PERSONALS

Watt Shipp, the football fiend, is in Portland today.

Ex-Governor Moody was a north-bound passenger this morning.

Hon. J. G. Graham and little daughter went up to Turner on the 11 o'clock train.

Miss Lena McIntire, of The Journal office, is spending a couple of days in Portland.

Bishop Barkley, of Woodburn, was in the city last night, going up to Albany this morning.

Mrs. F. A. Turner was a passenger for Albany this morning, where she will visit friends.

L. M. Gilbert, the Rosedale fruit grower, is transacting business in the metropolis today.

Prof. W. H. Mahaffie, of the university, went to Cottage Grove today, where he will preach tomorrow.

Miss Wonderly went to Portland this morning to spend a couple of days at the home of her parents.

Rev. Elayer, of Independence, who was a student at the University last year, passed through Salem this morning on his way home from Hood River.

Miss Emma Miller, the efficient and accommodating "central," left this morning for Moscow, Idaho, where she will be the guest of her sister for a month.

Eugene Whipple, who was graduated from the University last year, and who has been visiting friends in this city for the past two weeks, left this morning for his home in Vancouver, Wash.

Miss Cornelia Marvin, secretary of the state library commission, went to Dallas yesterday, where she delivered an address before the Polk county teachers' institute. Her subject was "School Libraries."

Charles Flynn left this morning for Netchee, North Dakota. He came to Oregon a few weeks ago, expecting to settle here, but says that the climate here is so damp that he can not sleep nights, so went back to where the thermometer is now registering 30 degrees below zero.

Dr. H. C. Epley, John H. Albert, State Treasurer Moore, Superintendent James, Attorney A. M. Cannon, ex-Governor (Dr.) Attorney P. H. D'Arcy, Tom ay, Daniel J. Fry, W. E. Wann and E. C. Cross went to Portland this morning to witness the game of football between Multnomah and the Oregon Agricultural College. By a unanimous vote, taken at the depot before starting, they decided not to abolish football. Mr. Albert is somewhat of an amateur at the game, but said he was going today to see what he missed of the Willamette-Multnomah game. It seems that he was an interested spectator at that match, but when the first half was up he thought the game was over and started for home.

It is no small comfort to have Schilling's Best on call at your grocer's; a pity one can't get everything such and so!

Quite Resigned.

Mrs. Naggors—Have you forgotten that this is our 26th anniversary? Naggors (wearily)—No; I've not forgotten, but I've forgiven.—Translated for Tales from "Famille Journal."

Smiles

There isn't much enthusiasm for any Portland machine state.

Stick to the farm applies to some politicians as well as farmers.

When a man owns as much as Harrison does in Oregon he gets credit for owning a great deal more.

It cost $350 for the names to initiate the woman suffrage bill. Well, ten new Easter hats would cost that.

The Commercial Club of Salem has gone on record for a senator who will stand up and fight for the west coast harbors.

Governor Chamberlain has had enough pointers from late events in Oregon to know what kind of a senator to appoint.

Homeless, kinless, moneyless, Senator Mitchell died in a community persecuting him to his grave. The lesson of practical politics.

In Mad Chase.

Millions rush in mad chase after health, from one extreme of febrilism to another, when, if they would only eat good food, and keep their bowels regular with Dr. King's New Life Pills, their troubles would all pass away. Prompt relief and quick cure for liver and stomach trouble, 25c, at J. C. Perry's drug store; guaranteed.

Servant—Sir!

"Go to the theater and bring me an orchestra seat."

"Impossible, sir. They are all nailed to the floor."—Translated for Tales from El Calendario Espanol.

X-RAYS

The question of the hour, what will "Our George" do with that senatorial toga?

As a hunch to T. T., the horse editor advises him to keep his eye on LaPollette.

That cow in the East school, if one is permitted to make a bull of it, was a horse on the professor.

Well, Senator Mitchell at least had a heart in him. He died poor when other senators are millionaires.

No doubt numbers of Democratic politicians in Portland, fearing political lightning, have erected numerous and altitudinous rods.

Since 1847 the United States has issued more than 500 different adhesive postage stamps, which shows that none of them were able to stick.

It is forbidden to place flowers on the desks in congress on opening day, and now that function appears consid-

Your Price?

About how much would you like to pay for your Winter Suit or Overcoat?
Name your price and we'll show you a Suit or Overcoat that will more than meet your expectations. Whether rigid economy compels you to make the most of a $10.00 garment, or a handsome income justifies the wearing of a luxurious $25.00 outfit, we'll give you the best your money can buy.

Hats That Are Hats

Don't forget when you want style and durability in a Hat you want the ROBERTS $3.00 Hat, soft or stiff. We now have a few Ladies' Cowboy Hats, just in this week, and they are beauties. Call and see them.

erably less like a popular funeral.

A Salem school ma'am says that the duty of the present day teacher is not to "teach the young idea how to shoot," but "to teach the young idiot how to shoot."

The latest "cute" dodge of a rather aged scroon in the effete East, is to have the statement published that she has the measles—but still she remains a measly old thing.

There is a difference between Governor LaPollette, of Michigan and certain Oregon politicians. LaPollette cannot make up his mind as to which office to give up, and the other fellows are uncertain as to which ones they can get.

The country had considerable to say about the Detroit man who erected a statue to Satan, but the air is not vibrant with comment on the Pennsylvania legislature appropriating money for a monument to Matt Quay. It is probably looked upon as an act of filial duty.

The Tacoma Ledger discusses the probability of Millionaire Schwab, who is making a home in Nevada, becoming United States senator from that state, and incidentally speaks of that state in rather disrespectful terms. In view of Washington's last contribution to the senate, maybe a Schwab would come handy.

Miss Nellie Theresa Henry, of San Francisco, is suing Millionaire W. F. Whittier for $50,000 for breach of promise. If the lady resembles her picture in the San Francisco Chronicle, Whittier might rejoice in getting his goods from the 49-cent counter on special day. It is cheap, Willie, scandalously cheap.
