GREAT DAY AT CHEMAWA

A Splendid Program Interests the Hundreds of Visitors

Commencement day at the Salem Indian school was attended by a large number of visitors, and there are interesting programs for this evening.

This morning was occupied going over the grounds and shops and gardens. Field sports at 10 o'clock comprised an interesting program.

At 2:30 a class of five was graduated amid a profusion of flowers and music, and very creditable literary exercises. The diplomas were presented by Col. E. Hofer, of The Journal.

Mrs. Mary E. Theiss, matron of the school, was assisted by Mrs. Campbell, Misses Bowman, Miller, Dohse and Mrs. Cloutier in showing the visitors the domestic science departments and dormitories.

The tailor shop is in charge of Mr. Overton, the blacksmith shop in charge of Mr. Mann, the engineer department in charge of Marion Kightlinger, wagon shop in charge of Mr. Hill and harness shop by Mr. Farrow (Indian), and carpenter shop by Mr. Woods, were all visited in turn. The printing office is in charge of Richard Long, an Indian boy.

Inspectors Charles and Chubbuck are going over the departments. A hospital building, a cottage for Assistant Superintendent Campbell, and a horse barn and cow barn, costing in all about $30,000 will go up this fall. Plans and specifications are on file at Chemawa, and bids will be opened September 5th, at Washington, D. C. The past year an addition to the dining hall has been constructed by the boys.

Prof. Walter Smith, John Minto, Mr. and Mrs. G. Stolz, Miss Bellinger and Miss Miller, of the Salem schools; Wm. Claggett and wife, Mrs. Seley and Mrs. Stevenson, Mrs. C. G. Schramm and Mrs. A. C. Mathes, of Minnesota; Miss Elwina Schramm, Robert Mathis, Miss Florence Sell, Prof. Goode and Dr. Frank Smith were among the Salem visitors.

MORE ESCAPES CAPTURED.

Bank Clerks on Pleasure Bent Capture Young Thompson.

Thomas and Thompson, two of the escaped reform school youths, were captured yesterday, and six are still at large. Roscoe Thomas, of Southern Oregon, was taken in by the officers at Dallas yesterday afternoon, and Thompson was captured near Eola last evening by Fred Thielson and Sam Young, of the Ladd & Bush bank. The darkness and the dense timber prevented them from securing two more, who were in the bunch at the time they were discovered.

These three boys had crossed the river above Salem Sunday night, and were making for Oregon City. They got as far as McCoy yesterday, but, being compelled to keep away from the roads, they lost their bearing, and came back to Salem instead of going north.

Thielson and Young were going up the river in a canoe last evening, when they were informed by Walter Lyons, who was going along the road in a buggy, that the boys were resting on the river bank in the brush near Eola. The bank clerks at once decided that they would do the Sherlock Holmes act for a change, and at once started out to capture the runaways. The boys were surprised, but, when ordered to give up, started for the brush, at the same time hurling rocks at their pursuers. Thompson was finally cornered, and tried to escape by swimming the river, but was easily overtaken by the canoe. Although only 14 years of age, he proved himself to be a desperate criminal. He was very much disgusted with his companions for not coming to his assistance when he was caught.

He was brought to Salem last night, and spent the night in the city jail, being taken to the school this morning.

Grave Trouble Foreseen.
It needs but little foresight to tell that when your stomach and liver are badly afflicted, grave trouble is ahead, unless you take the proper medicine for your disease, as Mrs. John A. Young, of Clay, N. Y., did. She says: "I had neuralgia of the liver and stomach, my heart was weakened, and I could not eat. I was very bad for a long time, but in Electric Bitters I found just what I needed, for they quickly relieved and cured me." Best medicine for weak women. Sold under guarantee by J. C. Perry, Druggist, Salem, Or., at 50c a bottle.

SUPREME COURT DECISIONS

Seven Opinions Handed Down at Noon Today by Justices

The supreme court handed down seven decisions today, as follows:

The case of Andrew Sorensen vs. The Oregon Water Power & Railroad Co. was modified. Sorensen received decision in the court below. This was an action to recover damages for injury received through the negligence of the employers. The lower court awarded $9540, with interest, for crushed leg. The supreme court eliminated interest.

The case of W. F. Mundenke vs. The Oregon City Manufacturing Co. was affirmed. Mundenke, a boy, lost part of two fingers while working in a woolen mill at Oregon City. Both courts awarded him damages.

The case of Capt. F. B. Jones vs. Carrie S. Jones was reversed. The lower court denied Jones a divorce on grounds of adultery.

