EVENT OF THE WEEK
Will Be the Development Convention at Eugene
Attendance Will Be Large From All the Western Oregon Counties

The event of Western Oregon for this week will be the Willamette Valley Development Convention, to be held at Eugene next Friday and Saturday. The convention is already an assured success in every way.

Linn County Delegates.
The delegates from the Albany Commercial club were appointed Saturday evening. The delegates are all men who are expected to attend, they having signified their intention of going before they were named, and when they go they will represent Albany well at the meeting of the Willamette valley commercial bodies. These named are: E. W. Langdon, J. L. Tomlinson, C. E. Sox, S. N. Steele, Frank J. Miller, G. A. Westgate and M. H. Ellis.

Mayor Davis is expected to also appoint a number and County Judge C. H. Stewart has been asked to name a number of men to represent the various parts of the county in the league meeting.

The Willamette Valley Development League, which meets in Eugene next Friday and Saturday for the regular quarterly meeting promises to be the best attended and most interesting yet held, and greater interest is manifested in the gathering than has been shown for previous meetings of the league. The program shows a great variety of topics for discussion by speakers from all parts of the state.

The Lebanon Commercial Club has appointed the following: M. A. Miller, C. B. Montague, W. H. Booth, A. W. Blackburn, G. Lovelee.

Delegates from Marion County.
County Judge Scott has appointed the following delegates: Clarence Jones, Aumsville; J. H. Albert, Salem; H. B. Thielsen, Salem.

Wm. J. Clarke will represent Gervais at the convention, and Woodburn will send a delegation.

A large delegation from the Greater Salem Commercial Club will attend the convention.

J. A. Aupperle, Harry Roland, W. L. Jones, Ed. Tucker, S. A. Pense and Editor G. W. Humphrey are delegates from Jefferson.

Lane County.
President Friendly, of the Commercial Club, has appointed the following additional delegates from Eugene: W. G. Gilstrap, R. S. Bryson, G. W. Griffin, I. H. Bingham, W. H. Thompson, L. L. Whitson, P. E. Snodgrass, F. G. Young. Ten of the leading society young ladies have consented to serve the tables at the clambake. A delegation of University students has been secured to "tote clams," of which 50 bushels will be served, ten sacks of sweet potatoes, ten sacks roasting ears, hundreds of chickens and other things appropriate to a clambake.

Yamhill County Delegates.
County Judge B. F. Rhodes has appointed Prof. H. L. McCann and A. M. Peery, of McMinnville, and Richard Baird, of North Yamhill. Washington county will send a large fighting delegation to capture the next convention for Forest Grove.

Her Identity Established.
The identity of Mrs. Thurber, who died at the Salem Hospital Thursday evening has been fully established. A telephone message from Miss Lillian McNary, superintendent of the hospital, who went to Portland a few days ago, states that the name of the dead woman was Mrs. E. J. Thurber, and that she had been provided for by her daughter, Miss Phoebe Thurber, of Astoria. In response to a telephone message from Undertaker Bigdon, Miss Thurber arrived in this city last evening, and took charge of her mother's remains.

Mrs. Thurber was a widow, and resided near Amity, Yamhill county.

A daughter, Mrs. Charles Wanless, is at work in Horst Bros' hop yard near Independence; a son, Joseph, Thurber, lives at Independence, and another daughter, Mrs. John Whitaker, resides at Crabtree, Linn county.

Strikes Hidden Rocks.
When your ship of health strikes the hidden rocks of consumption, pneumonia, etc., you are lost, if you don't get help from Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption. J. W. McKinnon, of Talladega Springs, Ala., writes: "I had been very ill with pneumonia, under the care of two doctors, but was getting no better, when I began to take Dr. King's New Discovery. The first dose gave relief, and one bottle cured me." Sure cure for sore throat, bronchitis, coughs and colds. Guaranteed at J. C. Perry's Drug Store. Price, 50c and $1. Trial bottle free.

Rather Modern.
Miss McCall—So this is really your family coat-of-arms.
Miss Newrich—Yes.
Miss McCall—What's that queer device in the center?
Miss Newrich—Why-er-that's pa's trademark. He insisted upon ringing that in.—Philadelphia Ledger.

Incredible Brutality.
I would have been incredible brutality if Chas. F. Lemberger, of Syracuse, N. Y., had not done the best he could for his suffering son. "My boy," he says, "cut a fearful gash over his eye, so I applied Bucklen's Arnica Salve, which quickly healed it and saved his eye." Good for burns and ulcers, too. Only 25c at J. C. Perry's Drug Store.

A Happy Release.
Kind Friend—Pardon me, but I ought to tell you that Jones has run away with your wife.
Husband (bored)—But why run?—London Punch.

