

THE GREAT PROVIDERS

STOCKTON & CO. THE OLD WHITE CORNER

"The Evidence of Things Unseen Has Left a Path Forever Green"

Don't let the path to your financial success grow green while you doze. The great bargain offerings of this useful store are passing into the hands of thousands of thrifty people every day. If you don't come yourself and see what we are offering in the way of new goods for Fall and Winter, if you don't see for yourself the money-saving opportunities of this Old Homestead store, surely this oasis of the bargain world will ever remain green to you while others trample it to dust and quench their appetites for fashion in its great fountain of supply.

WAKE UP. DON'T SLEEP AWAY THESE OPENING DAYS FOR FALL AND WINTER. A minute wasted is an opportunity gone forever. Remember there is a time in the tide of life, and the tide is now at its ebb. Eager buyers are grabbing the good things and if you wait too long you will get left. "DO IT NOW" is the motto of progressive America.

Clothes Made Upon Honor By the Stein Block Tailors

Woolens will wear in all weathers. Argue as they will, one fact remains: Cotton adulterated cloth will neither keep its shape or wear under any conditions. Pure wool is all you get in a Stein-Block suit.

THE NEW FALL STYLES ARE VERY SWELL. Come to this Oasis and see.

It is honestly surprising and people wonder how we do it. But we do sell

C. E. Hilton Pardoned.

C. E. Hilton was pardoned from the penitentiary this morning by Governor Chamberlain. He was convicted of a statutory crime by the circuit court of Sherman county, and sentenced to a term of five years in the penitentiary. His pardon was granted upon petition, his good conduct while in prison, and also upon the ground that he has been sufficiently punished.

Suit for Money.

J. L. Robertson vs. Fred Miller is the title of an action for money, which was filed in the circuit court this afternoon. In the complaint it is alleged that Miller issued a promissory note to Robertson on November 1, 1902, for the sum of $90, and that he has only paid $22.50 on the same.

ADDITIONAL PERSONALS.

C. A. Phelps and Charlie King are doing the fair today. M. A. Bentley, of West Salem, has sold his residence to John Holmes, the hop grower, and is about to remove to Sheridan. The family leave many friends in and about Salem, and will be a substantial addition to Yambill's social circles.

THE BICYCLE MAN

Right Here In Salem

There are persons who do not see as well as other people, yet they are unaware of it—do not know that they could be made to see better than they do. There are eye defects that may go undiscovered for a long time—but which will ultimately manifest themselves. It is our business to discover such defects, and remedy them. We have the necessary knowledge, experience and facilities for making a scientific examination of the eyes, and these are at your service free of charge.
