THURSDAY

A Beautiful Play, Put on by a Splendid Array of Talent

A comic scene and more of romance and property are presented in this week's issue of "Old Kentucky," its most literarily published theatrical, The New York Daily News. The production has been most favorably received, and it has been hailed as one of the most delightful of the season's productions. It is the story of a young girl who has been abandoned by her lover, and who, after a long search, has finally found him. The play is directed by Mrs. A. H. Bump, and it is under the management of Mr. W. W. W. McLean. The cast is composed of a number of well-known and deserving actors, and the play is scheduled for a limited engagement at the Old Kentucky Theatre. The performances are scheduled for Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday evenings. The play opens at 8:00 o'clock, with an interval of 30 minutes. The box office is open from 10:00 to 5:00 o'clock, and tickets are sold at the following prices: adults, 25 cents; children, 10 cents. The management reserves the right to alter the program at any time.
