ligious beliefs of a majority of the nation."

He closes with these words: "I here make this urgent and ardent appeal to patriotic Italians of the Jewish faith. Let them reassure the nation on the subjects of these doubts and fears. Let nothing disturb their fixed and conscientious convictions; let them bear in mind that germs of un wisdom, unless they be detached and destroyed, may bring forth fruits of unexpected bitterness. Nor must they be satisfied with a public repudiation of and opposition to this criminal idea of Zionistic secession, but must see to it that pestilent and vile a doctrine finds no lodgement in the schools of their religion."

Arlington Builds Wharf.

Last Friday evening the Arlington Commercial Club met and in connection with citizens took under advisement the building of a wharf boat at the foot of Main street. Mr. O. D. Sturgess acted as chairman and Attorney Burdette secretary. Estimates of the cost of the work had been made approximately. Mr. B. T. Snell had interviewed the people of the town, and in a short time an amount sufficient to build the wharf was raised, although all had not been seen. It was the unanimous sentiment of the meeting that the City of Arlington should own and operate the wharf. The end of the street next the river is to be graded down, and from the actions of the people at the meeting there seems to be no doubt of this work being done at once and a good landing provided.

Torture of a Preacher

The story of the torture of Rev. O. D. Moore, pastor of the Baptist church of Hagersville, N. Y., will interest you. He says: "I suffered agonies, because of a persistent cough, resulting from the grip. I had to sleep sitting up in bed. I tried many remedies, without relief, until I took Dr. Kling's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, which entirely cured my cough, and saved me from consumption." A grand cure for diseased condition of Throat and Lungs. At J. C. Perry's, drug store. Price, 50c and $1.00, guaranteed. Trial bottle free.

Coyotes Have Thanksgiving.

One night last week the coyotes made a raid on R. D. White's sheep. He had them in a corral some distance from his house. There were a few sheep killed in the corral when they broke out of it and scattered in every direction. Dead and crippled sheep were found the next day all over the range, but how many were lost could not be ascertained. There were something over 1000 in the corral, and several hundred were still missing when Mr. White was seen.—Arlington Record.

A Fearful Fate.

It is a fearful fate to have to endure the terrible torture of piles. "I can truthfully say," writes Harry Colson, of Masonville, Ia., "that for blind, bleeding, itching and protruding piles, Bucklen's Arnica Salve is the best cure made." Also best for cuts, burns, and injuries. 25c at J. C. Perry's drug store.

Money From State Lands.

The report of Clerk Brown, of the state land board, shows that his department has turned over to the state treasurer, during the month of November, the sum of $20,974.25. This is greater than the amount turned over during the corresponding time last year by more than $2000.

Cure Short at Lebanon.

W. S. Hurst & Co., produce and commission merchants of this city, have 20 car loads of choice potatoes stored in their warehouses at Aurora, Hubbard and Casby, waiting for cars to make shipments. The firm has stopped buying potatoes, being unable to tell when it can move its present stock, and its houses being full. After a long delay the firm received one car, which it loaded with yellow onions for Texas markets. Other shippers are in the same position regarding lack of cars.—Aurora Borealis.

Had a Full House.

Last night the people of East Salem showed their loyalty to a local cause, and good taste for a high-class entertainment, by filling all the seats in the Central church audience room to listen to the musical recital given by Prof. Parvin and a number of his pupils. Dr. Parvin was pleased with the reception he received; the audience were more than pleased with the high-class music to which they listened, and the people of the church are thankful for the aid it brought them in meeting expenses of recent improvements.

Starting a Pure Food Campaign.

New York, Dec. 2.—The New York section of the Council of Jewish Women has decided to start an active campaign in favor of pure food and this evening the movement will be formally launched at a public meeting in Mendelssohn hall. Among the speakers will be the sponsors for the pure food bill in the United States senate, Senator Heyburn of Idaho, and Senator McCumber of North Dakota, also Dr. Harvey W. Wiley, chief of the bureau of chemistry in the agricultural department, Washington, D. C.; Nathan Straus and Mr. Lederle, former president of the New York board of health.

The senators will urge the necessity for national legislation. Dr. Wiley will speak on the evils of adulterated food and drugs. Mr. Lederle will speak on conditions in this city, and Mr. Straus will give practical illustrations on the necessity of state control, derived from his work in distributing milk among the poor of New York.

ZIONISM AROUSES ENMITY

La Russagna Italiana of Florence recently published an article on the subject of Zionism written by C. F. Gabbo, a member of the Italian senate. The following passages are extracted from it:

Even in the most liberal countries Zionism produces this distrustful and estranging sentiment against Hebrews, as he continues to show in the following words:

"I do not speak now of the bitter criticism of the Jews recently published in the press outside of England, but it is doubtless with a reactionary sentiment toward Zionism that the passing of the recent immigrant bill in England has accomplished. Every one knows that this measure was directed against the Hebrew proletariat of Russia. And indeed Lord Lansdowne, in his speech before the house of commons in support of the bill, plainly declared that the English nation was not interested in giving hospitality to a race which openly professed its desire to be a nation by itself, and to shun all fraternization with the English people."

The English anti Semitism is of quite recent origin, he says, and further shows that even in countries where the Jews are not the object of a similar feeling Zionism is a "social peril." He puts forth Italy as an example of this, and declares:

"First among the nations non anti Semitic is Italy.  There are said to be 30,000 Jews in Italy, one thousandth of the population. But there is no anti Semitism in the country. Sometimes are heard expressions of hostility to this class of people but never in cities where Hebrew communities exist. In such cities the population admit the equality before the law of all religions, Hebrew or otherwise, and so of Hebrews and of Christians as fellow citizens.

"The Hebrews of Italy for their part feel themselves as associated with Christians in the love and service of a common country. They have benefited Italy in every way. They have given to the country scientists, jurists, literati and statesmen of great worth; they are generous benefactors of the poor, sincere and active patriots, as they have proven themselves in Austrian prisons and in the struggle for independence. In Italy the Hebrews are neither socialistic leaders as in Russia, Prussia, and Austria, nor are they, as in France, the principal champions in a war waged against the re-
