When The Eyes Get Old

It makes no difference how well and strong the eyes have been when the prime of life is past, they inevitably become far-sighted, and for comfortable use the eyes, weak convex glasses are necessary.

If you notice any difficulty whatever in reading or working, it is time to have your eyes seen to. Come and let us fit you with the proper glasses—no charge for the examination.

STOLE ARMOUR'S LETTERS

(Four O'clock Edition.)
Chicago, Nov. 21.—Wilbur Cole and William S. McSwain, accused of stealing letters from the Armour Company, and attempting blackmail, were arraigned before Justice Prindiville this afternoon, and waived examination. Each was held to the grand jury in $3000 bonds. The government is to take no bond in the case, but if the letters prove to be really important the government's attorneys will probably demand the books from which the copies were taken be produced at the forthcoming trial in the packers' conspiracy case.

ROBBED DENVER BANK

(Four O'clock Edition.)
Denver, Colo., Nov. 21.—Two men drove up to the alley door south of the Denver Bank, in the business section of South Denver, at 1 o'clock this afternoon. They hastily adjusted masks, opened the back door, covered the cashier, Gabriel Jones, with their guns, and forced him to give up $3000. They then jumped into their buggy and escaped. The clerks were at lunch.

Cloudburst in San Diego.
San Diego, Cal., Nov. 21.—Another half inch of rain fell last night and this morning, making 3.50 inches for the season.

Tired of Trotting Double.
To offset the recent victories of Cupid in this country, for since the first of the month he has entangled over 20 couples in his meshes, the divorce mill has again commenced to turn out its grist. Besides the cases that are soon to come up for hearing, yesterday and today three divorce applications have been made in the circuit court.

A. Schafer has asked to be separated from his wife, Katie Schafer, stating that they have been married since 1889 but have now discovered that they are not suited for each other. He wants the custody of their three children.
Minnie Ryan wants a divorce from Charles Ryan, asking for alimony and the possession of their two young children. They were married in 1900.

A Splendid Bill.

The program opening at the Edison theatre last night exceeds anything that has appeared in the city this season. This is a bill having all feature acts, and keeps the audience in a constant uproar from the time the curtain goes up until it lowers.

Kelly and Davis, Ethiopian emperors of song, do an exceptionally comical act, including clever dancing and many catchy songs familiar to the Ethiopians. The Kellys also have a good act entitled "The Stage Struck Girl," which is very laughable and wins the applause of their audience.

Prof. Ed. Demoss, the distinguished singer, dancer and monologist, is direct from the Orpheum circuit and makes a big hit wherever he goes.
The new illustrated song entitled "No One Can Take Your Place," as sung by Harry Meyer, is very pretty, and has many beautiful slides.
One thousand feet of very exciting pictures are dashed off on the Edison scope, showing the experiences of the New York police, and keeps the people highly amused to the end.

A Small Suit.

John D. Hardwick has entered suit against Tillson & Co., to recover $65, which he alleges is due him as payment for drying 3700 pounds of prunes.

Man's Unreasonableness.

is often as great as woman's. But Thos. S. Austin, Mgr. of the "Republican" of Leavenworth, Ind., was not unreasonable, when he refused to allow the doctors to operate on his wife, for female trouble. "Instead," he says, "we concluded to try Electric Bitters. My wife was then so sick, she could hardly leave her bed, and five (5) physicians had failed to relieve her. After taking Electric Bitters, she was perfectly cured, and can now perform all her household duties." Guaranteed by J. C. Perry, druggist, price 50c.

RAILWAY FRANCHISE TONIGHT

The amended franchise of the Salem link in the Willamette Valley Railway Company's proposed system as prepared by the council committee and the representatives of the company, will be brought before the council tonight for final action. While the franchise, in its main points, is practically the same as was originally asked for by the company, minor changes have been made that fully protect the taxpayer and citizens.

Perhaps the two most important amendments are the one shortening the life of the franchise from 50 to 30 years, and the other requiring the company, as a condition of its acceptance of the franchise, to deposit as a forfeit with the city the sum of $5000 as a guarantee that within two years it will complete and place in operation at least 15 miles of track.

