"BUBBLED" UP FROM THE SOUTH
H. G. Bemis and son, of Los Angeles, who have been spending the summer in their automobile, on their way from Los Angeles to Portland, arrived in Salem this morning at 9:30. They have been taking their time on the trip, carrying their camping outfit with them and spending many days in fishing and hunting along the road. The machines is in good condition, they have had no accidents whatever, and are making, when going, about 15 miles per hour. They expect to arrive in Portland early this afternoon.

A Pleasant Way to Travel.
The above is the usual verdict of the traveler using the Missouri Pacific railway between the Pacific coast and the east, and we believe that the service and accommodations given merit this statement. From Denver, Colorado Springs and Denver there are two through trains daily to Kansas City and St. Louis, carrying Pullman's latest standard electric-lighted sleeping cars, chair cars and up-to-date dining cars. The same excellent service is operated from Kansas City and St. Louis to Memphis, Little Rock and Hot Springs. If you are going east or south, write for particulars and full information.

AMUSEMENTS

TONIGHT.
Edison—Vaudeville.

The New Edison Theater.
As usual, the Edison changed the bill last night. The new list includes some very attractive turns and were selected with special care to make the bill entertaining and one of variety.
Holmes and Holmes are the feature act, putting on a very clever turn entitled "His First Rehearsal."
Morris Jones is an exceedingly clever comedian and adds variety to the bill; he puts on a sketch of an original character, written for his special talent.
Holmes is also another good entertainer and sings a number of songs which hit him exactly.
Too much cannot be said for the great Busch family trio, who make their first appearance at the Edison tonight, and are some of the best acrobatic performers on the stage. The Edisonoscope displays one of the most interesting films that has been shown in the house this season, showing many ancient scenes of Egypt and late pictures of the Japan-Russian war.

Commencing Thursday evening, there will be a program that in variety and merit has never been equaled in Salem. First on this meritorious program comes an aggregation of European performers, the Yale trio, the best club juggling in the west. Mlle Veda, a famous Parisian slack-wire artiste, who makes five different changes while in mid-air, is an attraction not usually seen in small cities. Morris Jones, the king of blackface, who will keep the people in a roar of laughter, will entertain his audience with some of his own parodies and extemporaneous songs. Come and see who gets it. Mr. Moyer, the illustrated singer, will have a new illustrated song. There will also be new moving pictures.

IN OLD KENTUCKY THURSDAY

A Beautiful Play, Put on by a Splendid Array of Talent

A dozen years and more of remarkable financial prosperity and the popular drama of Southern life, "In Old Kentucky" still remains one of the most liberally patronized theatrical attractions on the American stage. Produced originally in 1892, it has held the boards every theatrical season since, and played to larger receipts in that time than any other offering before the public. Jacob Litt, the owner and manager of the play, has never sought to cheapen the attraction as the years passed by, and today it is presented by just as capable a company and given with just as adequate scenic investiture as ever. There is but the one company presenting "In Old Kentucky"—not counting an occasional unauthorized piratical outfit of the thirty cent variety—and Mr. Litt has maintained every year the standard of excellence early established with the play. No inferior No. 2 company is ever sent out to the smaller cities and towns. The same big city organization, playing the New York, Chicago and Boston engagements, will be seen when the piece is presented here, which will be very shortly. Probably no American play of modern times appeals as strongly to the masses as does this idyllic romance of the Southland with its characteristic types of Southern life, its scenes on the race track, its grotesque picanninies and its manifold other attractive features. The singing and dancing little darkies come in for no small share of applause and their portion of the entertainment is one of the delightful episodes of the play. There are more than a score of these ragged little Ethiopians, some of whom compose the Wangdoodle Brass Band, others sing, dance, throw the drum major's Baton, shoot craps, and amuse themselves and the audience in various ways. Their native unaffected ease and apparent enjoyment of all they do render this a remarkable stage picture. "In Old Kentucky," now on its thirteenth annual tour, will be given here with a splendid big company and an entirely new scenic outfit on Thursday, October 12. Theater goers will please remember that in order to get first-class companies, when going south, they must get away to catch the 10:56 train, and that in order to do so, the curtain goes up at 7 o'clock.

Grand Lodge, K. of P.
The Grand Lodge, Knights of Pythias, is in session in Portland today and gives promise of being one of the most important meetings held in recent years. The attendance is unusually large. Salem has a special delegation and in addition sends down Grand Keeper of Records and Seal L. R. Stinson.

UTILITY THE SUPREME TEST

Locomotives are not made because they are wonderful—but because THEY ARE USEFUL.

Telephones are not so plentiful because they are marvels—but because THEY ARE USEFUL.

You don't own a typewriter or watch Or a dictionary or a lawn mower or a safety razor because they are pretty or modern or customary—but because THEY ARE USEFUL.

Use and worth decide—and utility tips the scales when mere beauty or novelty are the counterweights.