A Big Musical Organization.
The company will present Isidore Witmark's operatic comedy success, "The Chaperons," at the Grand opera house Monday night, Oct. 9th, is one of the biggest musical comedy organizations now touring the country. "The Chaperons" is now in its third year, and it has been presented in nearly every large city in the country, after having enjoyed one of the most prosperous runs in New York of any musical piece ever seen there. The production this year is new in every respect—new scenery, new costumes, new properties and new mechanical and electrical effects, and the company includes such well-known and popular comedians and comedienne as Madelyn Marshall, Ruth Lloyd, Doris Goodwin, Harry Ladell, John Price, George Lydecker, Frank Wooley and others.

Government of British Towns.
British towns are badly administered says a German critic in the National Review, London. "It is impossible to find out who is responsible for what is done or left undone. The maximum of money is expended for the minimum of effect by a host of paring authorities, who are driven on to foolish measures by the mob. The workingman pays little in the shape of rates, and he is consequently indifferent to economy; he knows nothing of finances, and he consequently violates its first principles. He has no stake in the town, as he can easily shift his residence if it languishes or decays through the immoderate burden of debt which he is tying around his neck. Yet he outvotes the owner of property or the company which is prosecuting some great industry in that town, though both of these have a great stake in the continued prosperity of the place, and in careful management. The local body which has foolishly borrowed millions or thousands slips away into obscurity, when the mischief which it has done is detected, and there is no one to blame or punish."

A Truthful Verdict.
A clergyman who had accepted an invitation to officiate at Sunday services in a neighboring town intrusted his new curate with the performance of his own duties. On returning home he asked his wife what she thought of the curate's sermon.
"It was the poorest one I ever heard," she replied promptly, "nothing in it at all."
Later in the day the clergyman met his curate, and asked him how he had got on.
"Oh, very well, was the reply, "I didn't have time to prepare anything, so I preached one of your unused sermons."—Harper's Weekly.

The Boomerang Throwers.
Booth Tarkington has among the curios in his airy New York apartment a boomerang.
A magazine editor said of this odd weapon the other day.
"I do not believe that a native can handle a boomerang so that it will return to the precise spot it started from."
"I believe it," said Mr. Tarkington. "Why a magazine writer can do the very same thing with his manuscript if he encloses a stamped envelope."—New York Tribune.

Haggling.
"Has her marriage to the count really been indefinitely postponed?"
"Yes, there was some little misunderstanding, I believe."
"But does the misunderstanding amount to much?"
"Only to about $500,000, I believe."—Catholic Standard and Times.

FOR A LOVELY SALEM HOME

A Splendid Piano Purchased by Mr. I. E. Conn

The Ellers Piano House Salem branch has opened the season with some brisk business. The manager, Mr. C. W. Simon, who has settled here with his family, has taken vigorous hold of things, and is finding numerous people in Salem and vicinity who are preparing for the coming season of indoor amusements and study by providing a piano.

Notable among last week's sales was a handsome and costly Hobart M. Cable piano, purchased by Mr. I. E. Conn, of 265 Front street. It is beautifully cased in English oak, and, being a Hobart M. Cable piano, it scarcely needs a word of commendation, as this make is widely known to be one of America's best.

We congratulate Mr. and Mrs. Conn and their large circle of music loving friends on the future pleasure in store for them.

The Colonel's Waterloo.
Colonel John M. Fuller, of Hoagy Grove, Texas, nearly met his Waterloo from liver and kidney trouble. In a recent letter he says: "I was nearly dead of these complaints, and, although I tried my family doctor, he did me no good; so I got a 50c bottle of your great Electric Bitters, which cured me. I consider them the best medicine on earth, and thank God who gave you the knowledge to make them." Sold and guaranteed to cure dyspepsia, biliousness and kidney disease, by J. C. Perry, druggist, at 50c a bottle.

STRANGE ADVICE!

Dr. G. G. Green gives alert personal attention to his great humanitarian contract.

In our Almanac for many years past we have given unusual advice to those afflicted with coughs, colds, throat or lung troubles or consumption. We have told them if they did not receive any special benefit after the use of one 75-cent size bottle of German Syrup, to consult their doctor. We did not ask them or urge them to use a large number of bottles, as is the case in the advertising of many other remedies. Our confidence in German Syrup makes it possible for us to give such advice. We know by the experience of over 35 years that one 75-cent bottle of German Syrup will speedily relieve or cure the worst coughs, colds, bronchial or lung troubles—and that, even in bad cases of consumption, one large bottle of German Syrup will work wonders. New trial bottles, 25c.; regular size, 75c. At all druggists.
