

The Itch Fiend

That is Salt Rheum or Eczema,—one of the outward manifestations of scrofula. It comes in itching, burning, oozing, drying, and scaling patches, on the face, head, hands, legs or body. It cannot be cured by outward applications,—the blood must be rid of the impurity to which it is due.

SOCIAL EVENTS

Albert-Briggs Wedding.

A very interesting and pleasing wedding took place Tuesday afternoon, when Miss Leona N. Briggs was married to Mr. Eben T. Albert, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Briggs, on Court and 21st streets. Rev. W. H. Solleek performed the ceremony in the most approved form, and the event was attended by about 40 relatives and friends. The rooms of the home were handsomely decorated in red cactus dahlias and wild elematis wine, while the bridal arch in the parlor was clustered with white pears. Miss Margaret Southwick, a cousin of the bride, played the wedding march and presided at the piano throughout the service. After hearty congratulations a delightful luncheon was served, when the party left for Portland amid the usual shower of rice and good wishes from their friends. After a few days at the exposition the young couple will make their home on the corner of 16th and Ferry streets, where their house is comfortably furnished. Many costly and attractive presents were in evidence, such as will be useful in the adornment of their future home. The bride is a native daughter, and a very charming and popular young lady. The groom is the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. T. G. Albert, and holds a responsible position in the implement house of F. A. Wiggins.

Don't Hunt Rabbits With Battleships

NOR ATTACK FORTS WITH PISTOLS—NOT BECAUSE YOU COULD NO KILL RABBITS WITH A 12-INCH GUN, FOR YOU COULD; AND NOT BECAUSE YOU COULD NOT TAKE A FORT WITH PISTOLS, FOR THAT IS CONCEIVABLE—BUT BECAUSE YOU SHOULD TRY TO FIT YOUR MEANS TO YOUR PURPOSES—AND IN THESE INSTANCES YOU WOULD HAVE RATHER CONSPICUOUS MISFITS.

ADVERTISING DON'T USE A PAGE OF SPACE TO SECURE A FURNISHED ROOM—NOR AN INCH OF SPACE TO FILL A STORE WITH CUSTOMERS—NOT BECAUSE THE PAGE AD. WOULD NOT SECURE A FURNISHED ROOM, FOR IT WOULD; AND NOT BECAUSE AN INCH OF SPACE WOULD NOT DRAW A STORE FULL OF CUSTOMERS, FOR THAT IS CONCEIVABLE—IF YOU OFFERED GOLD PIECES TO ALL COMERS. BUT TRY TO USE PUBLICITY IN A RATIONAL WAY.

A MERCHANT WOULD NOT EXPECT TO LEASE OR BUILD A BIG STORE BUILDING AS CHEAPLY AS A SMALL ONE; BUT IT SOMETIMES HAPPENS THAT HE IMAGINES HE CAN KEEP THE BIG STORES FULL OF BUYERS WITH THE SAME EXPENDITURE AS HE WOULD MAKE FOR THE SMALLER STORE. NOBODY KNOWS JUST WHY THE MERCHANT IS SEIZED WITH THIS ABERRATION—BUT UNLESS HE QUICKLY THROWS IT OFF HE FINDS HIMSELF "TAKING THE COUNT," WITH THE SHERIFF HOLDING THE WATCH.

TO FILL A BIG STORE, EVERY BUSINESS DAY, WITH BUYERS IS THE SAME PROBLEM AS THAT OF FILLING THE LITTLE STORE, OR THE ANY-SIZE-STORE; THE SOLUTION, IN ANY CASE, BEING "ADEQUATE (SUFFICIENT) PUBLICITY" AND, INCIDENTALLY, NO STORE EVER HAD THIS—AND CHARM OF STORE KEEPING IS PARTLY IN THE FACT THAT NO ONE HAS YET SOUNDED ITS POSSIBILITIES—AS NO STORE HAS BEEN ADVERTISED AS FULLY AND PERSISTENTLY AND AGGRESSIVELY AND ENTHUSIASTICALLY AS IT MIGHT HAVE BEEN.

MARION CIRCUIT COURT

The first divorce to be granted during this term of court was granted to Edna G. Stone yesterday afternoon by Judge Galloway. The reasons for divorce were cruel and inhuman treatment. The parties to the suit were married 11 years ago, and have three children, a son, aged 9 years, who is left in the custody of his father, and two daughters, 5 and 6, who are left in the custody of the mother. The father was also given permission to visit his daughters, but with the admonition not to molest the plaintiff.

In the case of John Gray vs. M. L. Jones judgement was entered on mandate for dismissal of complaint. Defendant will be asked to pay the costs.

Three divorce cases were set for trial today, as follows: Edith McRay vs. Charles S. McRay, Wm. Schafer vs. Maud Schafer and Ida Fairchild vs. Joseph M. Fairchild.

EUGENE VOTES BONDS

For Municipal Light and Water Plants

Eugene special: A special election was held Monday on the question of authorizing the city council to issue bonds for the purpose of providing a municipal system of water and light works. The ballots were arranged for voting on light bonds and water bonds separately, and the vote was as follows:

Light bonds—504 for, 163 against.