Another minor change in the franchise prohibits the railway company from using steam as a motive power, except during construction or temporary periods. The company is also required, in case of street improvements being undertaken along its right of way, to bear the cost of all work done a distance of four feet from the center of the tracks, and all work between the tracks. The right of way that will be given the company, if the franchise is granted, is as follows:

Commencing at the eastern intersection of Mill street, thence westerly along or near the center of Mill street to the west boundary of High street; thence along or near the center of High street in a northerly direction to the north boundary of Union street; thence along or near the center of Union street to the east boundary of Cottage street; thence along or near the center of Cottage street to the north boundary of D street, in Boise's second addition to the city of Salem; thence easterly along or near the center of D street to the east boundary of Seventh street, thence northerly along or near the center of Seventh street in Boise's second addition to Salem and in North Salem to where Seventh street intersects the proposed extension of Maple street; thence along or near the center of the proposed extension of Maple street in a northerly direction to the present southern extremity of said Maple street; thence northerly along or near the center of said Maple street to the northern side of Highland avenue; thence easterly along or near the center of Highland avenue to the eastern boundary of a certain highway extending along the eastern boundary lines of blocks 16, 17, 28 and 29 in Highland avenue addition to the city of Salem; thence northerly along or near the center of said public highway to the northern limits of the city of Salem.

TO AID CONVICTS

A new departure in philanthropy, the presentation of free scholarships to the convicts in the state penitentiaries will afford convict prisoners at the Oregon institution an opportunity to acquire a technical education by correspondence. This morning an announcement was received from the Armour Institute, in Chicago, stating that a number of free correspondence scholarships had been allotted to the Oregon penitentiary. Convicts who show a desire for learning will be instructed absolutely free, in branches of any practical science or trade.

The free scholarship plan for convicts has been successfully tried in many prisons. It has stimulated prisoners to work hard and properly equip themselves for a new start when their terms of confinement ended. So encouraging have been the results that Eastern philanthropists are now aiding in the work. Many men in prison have been taught useful trades and professions through the assistance of the Armour Institute, so that when they left the penitentiaries they were able to earn honest livings.

The scholarships awarded to the Oregon penitentiary are for those convicts who wish earnestly to try to live better lives, after they have finished their different terms of imprisonment. These men will be permitted to study any of the correspondence courses offered by the institute, the only condition attached being that they work diligently and earnestly.

HALEY FOR SUPREME BENCH

Interest in the successor of Justice Wolverton on the supreme bench, is not very rare among politicians. Aspirants that is if there are more than one, have not so far declared themselves, though it may be for lack of time, as Justice Wolverton's appointment to the vacant federal judgeship was only announced this morning by President Roosevelt.

So far Hon. T. G. Haley, of Pendleton, is the only man out for the seat on the supreme court bench that will without doubt be vacated as soon as Justice Wolverton's commission comes from Washington. Mr. Haley appeared on the field several weeks ago, when it was known that there was a likelihood of a vacancy in the supreme court.

From a high official source it was learned today by The Journal that, as matters stand now, the appointment is practically assured to Haley. He is well backed by Democrats in the Eastern part of the state, apart from the fact that so far no rivals have appeared.

The appointment, of course, is only good for the unexpired term of Justice Wolverton, which ends the first of next July.

CHANCE FOR FLAX MILLS

Mr. Justin K. Toles, of Stockton, California, has been in the city for the past two days in an effort to arouse sufficient local interest to warrant the establishment of a flax factory at this place. Mr. Toles and the interests he represents have been experimenting in the flax industry at Stockton for the past two years, and he says that it is an unqualified success. He says that if we can establish a joint interest between Oregon and California that it will revolutionize the flax industry and establish one of the grandest and most remunerative industries on the coast. Capital is now ready to step and build a flax mill here, but it must first have assurance that enough local interest has been aroused to insure the production of a sufficient quantity of the raw fibre to keep the mill in operation. There is no limit to the amount they can use. The only question is getting enough to start on.

Mr. Toles says that this vicinity is very fortunate in having such an able man as Mr. Borne here to lead in the development of the industry.

Where are you sick? Headache, foul tongue, no appetite, lack energy, pain in your stomach, constipation? Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea will make you well and keep you well. 35 cents. Dr. Stone's Drug Store.

"I Thank the Lord!"
cried Hannah Plant, of Little Rock, Ark., "for the relief I get from Bushler's Arnica Salve. It cured my fearful running sores, which nothing else would heal, and from which I had suffered for 5 years." It is a marvelous healer for cuts, burns and wounds. Guaranteed at J. C. Perry's drug store, 25c.
