AMUSEMENTS

TONIGHT.
 Edison—Vaudeville.
 Edison Tonight.

Greatly improved in many ways, the little Edison, Salem's polite vaudeville theatre will open tonight. Its patrons will appreciate the extra ventilation space, the side exits and the reserved seat section, which have been added. A good bill will be introduced tonight and for the balance of the week. For next Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday Manager Merrill announces the largest and best bill ever seen at the Edison.
 Headed by "The Medallion Trio" of harmony artists; "Viola Milton," the dashing comedienne and songstress, and the great Rome, Mayo and Juliet, in their side-splitting hit, "A Minstrel Burlesque." These people are all top-liners from the great Eastern and Western circuits. Mr. Merrill says "the people may judge for themselves the quality of the shows we will give them, and we will abide by their decision."

Football Tomorrow.
 The alumni game for tomorrow afternoon has been called off, but in its place there will be played a game between the first and second teams, reinforced by some old stars. Among these will be Coach Bishop, Rube Sanders and Fire Chief Savage. With the addition of these three men the "scrubs" will be able to make the "varsity" "go some," for there will be many players on the second line-up who will probably be playing on the first team before the season is over.

The game should be an interesting one, and give the men some needed experience for their California trip.

QUEER CASE OF GROWTH

Boy Near Corvallis, Doubles His Stature in Six Months

Across the river, in Linn county, from Corvallis, resides a boy of 12 years that is double the size and twice as heavy as he was six months ago. In that brief period of time he has undergone the transformation from boyhood to manhood. His growth has been so abnormal that the physicians of Oregon have been unable to account for it.

To grow so much that in six months a boy is twice as large involved changes that finally became alarming. Signs of beard began to appear on the face of the swiftgrowing lad. His limbs and body took on a size that was astonishing. The boy that had been a child of ordinary stature and proportions at 12 was a full grown man, weighing 160 pounds, and standing five feet six or seven inches at 12 years and six months.
 An unfortunate feature of the case is that with the growth came a trouble that makes it impossible for the lad to stand on his feet. At first it became difficult for him to walk around, and by and by, even this could not be done.
 Then it became impossible for him to walk without assistance. Now, when he tries to stand alone, he quickly falls

Miss Dean Witzel went to Portland this morning, where she will enter the Holman Business College. Miss Edith Witzel also went down this morning.
 She will visit at the fair a few days before going on to Richland, where she will teach this winter.

Mrs. John R. Bell, of Portland, returned home this morning, after having attended the funeral of her sister, Mrs.
 Bell. She was accompanied by Judge and Mrs. Burnett, who will visit at the fair for a few days. The judge will then go to Yamhill county to hold court.

A LIVELY RUNAWAY

There was a lively runaway about noon, but the team was not of the grand stand kind, and did most of its artistic work in the alley, where it could not be appreciated. The work was good, however, and the stunt, while it lasted, a good one. The team belonged to Albert Petzel, who lives six miles south of the city, and they were hitched to a light top buggy. Mr. Petzel drove into the alley back of the Willamette hotel, and the horses moving managed to pull the neck yoke off the tongue, which dropped and they started to run. They crossed Ferry street with ever increasing speed, the buggy tongue doing the disc plover act, and soon after getting into the alley the tongue made a dive for a telephone pole, doubled up and broke from the force of the impact, while the horses broke loose from the buggy, and fled on through the alley. As they crossed the sidewalk on State street one horse fell and slipped, and was dragged half way across the street before he regained his feet. Then they lit out with the wild exuberance of a school boy on a half-holiday, but got ashamed of themselves and wound up their frolic by running under a shed at Schramm's stable and stopping. A broken tongue and a couple of single-trées was the amount of the damage.

UTILITY THE SUPREME TEST

Locomotives are not made because they are wonderful—but because THEY ARE USEFUL.

Telephones are not so plentiful because they are marvelous—but because THEY ARE USEFUL.

You don't own a typewriter or watch Or a dictionary or a lawn mower or a safety razor because they are pretty or modern or customary—but because
THEY ARE USEFUL.

Use and worth decide—and utility tips the scales when mere beauty or novelty are the counterweights.

WANT ADVERTISING is important to you—not because it is one of the "interesting" things of modern life, but because, tested, and measured and weighed in any way whatever,
IT IS USEFUL TO YOU

It is as practicable as a street car—as easy to use as an umbrella—it is a part of the MACHINERY by which you DO THINGS in your office and store and home—acting at once as salesman or buyer.

YOU WILL FIND AS MANY USES FOR WANT ADVERTISING AS FOR YOUR TYPE-WRITER, YOUR UMBRELLA, OR YOUR STREET CAR.
