STATE NEWS

G. P. Williams, a miner at Baker City, who has been employed at the Blue River iron works, is in jail, to answer to a serious charge. During a mix-up on the last night of the carnival Williams shot at George Kerns, a gambler, the bullet striking him in the arm. Kerns and Williams have had trouble before this, the latter charging Kerns with paying undue attention to his wife. Williams says he meant to kill Kerns.

The Nat Reiss Southern Carnival Company has just closed a week's engagement at Baker City.

Hit the Trail on Sundays.

Commencing with Sunday, August 28th, the Trail at the exposition and all the amusement features, as well as the exhibit buildings, were thrown open, and hereafter will be running the same on Sunday as on other days. In fact the exposition will be practically as complete on Sundays as on week days. The Southern Pacific Company have on sale Saturday to Monday excursion tickets, $2.50 for the round trip, which enables visitors to go to Portland Saturday afternoon and remain until Monday night, or return Sunday evening, as they may desire. 8-7-1f

Naturally.

The guide who was taking a party of American tourists through the Holy Land, called a halt.

"Here," he said, "is where Lot's wife looked back and turned into a pillar of salt."

"I don't see no evidence of her," objected the tall, slender Missourian with the chin beard, looking around searchingly.

"The gentleman will remember," rejoined the guide, "that the incident took place thousands of years ago, and there have been many hard rain storms since then."—Chicago Tribune.

She Must Go Back. Governor Chamberlain last evening honored the requisition papers from the governor of California for the return to that state of Miss Frances Hale. Miss Hale is now held in Portland, and is wanted in Los Angeles to answer the charge of embezzling $1000. It is reported that she will fight the extradition papers.

BENICIA HANCOCK DISC PLOWS

Our 1905 plow is again improved and brought, as usual, ahead of competition. It combines simplicity, convenience, utility, strength and durability in the most comprehensive degree. You will agree fully with us in all this once you've looked into the disc plow question.

Here are a few reasons why: It can be built from a one disc upward to any desired number in a few moments' time, without extra cost save the price of the completed plow of the size desired.

It has the heavy weight, which is a very necessary factor in a disc plow, for hard ground.

It has land gauge for controlling the furrow wheel, which holds the plow on any hillsides.

Rear wheel controller furnished as option, which controls rear wheel in same manner, releasing rear wheel at will for turning curves either way, so that the plow can be turned in its tracks and lined up without leaving the seat.

It has "V" shaped or flat rimmed wheels at option, the former for the hill trade, when desired. The tongue adjusted so that plain three or four-horse eveners can be used without the need of "offset" hitches of any sort. This evens the pull on all horses, and eliminates the side draft, which you can prove for yourself, and which is one of the worst things with which other disc plows are now contending. Use your eyes a bit and ask a few questions of the dealer, and you'll find that's a fact.

It has dust caps on all wheel axles and disc bearings, which add materially to their length of life.

It has grease cups on disc bearings, which are a great convenience to the operator.

Lever all within easy reach from the seat.

First-class chilled scrapers as options for the hill farmers. These have been thoroughly tested for the last four years, hence they are no experiment.

Lastly, the strength and durability of this plow has been put to the test all over the Northwest, and it stands the superior of any in the field. Many a man has not spent 25 cents on his plow since he purchased it.

THE SIDE HILL REVERSIBLE DISC

It is now in use on many a hill farm. It's a success of the highest type. Comes in one disc size only, and throws the furrow all one way. A great boon to the hill farmer.

We want you to look at these plows. The Benicia Hancock is now commencing its fifth year in the Willamette valley, hence it is no experiment, and you're not taking any chances. Drop us a line for cuts or further information.

OTHER SEASONABLE LINES

Monitor Double Disc Drills are now in use in every section of our territory. They are without question the most satisfactory drill you can find. Now don't take this as an agent's boast, without foundation of fact. You can verify this by inquiring of any one of the 50 or 60 users hereabout, many of whom have tried various sorts.

Send for catalogue and then come and see the drill.

Fanning Mills

These will be needed more than ever this fall. We can fix you up at once.

Feed Choppers

Will save their price in a short time. We have a good line.

Potato Diggers

The sort with two wheels in front, that straddle the row and dig all the potatoes. Best on the market.

Narrow Hop Trucks

Nine inches narrower than regular, with grooved metal wheels and wood bounds. A first-class truck.

These and many other reasonable goods now on hand for immediate delivery. Call and inspect or send for catalogue of any of these lines.