Water bonds—501 for, 162 against.

There was much argument on the question for some time past, and the question has aroused a good deal of interest, but the vote cast was not much more than half a full vote. All the preliminaries have now been acted upon, and the measure is in the hands of the city council. The council has the authority to float bonds and build and operate light and water works for the city.

Union Veteran Legion Encampment.

Wilmington, Del., Feb. 13.—The national encampment of the Union Veteran Legion opened here this morning. Owing to the fact that many of the veterans had gone to Denver, Colo., to attend the national encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic, and had not yet returned, the attendance at the opening was not as large as expected, but it is hoped that many of the Eastern delegates will return from Denver in time to arrive here tomorrow or the day after. The date of the parade has not yet been definitely set, as the officials desire to make a good showing, and want to wait until additional members arrive. Tomorrow a reception and smoker will be given to the delegates by the officers and men of the First Regiment, N. G. D. It will be held at the armory, which has been beautifully decorated for the occasion. The city is in holiday attire, and the hotels are crowded with delegates and visitors from all parts of the country. The question of the election of a national commander for the coming year is causing considerable speculation. The friends of General William A. Reilly, of Wilmington, are very active, and hope to be able to secure his election.

United American Mechanics.

Washington, D. C., Sept. 13.—The 59th annual meeting of the National Council of United American Mechanics, a fraternal insurance order organized at Philadelphia in 1845, opened at 10 o'clock this morning at Typographical Temple, delegates being present from all sections of the country. The delegates were welcomed by Commissioner McFarland, and after a response by National Councilor William T. Mitchell, of Wheeling, W. Va., the convention went into secret session. The feature of today was the big parade, in which it is estimated that 10,000 men were in line.

The Japanese battleship, Mikasa, Togo's flagship, caught fire and sunk at Tokio Monday.

Ten victims of the New York elevated street car wreck have died. The state railroad commission will begin an investigation today.

The mechanical arts building of the agricultural college at Logan, Utah, was destroyed by fire this morning. Loss $50,000. It is believed that it was incendiary.

At Auburn, N. Y., Henry W. Manzer, aged 30, a farm hand, was electrocuted this morning for the murder of Cora Sweet, aged 12, May 22d.

The President has purchased, at $40 each, the chairs used by Witte and Kamura during the peace negotiations.

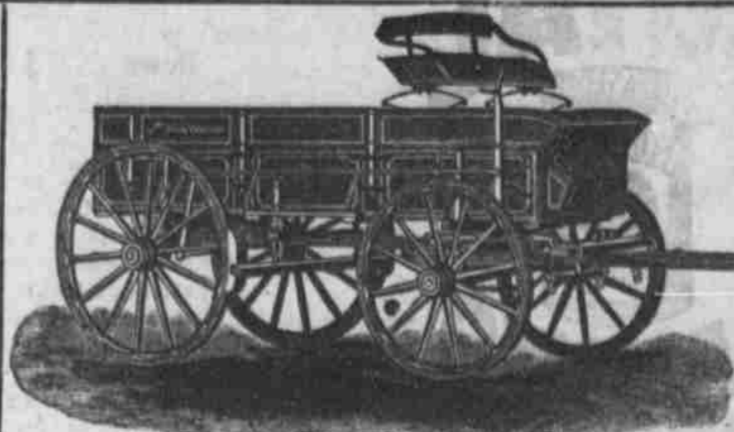

The Colonel's Waterloo.

Colonel John M. Fuller, of Honey Grove, Texas, nearly met his Waterloo from liver and kidney trouble. In a recent letter he says: "I was nearly dead of these complaints, and, although I tried my family doctor, he did me no good; so I got a 50c bottle of your great Electric Bitters, which cured me. I consider them the best medicine on earth, and thank God who gave you the knowledge to make them." Sold and guaranteed to cure dyspepsia, biliousness and kidney disease, by J. C. Perry, druggist, at 50c a bottle.

NEW YORK LIFE

It Stands up Well Under Legislative Grill

New York, Sept. 13.—The legislative insurance investigation committee resumed its work this morning. Edmund Randolph, treasurer of the New York Life, resumed the stand. He identified the report of the finance committee bearing on certain sales of stock at the time the Prussian government insisted that the company sell its holdings of stock before it could do business in Prussia. Randolph made a warm defense of this action. He said on one sale of Chicago & Northwestern stock the company made over a million dollars. He said he had been smarting under criticism, and wanted to explain. He defended the colored messenger who was selected to "borrow" money so the company could conform to the requirements of Prussia.

Attorney Hughes, for the committee, questioned Randolph closely on all the stock sales. During the examination reference was made to a non-ledger record. He said all large insurance companies and banks had non-ledger assets. He said they were good to fall back on. Hughes brought out the fact that the New York Life held 5000 shares of Union Pacific preferred, given as a bonus for syndicate operations as non-ledger accounts December 3, 1901. The witness said the company was never interested in any syndicate at a loss.
