School Notes.
 The football team played Eugene not only for victory but for the privilege of taking a trip to Pendleton. The team's playing, in the opinion of the principal, Mr. Marlette, was good enough to justify the trip, and he gave his consent. The team will play return games with Portland and Eugene, after which it will go to Pendleton, probably about Thanksgiving time.
 The seniors are beginning to think about preparations for their graduation. It is the first four-year class to graduate in Salem, and they feel it their duty to set a worthy precedent. The students are taking action to ward arranging for the dedication of the new building. They are going to first learn the plans of the board, and then aid in every way possible to prepare a dedication.
 The harmony between the high school and the grades in the east building is practically perfect. Some friction was expected at the first of the year, an account of the necessarily crowded conditions, but it proved to be but little, and is since that time practically vanished.
 The co-operation of the high school and the university in preparing an opera is established. The students interested will begin practice as soon as the books arrive, which will be some time this week.
Meeting Postponed.
 The meeting of the Young People's Foreign Missionary Society of the First M. E. church, which was announced for this evening, is postponed until Monday, November 20, at the house of Mrs. J. H. Baker.
Bought Red Cross Drug Store.
 Frank S. Ward and Herbert Jerman, two young druggists of this city, have purchased the Red Cross Pharmacy from L. E. Hooker. Mr. Ward is a son of Scott Ward, of Linn county, is a graduate of the school of pharmacy at O. A. C. and has been for three years with the Capital Drug Company, of this city. Mr. Jerman is also a registered pharmacist, and is a son of Al Jerman, of Howell Prairie. He has been employed in Portland for some time.
