STATE SOCIAL NEWS

Silverton.
Miss Elma Fischer was in the city Saturday.
Ben Creed, who has been sick for some time, is able to be around again.
Quite a number of the young folks spend their evenings at the skating rink.
Mrs. Charles Morley, who has been sick for some time, is able to be around again.
Mr. and Mrs. Miller Barkhurst spent Sunday with his mother, Mrs. C. W. Barkhurst.
Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Stahl, of Portland, are visiting her parents, Mrs. Nettie Schlador.
Misses Fanny and Vera Warnock spent Saturday evening and Sunday with Miss Nellie Cavender.
There was a social given at the home of Rev. Wagner Wednesday evening, November 22d, which was very well attended.
There will be a masquerade ball given at the opera house Wednesday evening, November 29th. Everybody invited to attend.
The girls' basketball team is improving very much. It is said they will play their first game with the Silverton boys' basketball team.
Mr. Oscar Cavender and Mr. C. N. Matlock and son, Archie, are on a hunting trip in Linn county this week. They are expected home Monday.

Son Lost Mother.

"Consumption runs in our family, and through it I lost my mother," writes B. R. Reid of Harmony, Mo. "For the past five years, however, on the slightest sign of a Cough or Cold, I have taken Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, which has saved me from serious lung trouble." His mother's death was a sad loss for Mr. Reid, but he learned that lung trouble must not be neglected, and how to cure it. Quickest relief and cure for coughs and colds. Price 50c and $1.00; guaranteed, at J. C. Perry's Drug Store. Trial bottle free.

'Tom' Halley.

(East Oregonian)
The historians may write it "Judge Thomas Griffin Halley" in their ponderous annals of Oregon, but in the hearts of his countrymen it will be written plain "Tom" Halley.

He isn't swelled up about it. It will take something more than an office to turn Tom Halley's head. He is a pioneer and a son of pioneer parents and supreme judgeships or federal judgeships, or even the governorship of the state of Oregon would never change his democratic spirit, nor his kindly genial, affable, energetic nature.
In the social whirl and the official maelstrom of Oregon's "swift and dashing" capital city, he will always be found on the same sane level which he has acquired in the sagebrush. His heart is in the right place, and is of proper size, and nothing will alienate him from the common people.
The strange evolution of politics may elevate him still higher. If so, it can be safely asserted that it will be upon merit and not through ways that are dark nor tricks that are vain. Eastern Oregon needs more such men in the councils of the state to balance the scales.
