

Magazines for 1906 for Almost Nothing

The Capital Journal has arranged to supply its subscribers with a number of splendid weekly and monthly magazines but little more than the cost of their subscription to the Journal, but these reduced prices will apply only to those who subscribe for the Journal, either daily or weekly editions, at the same time. Owing to the extremely low price, the subscriptions must be payable in advance. The Daily Capital Journal will be delivered by carrier or mail within the limits of Salem, and by mail to all outside subscribers.

Read the list carefully. Every one is a representative of its class. Madams and Woman's Home Companion both rival the Ladies' Home Journal. Review of Reviews covers the news and literature of the world in monthly review. The Cosmopolitan is one of the best of the great magazines. The New York Tribune Farmer and the Orange Judd Farmer are two of the best agricultural weeklies in the world. Everyone knows the New York Tribune and the Chicago Inter-Ocean as the representative papers of these two cities, and their weekly editions as being the best weekly papers in the United States. The Agricultural Epitomist is a valuable monthly for those engaged in agriculture. The Farm and Home Sentinel is a monthly story and agricultural paper of interest.

Everyone knows the worth of the Capital Journal, both as a daily and weekly paper, and can be confident that when the Journal comes to their home regularly they are getting the latest news of the world, as well as every item of local news that is worth publishing. The Journal's telegraph service is supplied by the great Scripps Press Association, the only independent association in this country, and its daily reports come to the Journal direct from the headquarters in Chicago.

TO START ANOTHER CANNERY

An opportunity will be offered fruit growers in the vicinity of Salem to enlarge their market by the erection of another cannery in this city. S. J. Lemmon, who has been connected with the Oregon Packing company at Portland for 13 years and who installed the machinery in the local cannery which was destroyed by fire some weeks ago, is now in the city and wishes to present his plan to growers. For that purpose he has asked growers to meet him next Saturday to discuss the project.

Mr. Lemmon now has in Salem a car load of canning machinery, much of it improved by recent patents of his own. This he wants to make use of in a cannery to be established in this city, and to be run on the co-operative plan. Competition will by this means be secured in the local fruit growing market.

Mr. Lemmon's plan, which he outlined this morning for the Journal, contemplates the establishment of a cannery on a co-operative plan, he agreeing to furnish the machinery, part of the capital and the time necessary to run the enterprise, while the growers are to agree to furnish him sufficient fruit to operate the cannery, and the balance of the capital. However, as the enterprise is to be run co-operatively, fruit will be sent to outside markets and other canneries, providing more money can be made that way than in using the product in the local cannery.

Mr. Lemmon would not ask growers to bind themselves by contract to furnish the fruit to the cannery, but in a co-operative way dispose of it in the market that offered the best prices. He particularly urges growers not to sell on future contracts their Royal Anne cherries, which are coming into greater demand each year. These are taken up by buyers who export them to foreign markets for manufacturing Maraschino cherries, and make enormous profits.

When a woman promises to tell a man everything she doesn't mean everything that has happened but everything that she happens to think of.

DRAGGING

down pains are a symptom of the most serious trouble which can attack a woman, viz: falling of the womb. With this, generally, come irregular, painful, scanty or profuse periods, wasteful, weakening drains, dreadful backache, headache, nervousness, dizziness, irritability, tired feeling, inability to walk, loss of appetite, color and beauty. The cure is that marvelous, curative extract, or natural wine, of herbs, which exerts such a wonderful, strengthening influence on all female organs. Cardui relieves pain, regulates the menses, stops drains and stimulates the womb muscles to pull the womb up into place. It is a sure and permanent cure for all female complaints.

WRITE US A LETTER "I SUFFERED AWFUL PAIN in my womb and ovaries," writes Mrs. Naomi Baker, of Webster Grove, Mo. "Also in my right and left sides, and my menses were very painful and irregular. Since taking Cardui, I feel like a new woman, and do not suffer as I did. It is the best medicine I ever had in my house."

IMPROVE COAST HARBORS

A Tillamook Paper Says All Must Unite

For Their Development and Elect a Congressman on That Issue

(Tillamook Headlight.)

