

DAILY CAPITAL JOURNAL

VOL. XV.

SALEM, OREGON, SATURDAY, OCTOBER 14, 1905.

NO. 243.

TEN MONTHS IN JAIL

Judge Hunt Hands Out the Punishment to Williamson, Gesner, et al.

Portland, Oct. 14.—Federal Judge Hunt today denied the motion for a new trial and sentenced Congressman J. H. Williamson to ten months' imprisonment and to pay $500. Marion S. Biggs, former United States commissioner, of Prineville, to ten months and $510 fine; Dr. Van Gesner, Williamson's partner in the sheep business, got five months and $1,000 fine. Execution stayed until the defendants could perfect an appeal. They were convicted of conspiracy to suborn perjury to acquire government land fraudulently.

Portland, Oct. 14.—Gesner's punishment was made lighter because of his advanced age and feeble health. When asked if he had anything to say, Williamson replied, "No." He heard his sentence without wincing or giving any sign of emotion. The concluding arguments are being made in the Jones and fraud trial, which is expected to go to the jury Monday.

NEW YORK WINS PENNANT

New York, Oct. 14.—The batteries in the great game today were: For Philadelphia, Bender and Powers; for New York, Mathewson and Bresnahan.

New York, Oct. 14.—New York wins the championship by the final score: New York, 2 runs, 5 hits, 2 errors; Philadelphia, 0 runs, 5 hits, 0 errors.

Now We Breathe Easier.

Yokohama, Oct. 14.—Bryan and family arrived this morning, all well, and they had a smooth passage.

We Carry the Largest Line of New Shoes in the City

The great success of our Shoe Department is due to the fact that we keep up-to-date shoes, and every pair gives satisfactory wear. Our prices are based on the spot cash plan and our economical business management eliminates all unnecessary expenses. That's why we undersell "regular stores."

In addition to the staple shapes, we show a full line of the extreme styles for dress wear.

Our Blue Ribbon School Shoes

built for School Wear, and they stand it. The styles are neat and attractive and the soles and upper leathers are specially selected for service.

We have built up an enormous business on

Joe Miller's

Napa Tanned Shoes

Men and Boys. For the roughest service in mud and water they are the most satisfactory shoes ever built. Although heavy, the leather remains soft and pliable.

One pair of Joe Miller's Shoes is equal to two or three pairs of ordinary shoes for hard wear.

Barnes' Cash Store

E. T. Barnes, Prop.

Dry Goods, Clothing, Hats

Everything in Ladies' and Men's Furnishings. Salem's Cheapest One-Price Cash Store.

BONDS WED STOCKS

Impassioned Dollars Join Engaged Real Estate and Railroad Bonds

Burlington, Vt., Oct. 14.—Miss Frederica Vanderbilt Webb, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. W. Seward Webb and granddaughter of the late William H. Vanderbilt, was married today to Mr. Ralph Pulitzer, son of Joseph Pulitzer, the New York newspaper publisher. The wedding took place at Shelburne Farms, the magnificent estate of the bride's parents near this city. A large party of wedding guests came by special train from New York and included many members of the Vanderbilt family and their connections.

Mr. Joseph Pulitzer, jr., acted as his brother's best man and the bride's attendants were the Misses Wenonah Wetmore and Edith Pulitzer. The ushers were the Harvard classmates of the bridegroom.

New York, Oct. 14.—Miss Frederica Webb, who was married today to Ralph Pulitzer, is a tall girl of graceful appearance, and resembles strongly the Vanderbilts. She is fond of outdoor sports, and since her debut has been a belle in her set. Mr. Pulitzer is the oldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Pulitzer and was graduated from Harvard with high honors.

With the marriage of Miss Webb there are left only two young women unmarried in the Vanderbilt family—Miss Gladys Vanderbilt, the daughter of Mrs. Vanderbilt, and Miss Twombly, both first cousins of the bride of today.

Chicago Markets.

