

SHORT SESSION TODAY

Japs Will Receive Russia's Answer and Adjournment Will Follow

Portsmouth, Aug. 26.—The peace envoys and members of their staffs were up early this morning receiving and sending final messages to and from their governments, preparatory to the meeting today.

St. Petersburg, Aug. 26.—The statement is made today at the foreign office that the government agrees with Witte that a compromise should be offered Japan.

Portsmouth, Aug. 26.—Witte said just after noon: "All depends upon Japan, and whether she will make concessions. I do not anticipate any unfavorable result from today's meeting, and am anxious to get away."

Portsmouth, Aug. 26.—It is believed three specific propositions are embodied in Russia's answer presented to Japan this afternoon, a reiteration of her determination not to pay cash under any circumstances, a refusal to purchase half of Sakhalin, but willing to reimburse Japan for the care of her prisoners and other reasonable charges.

London, Aug. 26.—It is reported at St. Petersburg that a million men will be mobilized shortly and sent to the front in Manchuria.

New Cure for Consumption.

New York, Aug. 26.—Physicians of this city are much interested in a circular issued yesterday by the New York Post Graduate Hospital, announcing the discovery of a new cure for consumption.

The statement is made that 11 patients with well developed pulmonary tuberculosis have been absolutely cured and are now good subjects for life insurance risks.

eral years, and occasional brief accounts have been published of cures alleged to have been performed.

Accompanying the circular are the names of two New York physicians, who, it is stated, were appointed by the hospital authorities to observe and report on the experiments, and they speak in most sanguine terms of what has been accomplished and what will doubtless follow as the work proceeds.

In addition to applying the raw vegetable juice as a cure for the most obstinate cases of consumption, the hospital's circular announces that "it is believed, moreover, that this may lead to a means by which everybody may be rendered immune from the deadly tubercule bacilli, just as vaccination safeguards from smallpox.

A SEATTLE INDUSTRY

Seattle, Aug. 26.—The police have unearthed a wholesale plot to deport young girls from this vicinity to Alaska for immoral purposes. J. W. Marvin, a musician, and Robert McNeil, a saloonist, were arrested, and other arrests will follow.

Family Will Settle Claim.

Corvallis, Aug. 26.—Police Judge Grefox has left with $2010.26 of Corvallis' assessment money. The amount was made public in the report of the ways and means committee, submitted to the council at an adjourned meeting Thursday night.

At the request of the attorney of relatives of the ex-official, an adjourned meeting of the council is set for Saturday-night, at which time a settlement of the balance by the family is expected.

No Split Expected.

Indianapolis, Ind., Aug. 26.—The Democratic city convention met here this morning and judging from indications there will be little, if any, opposition to the re-nomination of Mayor Holtzman.

The primaries for ward councilmen will be held on September 1. It had been proposed to hold the primaries and the convention at earlier dates, but the executive committee decided that it would be in the interest of the party to make the campaign as short as it could conveniently be made.

PRINCE OF WALES CUP RACE

All Canadian and Eastern Yacht Clubs Take Part in the Race

Halifax, N. S., Aug. 26.—The fleetest keel of the Canadian and Eastern Yacht Clubs are assembled in Halifax harbor to attend the annual yacht race for the Prince of Wales cup, the most coveted trophy ever contested for in any of the British colonies.

The cup was originally presented to the Halifax Yacht Club when the present king, then the Prince of Wales, visited Halifax, in 1860. It is a beautiful specimen of the silversmith's art, standing two feet high, and of great artistic value.

and the Royal Nova Scotia Yacht Club was formed, the latter received the trophy from the Halifax Yacht Club as a legacy. The trophy has never left the waters on which it was first sailed for.

Not to be outdone in courtesy by the Nova Scotia yachtmen, Mr Laurence Minot has offered a trophy to be competed for by the Canadian yachts at the same time, when the Prince of Wales of cup is sailed for.

The first race was sailed today over a course of 25 miles off Halifax harbor. Under the regulations of the Royal Nova Scotia Yacht Club, according to which the measurement of the yachts is determined by multiplying the lead waterline by the sail area and dividing the result by 6000, several of the American boats were barred from competing in the race.

This evening the visiting yachtmen from the United States will be the guests of the Royal Nova Scotia Yacht Club at a grand celebration at their club house. On that occasion many government officials and prominent citizens will also be present to greet the American yachtmen.
