proved to be true, for she had entered the side door of the Arthur Welch house, opposite the Cartwright home, and gone to sleep on a divan. Mrs. Vail took the liberty of entering the Welch home, and there, sound asleep, the little tot lay, unconscious of the alarm and excitement she had caused her parents and others in the city.

Lost His Cigarette.

A very peculiar accident happened on the Corvallis & Eastern this forenoon on the way out from the bay. George Clark, of St. Helens, a young man, was standing on the steps of the platform after the train had passed Summit, quietly rolling a cigarette, preparatory to a smoke, when a slight jerk threw him off as the cars sped along at twenty or thirty miles an hour. He rolled beside the track, but, strange to state, received only a few bruises. The train stopped, went back, picked up the young man and brought him out, and he continued his journey, congratulating himself on his narrow escape.

FRAUD EXPOSED.

A few counterfeiters have lately been making and trying to sell imitations of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, and other medicines, thereby defrauding the public. This is to warn you to beware of such people, who seek to profit through stealing the reputation of remedies which have been successfully curing disease for over 35 years. A sure protection to you is our name on the wrapper. Look for it, on all Dr. King's, or Bucklen's remedies, as all others are mere imitations. H. E. BUCKLEN & CO., Chicago, Ill., and Windsor, Canada.

No summer girl ever laid her head on a more immaculate shirt front than we are laundering every day. Test out laundry work and prove it.

Cure For The Blues

ONE MEDICINE THAT HAS NEVER FAILED

Health Fully Restored and the Joy of Life Regained

When a cheerful, brave, light-hearted woman is suddenly plunged into that perfection of misery, the BLUES, it is a sad picture. It is usually this way: She has been feeling "out of sorts."

for some time; head has ached and back also; has slept poorly, been quite nervous, and nearly fainted once or twice; head dizzy, and heart-beats very fast; then that bearing-down feeling, and during her menstrual period she is exceedingly despondent. Nothing pleases her. Her doctor says: "Cheer up; you have dyspepsia; you will be all right soon."

But she doesn't get "all right," and hope vanishes; then come the brooding, morbid, melancholy, everlasting BLUES.

Don't wait until your sufferings have driven you to despair, with your nerves all shattered and your courage gone, but take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. See what it did for Mrs. Rosa Adams, of 819 12th Street, Louisville, Ky., niece of the late General Roger Hanson, C.S.A. She writes: Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—

"I cannot tell you with pen and ink what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me. I suffered with female troubles, extreme lassitude, 'the blues,' nervousness and that all-gone feeling. I was advised to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and it not only cured my female derangement, but it has restored me to perfect health and strength. The buoyancy of my younger days has returned, and I do not suffer any longer with despondency, as I did before. I consider Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a boon to sick and suffering women."

If you have some derangement of the female organism write Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass., for advice.

As the tug Sampson was returning to Astoria from Fort Stevens last evening, and when opposite Flavel, five bullets were fired into her pilothouse by some one in a fishing boat. Pilot Copeland was at the wheel, and, while the bullets struck near him, he was not injured. Who fired the shots is not known, but it is supposed to have been some fisherman, whose net the Sampson had run down.