The case of S. Morton Cohn vs. E. Henry Wemme, was affirmed. Cohn got the decision in the lower court. This was an action to recover rent for real property in Portland.

The case of William L. Mee vs. Bowden Gold Mining Co. was affirmed. This was an action to secure payment for services rendered as superintendent of a mine in Jackson county.

The case of William Horn vs. United States Mining Securities & Trust Co., and Arthur Rowley, was reversed and dismissed. Horn got the decision in the lower court. Horn sought to foreclose a miner's lien.

The case of William Horn vs. United States Mining Securities & Trust Co. was affirmed. Horn got decision in the lower court. Horn filed a complaint against the above company, and recovered decision through failure of the company to answer the complaint at proper time.

FRAUD EXPOSED.

A few counterfeiters have lately been making and trying to sell imitations of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, and other medicines, thereby defrauding the public. This is to warn you to beware of such people, who seek to profit, through stealing the reputation of remedies which have been successfully curing disease for over 35 years. A sure protection to you is our name on the wrapper. Look for it, on all Dr. King's, or Bucklen's remedies, as all others are mere imitations. H. E. BUCKLEN & CO. Chicago, Ill., and Windsor, Canada. For sale by J. C. Perry, Salem.

WORKING IN THE HEAT

Difficulties Under Which Some Foreign Missionaries Labor

New York, Aug. 15.—The Rev. Dr. S. B. Rosster, pastor of the American church in Manila, which is maintained by the Presbyterian Board of Foreign Missions, wonders how clergymen in America would like to have mid-summer conditions all the year round. That is what he has to contend with in Manila. In his May report, just received at the office here of the board named, he says: "May has been a 'corker.' You will appreciate conditions here if you recall what church work is in New York during the month of August. It is August weather of the worst kind in the month of May here and we have to do our church work in August conditions all the year round. You will not wonder that congregations are varied and small, and that the pastor's wife should have the temerity to write on a piece of paper and send it to the pulpit: 'Home, cut it short; it is very hot this morning,' and that the poor preacher should go home as wet as though he had been plunged in a bath. But I do not believe it is any hotter here than it was in the Jordan valley in Christ's time (singular there is nothing said about the weather in the New Testament) and the Gospel must be preached.

Our church is changing its constituency now very rapidly. The troops are being concentrated at Fort McKinley, five miles away. Nearly all the officers' families accustomed to worship with us have been ordered away. The soldiers who used to attend the meetings have also gone. All of this makes a difference in the size of our audience, but it furnished opportunity for labor in other fields. One of our young men is about to establish a Sunday school at Fort McKinley and we may start a preaching service there. It is the evident intention of the government to weed out Americans and put natives in their places (in the army) in order to save expenses. So the Americans are being sent home. We are feeling this in the stores, on the streets, in the churches and the condition will remain for two or three years, till capital begins to be invested here, and people come out from the states to fill positions other than governmental ones.' Estimates for the building of the Presbyterian chapel in Manila are so high that the plans and specifications have been sent to New York in an effort to get the steel work done here at a lower rate, so that the building may be erected within the appropriation, $10,000. Manila estimates run in the neighborhood of $18,000. It may be that a wooden framed building, instead of a steel one, will have to be adopted. This would save about $6,000.

FELL FROM HAYMOW.

Alfred Freeksen Sustained Serious Injuries at His Farm Home Yesterday.

Alfred Freeksen, a brother of Mrs. E. J. Seeley, while at work in the barn of his father, near this city, fell from the haymow yesterday noon, a distance of from 15 to 20 feet, and sustained injuries that are quite serious. The young man fell on his hands and knees, and these members, as well as his body and face, were seriously bruised. He was quickly taken into the house and a physician called from this city. It was impossible to ascertain immediately how badly the unfortunate man was hurt until the bruises can be attended to. The physicians did not think that any serious results would follow, and, after easing the young man's pain, allowed him to rest until this morning, when a further investigation will be made. Mr. Freeksen was resting easy at a late hour last night, and it was thought by his family that he would soon recover, though he had sustained a serious shock in addition to his injuries.—Albany Herald.

Silverware Made for Service

Silverware that is made for looks, not wear, is a poor investment. The saving of a few cents on a piece of silver might mean the loss of a dollar's worth of service. Everyone knows that the ROGERS Knives, Forks and Spoons are heavy, double-plated that will last for years.

The reasonableness of these prices for ROGERS' SILVERWARE will enable anyone to replenish their stock at a very moderate outlay.
