TO SAY GOODBYE.

Young Men's Republican Club Gives Banquet to W. Ellis Richardson.

A delightful hour was spent last evening by the executive committee of the Young Men's Republican Club and their friends at Strong's restaurant. The occasion was a farewell word from his friends to W. Ellis Richardson, one of the charter members and strong workers of the club, who is about to leave for Oklahoma. Hal. D. Patton, president of the club, presided in his usual felicitous manner, and the whole occasion resolved itself into a genuine love feast. After partaking of the delicious luncheon, a few remarks were called for from different members of the club executive committee present. Among those who responded were following: Mayor Frank Waters, Hon. J. G. Graham, J. C. Goodale, Jr., A. F. Hofer, B. F. West, H. S. Radcliffe, D. W. Pugh, John B. Glesy, E. D. Horgan, Justice H. H. Turner, L. R. Stinson, L. T. Reynolds, C. L. Parmenter and Lee Acheson. Letters of regret were read from Orr Royal, A. A. McCormick and Charles L. McNary. Many wholesome compliments were paid Mr. Richardson for his sterling character, and whole-hearted, generous good wishes were manifested throughout the evening. The boys told with merriment and pathos some of the things about their brother that will be long remembered. All wished him God speed and prosperity.

At the close a hearty toast was drunk in his honor. Mr. Richardson's response to the remarks of his associates were eloquent, touching and of such a nature as to stamp him a true gentleman, and a broad-minded member of his profession.

Torture of a Preacher

The story of the torture of Rev. O. D. Moore, pastor of the Baptist church of Harpersville, N. Y., will interest you. He says: "I suffered agonies, because of a persistent cough, resulting from the grip. I had to sleep sitting up in bed. I tried many remedies, without relief, until I took Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, which entirely cured my cough, and saved me from consumption." A grand cure for diseased condition of Throat and Lungs. At J. C. Perry's, drug store. Price, 50c and $1.00, guaranteed. Trial bottle free.