(Four O'Clock Edition.)
Chicago, Oct. 14.—Wheat, 82 1/2c; corn, 44 1/4c; oats, 38 3/8c.

The Gross hotel at Eugene has changed hands again. The new proprietor is C. W. Robinson of Roseburg.

VIOLATED REVENUE LAWS

Government Wisely Provides the Man Must Drink a Gallon, or None

A. C. Knipper was yesterday found guilty in the circuit court of selling liquor in quantities of less than one gallon without a license. The jury at the same time recommended him to the mercy of the court.

This is the end of the liquor fight which took place at Pratum during the past summer, or it will be the end, when Knipper receives his sentence Tuesday morning.

Several months Knipper located at Pratum and after procuring a government license, opened a saloon where he announced that he would sell liquor only in gallon quantities, the state law forbidding the sale in less quantity without a license from the county court. He applied to the county court for a license under the state law, but the people of Pratum precinct circulated a remonstrance and outnumbered the petitioners two to one. The county court has not yet acted upon the petition.

For some time it has been talked around Pratum that Knipper was not only selling in quantities of less than one gallon but was making some sales on Sunday and letting the liquor into the hands of minors. The anti-saloon people therefore investigated and on August 5 Lars Jensen went to Knipper's place and asked for a quart bottle of beer. This was sold to him and he immediately filed the complaint. The anti-saloon people say that although Knipper proposed to sell only in gallon quantities, any one whom he thought would not complain could get a less amount.

Knipper's friends say that he did not intentionally violate the law, but, being a foreigner, did not understand the limitations. At the last election when the liquor question was voted upon, Pratum precinct went "wet," and it was claimed that Knipper thought he had a right to sell liquor in any quantity thereafter.

Circuit Court Matters.

Judge Burnett held a short session of Department No. 1 of the circuit court this morning and excused the jury from further attendance at the court.

The attorneys in the cases of the state of Oregon against A. T. Kelliker and H. H. Turner, filed demurrers to the informations. Turner's attorneys also filed a plea for abatement on the ground that Turner was a witness before the grand jury in these cases and his name is not mentioned in the informations. The demurrers were argued, but will not be ruled upon by the judge before Monday.

The case of Van Fleet against Brundbridge was announced to have been settled. This was the case in which Van Fleet alleged that the defendant had not lived up to his contract, made when renting a wood saw.

In the case of the Star Land company against Andrew McFarlane et al., a motion was filed and argued to strike out the complaint.

Hand It Over.

Alonzo Griffith, a well known young man of the Santiam, met with quite a serious accident Thursday evening in the chair factory at Stayton. His hand was caught in the planer and was so badly mangled that it was necessary to amputate it at the wrist. He was attended by Dr. Brewer of Stayton, who today reported his patient as doing nicely.

The Marion County half of the Santiam wagon bridge at Jefferson has been redecked, but the Linn county half is in a dangerous condition.

When chilled by the rain
Or wet from the dew,
I can tell you the best
Thing on earth to do—
Get a hot drink at Zinn's,
It will warm you all through.

Zinn's

COURT STREET.

SWEPT FROM THE DECK

Steerage Passengers Carried Overboard by Tremendous Wave

New York, Oct. 14.—Five are known to have been lost by a big wave which swept over the Campania's steerage deck October 11. The stewardess, Miss Cates, and the deck steward saved several little children, who were swept toward the broken rail. The death roll may be increased. About 30 were injured. All the cabin passengers are safe.

The cabin passengers raised a purse of $1,000 for Mrs. Graham, who is left with a large family, and $150 was raised for the other injured. Two girls named Chry and Cosgrove and two men, one eighteen years old, a Dane, and the other Irish, were lost. A sailor named Dix was injured after the storm. Agnes Carlson, who had both legs broken, died this morning. John O'Connor, a first class passenger, says a panic prevailed throughout the ship when the wave struck. It required all the efforts of the officers and crew to quiet the passengers. When the ship reached smooth water in the upper bay this morning the passengers dropped on their knees and thanked God for their deliverance.

