AMUSEMENTS

TONIGHT.
 Edison—Vaudeville.

New Edison Theatre.
 The matinee this afternoon was well attended. Sunday evening closes the engagement of this week's favorites. Commencing Monday, another great show has been engaged, headed by Rome, Mayo and Juliet. The new film is called "Incendiary," and is a crack-a-jack. There will be the usual new illustrated song. The other features of the bill will be announced later, and all will be surprises.

STATE NEWS

Silverton schools open October 24.
 W. F. Davenport, of Silverton, will start up a music store in Albany.

The total value of property in Benton, subject to taxation, is $4,742,985. The state convention of the Baptists will be held at Eugene the second week in October.

The Eugene high school boys are looking forward to a very bright football season.

Portland detectives have found no clue to the express robbery in Silverton last week.

Miss Louise Gilbert, a popular young lady of Corvallis, died Wednesday, after a 20 days' illness.

Omar Wilson, a young man of Glendale, was seriously hurt while working in a sawmill at Florence.

Elmer Harlow, a young high school student of Eugene, was fined $15 Friday for killing pheasants.

Prizes to the amount of $655 will be awarded at the Independence race meet to be held next Wednesday and Thursday.

SOCIAL EVENTS

Dr. and Mrs. Edgar A. Pierce have entertained many guests throughout the entire summer season at their pretty home, "The Oaks," on North Capitol street. Yesterday Mrs. W. E. Gray, of Courtland, N. Y.; Mrs. Wm. Cook, of Birmingham, N. Y., and Mrs. Pauline Lusk, of Montrose, Penn., who have been their guests for the past three weeks, left for Portland.

While in this city their visit was a most enjoyable one, as Dr. and Mrs. Pierce are well known to be royal entertainers. After a few days in Portland they will go East. Frank Loomis, a son of Mrs. Cook, went as far as Portland with the party.

In Honor of a Salem Girl.
 Miss Marjorie Caulfield entertained last Friday night at her home in honor of Miss Ethel Rigdon, of Salem, who left Saturday for Delaware, Ohio, to resume her studies. The spacious parlors were prettily decorated with autumn leaves. The evening was passed with "500" and a guessing game of cities, and other amusements. The prizes for "500" were won by Dr. L. A. Morris and Miss Antoinette Walden, and the prizes for the guessing game went to Miss Rigdon and Dr. Morris. Punch and delicious ices and cake were served during the evening.—Oregon City Courier.

A Narrow Escape.
 William Jones, a laboring man, who arrived here a couple of days ago from Portland, had a miraculous escape from death Tuesday morning. He was stopping at the Gardner hotel in Drain, and while stooping down, in the act of washing his face, his revolver slipped from his inside coat pocket. The weapon was discharged, the ball striking him exactly over the heart and glanced to a rib, which it followed around to the back, thus saving the man's life. Dr. Brookhart extracted the bullet, and the wounded man has been up and around town ever since, apparently suffering little or no inconvenience from his dangerous experience.—Drain Nonpareil.

The Best Insurance

William Boyd of the Curtis Publishing company addressed the Manufacturers' Advertising club at the Hotel Euclid, says the Cleveland (O.) Plain Dealer, on "The Preparations Necessary to a Successful Advertising Campaign." Mr. Boyd opened with the statement that unless a business organization is responsive to changing trade conditions it cannot be successful. He cited the growth of advertising to show it one of the new business conditions which every concern must meet.

UTILITY THE SUPREME TEST

Locomotives are not made because they are wonderful—but because THEY ARE USEFUL.

Telephones are not so plentiful because they are marvels—but because THEY ARE USEFUL.

You don't own a typewriter or watch or a dictionary or a lawn mower or a safety razor because they are pretty or modern or customary—but because THEY ARE USEFUL.

Use and worth decide—and utility tips the scales when mere beauty or novelty are the counterweights.

WANT ADVERTISING
 is important to you—not because it is one of the "interesting" things of modern life, but because, tested, and measured and weighed in any way whatever,
IT IS USEFUL TO YOU

It is as practicable as a street car—as easy to use as an umbrella—it is a part of the MACHINERY by which you DO THINGS in your office and store and home—acting at once as salesman or buyer.
