Belasco's Twin Successes.
David Belasco enjoys the distinction of having produced the two big hits of the present New York season. One of them, "The Music Master," with David Warfield as the star, was also the hit of last season. The other, Mr. Belasco's newest play, "The Girl of the Golden West," in which Miss Blanche Bates sustains the title role, has packed the Belasco theater since its first night, and now it is necessary to purchase reserved seats five weeks ahead if they are to be obtained at all. The sure touch of the most eminent stage producer and dramatist of the decade is shown in the fact that every moment tells in both of the Belasco productions. This is no less true of "The Music Master" than of "The Girl of the Golden West." The hand of the wizard is evident in both. The Bijou theater, in which "The Music Master" is holding forth, had not been a very lucky house for some years when it became necessary to move this particularly human play from the Belasco to make room for something else. But it has been one of the two theaters in New York which is sold out weeks before each performance. The Belasco theater is the other.

How, Indeed.

They had not been married very long, and that complete, blissful trust which young husbands and wives have in each other had not yet been broken. But one morning wife meekly remarked: "I mended the hole in your trousers pocket last night after you had gone to bed, John, dear. Now am I not a thoughtful little wife?"

Husband (dubiously)—Well—er—yes, you are thoughtful enough, my dear. But how the mischief did you discover there was a hole in my pocket?—Judge.

A fearful Fate.

It is a fearful fate to have to endure the terrible torture of piles. "I can truthfully say," writes Harry Colson, of Masonville, Ia., "that for blind, bleeding, itching and protruding piles, Bucklen's Arnica Salve is the best cure made." Also best for cuts, burns, and injuries. 25c at J. C. Perry's drug store.

A Pleasant Way to Travel.

The above is the usual verdict of the traveler using the Missouri Pacific railway between the Pacific coast and the east, and we believe that the service and accommodations given merit this statement. The same excellent service is operated from Kansas City and St. Louis to Memphis, Little Rock and Hot Springs. If you are going east or south, write for particulars and full information. W. C.