The new bridge which has been constructed across the Great Forks, two miles south of Cottage Grove, is 90 feet span, with about 200 feet of approach.

Palmer Ayers, who lives five miles north of Eugene, sold 44 bales of hops to R. B. Hayes yesterday. The price was 10 cents.

The Brownsville woolen mills captured two medals at the fair, one gold and one silver.

ELECTRIC LIGHTS GO OUT

Portland's Big Celebration That Has Cleaned up State Turns off the Gas

Portland, Oct. 14.—Notwithstanding the rainy weather, immense crowds visited the Lewis and Clark Exposition. The Fair closes at midnight. Today is a half holiday in this city. The program is replete with special features for every hour, including

PAY FOR DEAD HORSE

Italians Run Against a Stray Chained Cayuse in Idaho

Twin Falls, Idaho, Oct. 14.—A party of Italian laborers, employed in railroad grading here, undertook to cook a few choice cuts from a dead horse which had been impregnated with strychnine to kill coyotes. Six will die and seven are seriously ill.

This is the Last Day

Of the Lewis and Clark Fair, and many people in Portland and the state regret that the exposition goes out of existence tonight. But there is no regret among the people who have had their dental work done by Dr. B. E. Wright, the painless dentist, because he has always given them perfect satisfaction in both work and prices. What he has done in the past is a criterion for the future, and any one wanting dental work done will be serving their own interests if they consult with him.

three airship flights and farewell concerts by the bands. At 5, to the music of the "Star Spangled Banner," the government building closes. At midnight President Goode will declare the exposition at an end, as the bands play "Auld Lang Syne," fortifications and vessels used in mimic warfare will be blown up, together with an elaborate display of fireworks. At noon the attendance passed the 2,500,000 mark, and there will be $120,000 dividends for stockholders of the corporation.

Good Goods

Go. Meyers & Sons

SALEM'S GREATEST STORE
THE "WHITE CORNER" (CORNER 5th & Main)

Honest Values

WE ARE READY

With everything that can be required for every member of the family, stocks of seasonable and dependable merchandise. Our store is considered by the best dressers as authority on good clothes and furnishings. Take the trouble to find out that we are right about it, both in selling the very best materials at the lowest prices and in talking about them.

Ladies' Suits

The newest, the best, the most fashionable tailored suits for fall are here. The display has rounded into completeness, and every woman in reach of this store should visit our second floor. The styles are entirely different from those of last season and handsomer. Many new materials. The range of colors is wide enough to please every fancy. They are clothes of quality, elegance and practicability, attractively priced.

$14 to $37.50

Men's Rhincoats

Genuine Priestley Cravenettes in newest styles and colorings.

$19 to $25

BLANKETS

We have just received a large shipment of full 10-4 size cotton blankets in grey color, with pink and blue borders, hand finished ends, the best value yet offered at the price. Do not delay, but choose quickly, as they will not last long at the phenomenally low price of

39c pair

Others up to $2.50 pair.

Dress Goods

Our new fall and winter dress goods are here in great variety. Such a remarkable display of wonderful values never before offered. You should visit our dress goods department to fully appreciate our showing, as it is exceptionally large.

Popular favor is centering on the Mannish Mixtures, which are being worn so much this season. We have an extensive line from which to choose, and at prices much less than their real worth.

Real $1.00 values being offered at 73¢

Real $1.25 values being offered at 88¢

$1.50 and $1.65 values being offered at $1.23

FURS

Cooler weather reminds one that they need a warm fur. We are prepared with a full line of newest styles in dependable furs and at prices less than elsewhere.

98c to $50

CLOTHES FOR YOUNG MEN.

Plenty of styles and not a bad one in the lot. Perhaps the one you'll take to is this double-breasted one. Most young fellows do. The sack coat has well built shoulders; the outside breast pocket gives it an extra touch of style. Best of all, the materials are all wool, which insures comfort and warmth. Your size is here at prices from

$10 to $30