Advertises In the Dull Season

In an interview in the Meriden (Conn.) Journal, Henry C. Ribben, grocer and one of the most successful merchants in that place, said:

"Of course every one knows that times are not as good just now as they were a little while ago, and a great many merchants are retrenching in their advertising, putting up the plea that they cannot afford increases. That is an entirely wrong view to take. Since the 1st of June I have tripled my advertising in the daily papers, and the results are surprisingly good. The time to retrench in your advertising is when your departments are doing all they can. It isn't necessary to advertise then.

"I am now using more space than I ever used, and the result is more than satisfactory.

"People always respond to good advertising, and one need have no fear of the efforts going amiss.

"I keep a separate record of each department, and when one of them shows a falling off I give it a dose of medicine in the shape of ads, which always proves effective."

This direct testimony on an important point should interest advertisers who are in the habit of dropping out in the dull season.

FALL COLDS

Prominent Society Woman Advises Salem People Best Means To Cure Them.

"To the people of Salem: Knowing how prevalent hard colds are at this season of the year, and in what danger they often lead, I want to tell you of my experience, as it may be the means of saving your life, as I believe mine was saved by Vinol, the best cod liver oil preparation in the world.

BESSIE VAN WICK.

On my way home from a reception, thin as a reed, I contracted a severe cold and cough. I tried different cod liver oil preparations and other remedies; they only upset my stomach and gave me no relief. I finally sent for my physician. He prescribed for me, but I constantly grew worse, and as a last resort he advised me to try Vinol. I found it was delicious to take, and did not upset my stomach like the other cod liver oil preparations. It soon effected a complete cure, built up my general health, and made me feel stronger and better than I have for years.

My druggist, from whom I purchased Vinol, tells me that it has taken the place of old-fashioned cod liver oil and emulsions, because it contains in a highly concentrated form all the medicinal, curative and body building elements of cod liver oil actually taken from fresh cods' livers, but without a drop of the system clogging oil or grease to upset the stomach and retard its work, and if Vinol does for Salem people what it did for me it will be worth $100 a bottle to them. Bessie Van Wick, vice-president of the Anderson Driving Club, Atlanta, Ga.

Our local druggists, G. W. Putnam Co., say they have never sold a remedy in their store equal to Vinol for chronic coughs, colds and bronchial troubles, or to build up a run-down system, and they will return the money in every case where it fails to give satisfaction.

THE HOUSE THAT HYDE BUILT

Being a Long Ways After Mother Goose's Story About Jack's Carpenter Work

Insurance. This is the house that Hyde built.

High Rates. This is the malt that lay in the house that Hyde built.

Officers. This is the rat, that ate the malt, that lay in the house that Hyde built.

Depew. This is the cat that caught the rat, that ate the malt that lay in the house that Hyde built.

Odell. This is the dog that worried the cat, that caught the rat, that ate the malt, that lay in the house that Hyde built.

Insurance Presidents. This is the cow, with the crumpled horn, that loved the dog, also the cat, likewise the rat, that ate the malt that lay in the house that Hyde built.

Hamilton. This is the maiden all forlorn, that milked the cow with the crumpled horn, at every eve and early morn, until she wished she had never been born, who butted her hard about the beam, whenever he felt he needed cream, 'till she gave down checks for a hundred thousand and never kicked, did the dear old cow; for they fed her meal from the widow's mite, and whatever the orphans had in sight, and everything that was tender and green they could find, for the dear old milking machine; so the milk flowed out in a steady stream, and the Mc's and the milkmaid took the cream, while the skim milk went to the smaller fry, remarkably lean and exceedingly dry, save some that soured; the clubber and why, they gave to the policy holders—Yeal! For they loved the dog, also the cat, likewise the rat that ate the malt that lay in the house that Hyde built.

Lawson. This is the cock that crowed in the morn, that waked the maiden all forlorn, that milked the cow with the crumpled horn, so she could skip at the break of day, to anywhere else that was far away, where life would pass as a pleasant dream, good thanks to the cow that gave the cream. Now the Mc's all go with thirst unslaked for the good old cow has her udder caked, and the milkmaid left forlorn, the generous cow with the crumpled horn, that loved the dog, also the cat, likewise the rat, that ate the malt, that lay in the house that Hyde built.