Who will Tillamook county favor out of the four aspirants for congressment? The man who has the grit to go back to Washington and knock the "stuffin'" out of the board of engineers for turning down the project for improving Tillamook bar on the silly, illogical pretext that Tillamook was too close to the Columbia river to have Tillamook bar improved. The coast counties, the most neglected part of Oregon, should pull together and work together to secure the nomination and election of a congressman who will get in and work and accomplish something for the coast counties by way of harbor improvements. That is the kind of man that the press of the coast counties should center upon. Tillamook, Lincoln, Coos, Douglas and Curry are all more or less interested in harbor improvements, and it is the duty of the press of the coast counties to agitate for harbor improvements, and with the same vim as the press of Portland is agitating for the improvement of the Columbia bar and the press is agitating for the improvement of the Willamette valley. We find that a number of the newspapers in the coast counties have already taken up the congressional fight and have decided to support Walter L. Toose, of Marion county. There is no objection to that, for Mr. Toose is a live, energetic gentleman and would work for the best interest of the district. If all the newspapers in the coast counties would agitate for more harbor improvements for the coast counties, and send Mr. Toose to congress on this issue, it seems to us that the newspapers of the coast counties would be looking after the best interest of this long bottled up section of Oregon and help to open it up to commerce and industry.

(Marshfield Sun.)

The county has just been honored with a visit from Colonel E. Hofer of Salem, Walter L. Toose of Woodburn, president and secretary of the Willamette valley Development league. Mr. Hofer is editor of the Salem Capital Journal and he had many kind words to say of Coos county through the columns of his paper. Mr. Toose being one of the leading farmers of his section and a very prominent figure in the race for the Republican nomination for congress in this district. During the stay of our visitors they had an opportunity to see Coos county as it is and speak to the people of North Bend, Coquille City, Myrtle Point and Marshfield. In this city the grand rally occurred Tuesday evening. A special train brought a large delegation from Coquille points and the Coquille City band, to augment the attendance at Masonic Opera House. The addresses by Colonel Hofer and Mr. Toose were punctuated with frequent applause. They told of the good things that had been accomplished and were being done by the Willamette Valley Development league. Both gentlemen created a very favorable impression, on this, their first trip to Coos county, with our people, and it is quite certain that Toose congressional stock took a jump several points.

(Marshfield Mail.)

Mr. Toose in his address scored strong points in favor of deepening the channel and improving the depth of the bar continually until there be at least forty feet of water. He was cheered over and over for his analysis of commercial conditions, showing that narrow views at Portland had prevented state development. He pictured the beautiful cities of the future that would stand on Coos Bay, second to none on the coast. He stated that though he had traveled thirteen thousand miles during the past year, he had seen no such sites for cities and towns as were spread out on every bank around Coos Bay. "Nature," said Mr. Toose, "has done no more for the most beautiful spots on earth than for this section." A short story was aptly interpolated pointing the moral that though Coos Bay had been "going some," she must "go some more" in the direction of energetic work for her own development.

Mr. Toose as a candidate for congress has won hundreds of admirers who will labor for his political success.

GET DOWN TO FACTS.

Read What Salem Citizens Say. Get down to the facts of the matter. Don't take a stranger's word. It is easier to prove the truthfulness of statements made by citizens of Salem than endorsements coming from some far-away place. Read the following:

Frank V. Muller, living on East State street, Salem, Oregon, says: "Without question Doan's Kidney Pills is the best remedy for the kidneys that I ever used, and I recommend it with confidence to anyone looking for a good cure. I was subject to attacks of backache for more than six years, having heavy bearing down pains through the loins and kidneys and it hurt me when I lifted anything. I always got up in the morning with a lame and sore back. In addition to these annoyances there was an irregularity in the action of the kidneys which was very exasperating. I used several remedies but nothing seemed to do me any good. Finally, hearing about Doan's Kidney Pills I got a box at Dr. Stone's drug store. The first box did me so much good that I got a second. I was soon relieved of the pain in my back and the other annoying difficulties entirely disappeared. For sale by all dealers. Price, 50 cents.
