ROASTS YELLOW JOURNAL

Reporter Got Audience and Violated Confidence(Special to 4 O'clock Journal.) Oyster Bay, Sept. 13.—The President, in a letter, repudiates the alleged interview cabled to the Petit Parisien, and recabled to New York, and published this morning. Caston Charles Richard secured for himself and a correspondent of the Legation, who sent the alleged interview, and audience with the President. They talked of personal matters. The visitors said they wished merely to pay their respects, as passing through the country from the war. The letter to Richard is a scathing denunciation of his methods, and declares the matter printed was purely a fabrication, and says he considered every action on the part of Richards thoroughly dishonorable.

A Pleasant Way to Travel.

The above is the usual verdict of the traveler using the Missouri Pacific railway between the Pacific coast and the east, and we believe that the service and accommodations given merit this statement. From Denver, Colorado Springs and Denver there are two through trains daily to Kansas City and St. Louis, carrying Pullman's latest standard electric-lighted sleeping cars, chair cars and up-to-date dining cars. The same excellent service is operated from Kansas City and St.
Louis to Memphis, Little Rock and Hot Springs. If you are going east or south, write for particulars and full information.W. C. M'BRIDE, Gen. Agt.,

JUDGE VERSUS PREACHER

Galloway Undoing the Work of Several Ministers(Four O'clock Edition.) Judge Galloway has granted three divorces already this afternoon, and at time of going to press was hearing the argument for the fourth. The cases that have been heard, and in which the plaintiffs have been granted divorces as prayed for, are: Eva L. Wood vs. W. A. Wood; Lila Johnson vs. Wm.
Johnson and G. A. Beck vs. Josie Beck.
Desertion was the grounds in each instance on which the divorce was granted. The case of Mabel McReay vs.
Charles McReay will probably be decided this afternoon also.

POET'S LOVE ROMANCE

(Four O'clock Edition.)

Berlin, Sept. 13.—A striking story of love and self-sacrifice comes from Krasnoiar, in Russia, Sergei Palkin, a well-known poet, had for several years corresponded with an unknown girl who had first written to him to express her admiration for one of his poems. This correspondence continued, and so sympathetic and intelligent were the girl's letters that, in course of time, Palkin felt that she and none other must be his wife.He had never seen her and the distance between St. Petersburg, where he lived, and Krasnoiar was so great that over a year elapsed before a meeting should be arranged. Last month Palkin paid a visit to the home of his beloved. He set out for Krasnoiar full of hope and expectation, and, reaching the house of his unknown bride-elect, he was told that she had died but an hour before.Filled with anguish, he made his way to the death-chamber, where, instead of a blooming girl, he found a corpse of a diminutive cripple, hunchbacked and malformed. Her face, however, still wore a strange loveliness, and her beautiful hair was an ornament of which any woman might have been proud. A letter was waiting for him. He opened it. It was from his bride."Dearest Sergei," it began, "for over a year I have deceived you. You thought I was a young and beautiful girl, and all might have been well had you not declared your love for me in one of your dear letters. Had you seen me as I am, without loving me, neither of us, perhaps, would have minded; but when you told me that you loved me I had neither the courage nor the heart to tell you of the misshapen creature to whom you were writing. To know that I was loved by you had been everything to me this last glorious year. I die happy, knowing that for many months, at least, I was your chosen bride."

A Short Strike.

(Four O'clock Edition.)
The pickers at the Gilbert & Patterson yard, near Eola, became disas-tised Monday and went on strike. The cause of the dissatisfaction is not known, but the differences were all adjusted yesterday, and the pickers have now gone back to work, and all are satisfied, growers as well as pickers.

McEVoy BROS.

Corner of Commercial and Court Streetcentral committee, has issued the following, through the Herald: Albany, Ore., Sept. 12, 1905.—To the Editor: Mr. F. C. Baker, chairman of the Republican state central committee, has requested me, as the member of that committee from Linn county, to invite all the Republicans who can attend the meeting to be held in Portland on Thursday, the 12th day of October, 1905, and, as it is impracticable for me to send individual invitations, and in order that no Republican may feel himself unjustly uninvited, I beg to ask space in your columns which to extend this invitation. purpose of the meeting, as I understand it, is to promote harmony, to discuss proposed constitutional amendments, and take such action as may be deemed expedient toward insuring continuance of Republican success. It is desired that all Republicans who are able to do so, and I hope general invitation may be made known as such to every member of the party, and that Linn county may furnish a large and representative delegation.