Policy Holders. This is the farmer who grew the corn, that fed the cock that crowed in the morn, that waked the maiden all forlorn, that milked the cow with the crumpled horn, who stood for furnishing all the feed, or anything any one happened to need; who put up a billion and a third, secured by only the orphans' word, who furnished the money for them to lend (that is, what they couldn't steal or spend) to help things out on election day, when the devil himself was there to pay and to put up thousands on either side, at McCully's call or the nod of Hyde; for she loved the dog, and the widows' wall, had nothing to do with the milking pail, for the pretty milkmaid, though forlorn, gave them their milk—in a crumpled horn—for she loved the dog, also the cat, likewise the rat, that ate the malt, that lay in the house that Hyde built.

Hughes. This is the cowboy with his gun, who put the milkmaid on the run, who branded old crumby on the side, with a double H, for herself and Hyde, and he made her so mad that with vicious heel, she kicked till the dog was "angespelt" and she hooked the cat and trampled the rat, that ate the malt that lay in the house that Hyde built.

"Please Smile AND Look Pleasant."

When a woman says "I am racked with pain," the word "racked" recalls the days when they stretched the tender bodies of women on the rack with rope and pulley until the very joints cracked.

Fancy an attendant saying to the tortured woman, "Please smile and look pleasant."

And yet the woman "racked with pain," is expected to smile through her agony and to make home happy. She can't do it. It is against Nature.

Generally speaking, the racking pains of ill-health such as headache, backache and "bearing-down pains" are related to derangement or disorder of the organs intimately feminine. When this condition is removed the general health is restored, and with health comes back the smile of happiness.

Any woman may regain her health at home without offensive questioning or examinations by the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. Sick women may consult Dr. Pierce, by letter, free of charge. Such letters are treated as sacredly confidential.

"It affords me pleasure to relate the wonderful merits of your great medicine, especially your Favorite Prescription," writes Dr. J. Wesley Rhine, of Woodbury, N. Jersey, L. Box 26. "My wife has been using it for some time past, having suffered severely with bearing-down pains, acting in back, and many other complaints peculiar to women. She was very weak, could not do any heavy work or washing but can do all kinds of work now. She is soon to become a mother but we do not fear the result (as heretofore), all due to your wonder-worker, Favorite Prescription.

"Your 'Pleasant Pellets' are also worth many times their price. I have used them for biliousness and stomach trouble, and have found them to be all that you claim. They are my constant companions—once used, always kept."

Given away. The People's Common Sense Medical Adviser is sent free on receipt of stamps to pay expense of mailing only. The book contains 100 pages, over 100 illustrations and several colored plates. Send 21 one-cent stamps for the paper-bound book, or 31 stamps for the cloth bound. Address Dr. L. W. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Georgia's Methodist Conference.

Newman, Ga., Nov. 22.—The annual session of the Georgia Methodist conference opened here today with a large attendance, representing every part of the state. Bishop W. W. Duncan presides at the conference this year, and a considerable number of changes in the ministry are expected.

WINTER RATES TO YAQUINA BAY

Oregon's Greatest Recreation and Health Resort at the Newport Beaches.

As a winter health and recreation resort Newport is the one par excellence. Recognizing this, and wishing to give the people an opportunity to breathe the fresh, pure ozone of the ocean, the Southern Pacific and Coastal and Eastern railroads will resume the sale of tickets through Yaquina bay Saturday, October 21, and will sell same throughout the winter and spring on every Wednesday and Saturday. The rates will be the same as during the summer and will be good for return 30 days from date of sale. Dr. Minthorn's Sanitary Sea Baths will be in operation during the entire winter, and treatments will be given daily. Hot and cold salt water baths can be taken every day in the sanitarium, and for anyone desiring rest, recreation and health, no place on the Pacific Northwest can be found equal to Yaquina bay.

Other Health Resorts Closed.

During the winter nearly all other health resorts are closed or difficult to reach, and none of them have the advantages of Newport and vicinity as regards climate, points of interest, recreation and amusement. For parties desiring to enjoy fishing, hunting, or seeing the ocean in sunshine and storm this famous resort is unequalled. The surroundings are ideal—beautiful scenery, climate mild, healthful and invigorating.

Cottage and Rent Cheap.

Neat clean cottages, either furnished or partly so, can be rented in the immediate neighborhood of the sanitary baths at about $5 per month. Plenty of fresh milk, vegetables, honey, fruit, and all household necessities can be obtained at the lowest possible cost, while all kinds of fish and the famous rock oysters can be had in abundance for the trouble of securing them.

People troubled with the loss of appetite, insomnia, rheumatism or run down from any cause, will find Newport an ideal place to regain their health and vigor, or for rest and pleasure.

Full information as to rates, checking of baggage, etc., can be obtained from any S. P. or C. E. agent, or from A. L. Craig, general passenger agent S. P. Co., Portland; or J. C. May, general passenger agent C. & E., Albany, Oregon.
