WHO IS THE STATE?

There is characteristic Portland enterprise in the way Portland millionaires and prominent men rush to Washington to help themselves.

They are able to make the President believe that they represent the whole state, and that Portland is all there is to Oregon to be helped.

They are able to convince Roose welt that it is his duty to help the fight for the deepening of the mouth of the Columbia and then say, "the President helps the state."

Then the reports are given head lines across the papers at Portland, statements made by citizens of Salem all Oregon will be cared for, when as than endorsements coming from some a matter of fact it means simply pro-

THE CHRISTMAS CRAFTSMAN.

The Christman number of the Craftsman is rich in all departments, and especially interesting and helpful with its holiday cheer in both text and iflustration. No one can afford to miss The larger boys in public education reading the opening article, the story f "Christ Among His Pellow Mon," by Harriet Joor, which is unquestionably a remarkable contribution to the literature of humanity. It is a masterpiece of thought and expression in The boys and young men attending its deep and sympathetic interpretation of the life and mission still "towering o'er the wrecks of time."

The story as here told is too good, too exceptionally good, to be limited year. Muller, living on East State street, Salem, Oregon, says: "Without question Doan's Kidney Pills is the best remedy for the kidneys that I ever used, and I recommend it with confidence to anyone looking for a good cure. I was subject to attacks of backache for more than six years, having heavy bearing down pains through the loins and kidneys and it hurt me when I lifted anything. I always got up in the morning with a lame and sore back. In addition to these annoyances there was an irregularity in the action of the kidneys which was very exasperating. I used several remedies but nothing seemed to do me any good. Finally, hearing about Dean's Kideny Pills I got a box at Dr. Stone's drug store. The first box did me so much good that I got a second. I was soon relieved of the pain in my back and the other annoying difficulties entirely disappeared. For sale by all dealers. Price, 50

Donation to the Boston Church.

It is not often churches in the far West are moved to give assistance to in other cities-especially in the far East. But the First Church of Christ, Scientists, on Thanksgiving day broke the record by taking up a collection of $50.50 for the new first church of the same denomination building in Boston, Mass. The church in that hub of the American universe is to cost, when completed, with grounds, in the neighborhood of $3,000,000. The donation from Salem was an expression of love and thanksgiving over the recent union of the two churches under one organi-
