

WALTER TOOZE POPULAR

Independent Newspaper in Linn County for Him

(Brownsville Times, Oct. 27.)
The Times, independent in all things, neutral in nothing, has only the best of feeling for the other Republican candidates, but studying the question from every point of view, the answer appears to be:

Walter L. Tooze.
Mr. Tooze is a prominent and a most successful self-made business man of Woodburn. No man is better known and esteemed throughout the district. A plain, practical man, sound on the great principles of the Republican party; possessed of a trained mind, an eloquent public speaker, a logical reasoner in debate, and a tireless worker.

The plea of Mr. Tooze before the recent Republican conference held in Portland, for the proper development of our coast harbors, an open Willamette valley and southern Oregon, and the application of correct principles in the works of government, swept the convention off the floor and into the air with applause, and placed him upon a square platform that is heartily approved by the people of the First congressional district regardless of party affiliation.

Who will deny that this is the type of man needed by this district and state in congress?

(The Drain Nonpareil, Oct. 27.)
Hon. Walter L. Tooze of Woodburn delivered a very able and interesting address on education to the normal school students and citizens of Drain at the school building Wednesday evening. He handled his subject in a masterly manner, and it proved a great oratorical treat to the very large audience present. In addition to the address, an interesting musical and literary program was rendered by the students and teachers, which was highly appreciated. Mrs. Tooze, who accompanied her husband, favored the audience with some high-class singing.

After the exercises were over, the students served refreshments, after which a number of our citizens, several of the teachers and students made short but interesting talks.

Mr. Tooze is a very prominent and successful business man of Woodburn and one of Oregon's brainiest and most brilliant statesmen. He will soon make a vigorous campaign for the Republican nomination for congressman from the First district.

(Roseburg Plaindealer, Oct. 30.)
Among the distinguished visitors who were present to lend dignity and add interest to the Elks' pow-wow were Judge L. T. Harris of Eugene and Hon. Walter L. Tooze, the well-known Woodburn politician, who is being prominently mentioned as an aspirant for congressional honors in the first district.

Mr. Tooze is a member of the executive committee of the National Fraternal congress, which has just been in session in the east, and he came to this gathering with much information which the assembled members and guests of the evening enjoyed to the utmost. Mr. Tooze is recognized as one of the most brilliant speakers on the Pacific coast, and when it was found that his presence could be had at this noted gathering of Elks, the success of the affair was assured. And he did not disappoint them. As into everything into which he enters, he took hold of the subject with great zest and held the closest attention of the large assemblage throughout his entire address.

This was one of the pleasantest and most enjoyable occasions of its kind that Roseburg lodge of Elks has experienced in its entire ten years of existence, and the members will long recall the important event.

After the initiation and formal business, came one of those banquets for which the Elks are noted, and there was a veritable "feast of reason and flow of soul."

NO ALCOHOL, NO NARCOTIC, NO IRITANT DRUG. Made of glyceric extracts from roots, therefore their virtues grow in them in Nature's laboratory, viz: Lady's Slipper root, Black Cohosh root, Golden Seal root, extracted, combined, preserved without alcohol, by Doctor Pierce's own peculiar process, and in the most exact proportions to secure the best effects.

If in need of careful, competent advice before beginning treatment, you will receive it without charge by writing, and stating your case, to Dr. R. V. Pierce, 633 Main Street, Buffalo, N. Y. All letters confidentially received and answers sent in securely sealed envelopes.

"I was a great sufferer for six years," writes Mrs. Geo. Sargent, of 641 Bond Street, Saginaw, Mich. "I commenced to take your Favorite Prescription and have taken ten bottles in all. Am now regular, after having missed two years and suffered with pain in the head and back. I was so nervous, could not eat or sleep. Now I can thank you for my recovery."

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure constipation. One little "Pellet" is a gentle laxative, and two a mild cathartic.

MAKER OF ARROW HEADS.

Grangeville Man Superior to Red Man in This Old Art.

P. R. Whitney of this city is reputed to be one of the few men in the United States who can make a really perfect Indian arrow head, says a Grangeville, Idaho, dispatch.

The genuine red man of the forest is not in it with him, when it comes to making stone arrow points. Mr. Whitney has put in long, weary months in perfecting himself in the art—which is an art, not a vulgar trade.

While in the Yellowstone National park a few years ago, Mr. Whitney made many of the points from the obsidian or natural glass found there, points that are geometrically perfect, and which no Indian who ever lived could surpass. He also makes them of moss agate and other semi-precious stones, and finds a ready market for all his product at two or three times the price of the best Indian manufacture.

It might be supposed that the edges of the arrow points would be formed by chipping on the side with a little hammer. It is not the case, however. The arrow maker takes the rough stone, as thin and near the size and shape as he can get it, and then chips the edges by pressure on another stone or a piece of iron. It is a laborious task, especially on the muscles of the fingers and wrists, and one in which long training is necessary to get the peculiar knack. It is almost an art, too, to know what stones will produce certain effects.

Mr. Whitney, in his years of experience, has become an expert in knowing where certain arrow heads are made. Certain tribes adhere almost exclusively to certain designs. There are dozens of varieties, each one representing some particular tribe or section, and most of these Mr. Whitney has at his tongue's end.

He says that occasionally he has found a point of some peculiar design that at first almost baffled his skill, as the double-barbed points of some of the Ohio Indians, but that he would duplicate any design with a little practice.

COLLEGE BURNS AT PHILOMATH

Philomath, Ore., Oct. 31.—The Radical United Brethren college in this city was set on fire by the burning out of a defective stove at 3 o'clock Monday afternoon and the building was totally destroyed with all its contents, except a piano and an organ. When the fire started the classes in the college were all in session, and before it was discovered the fire had gained such headway as to make the extinguishing of the flames an impossibility. By desperate work the fire was prevented from spreading to other buildings. Several times fire caught in the roofs of residences, some of them fully three blocks away, but by good work the flames were extinguished and the house saved.

The work of saving the property in the college was undertaken too late to be of any use. The organ and piano and a few books were saved, but this was a small portion of the property in the building. The loss on the building is estimated at about $3000, on which an insurance of $1600 was carried. The building was a one-story frame and had stood about 16 years.

President S. O. Watson of the college is unable to say what the future course of the college will be. For the present class rooms will be arranged in the dormitory and the school work will not be interrupted materially, but it is expected that as soon as the loss is adjusted and the insurance collected steps will be taken to rebuild the burned structure and fit it up for the work of the college.
