CZAR'S DEATH WARRANT

Revolutionary Committee Say He Must Die, and Arrange the Means

Geneva, Switzerland, Jan. 2.—Russia revolutionary leaders are congregating here. A secret meeting was recently held which decided on the death of the czar, and considered other revolutionary plans. According to one informant 30 revolutionists met at a deserted farm house on the frontier. There was a heated discussion, several chiefs offering moderate counsel. The majority expressed themselves in favor of meeting force with force. A resolution was finally adopted demanding that Witte resign and permit Douma to begin work. The decreed death of the emperor was carried by a large majority. All but ten signed the czar's death warrant. A committee of three was appointed to select the instrument to carry out the order.

RUSSIAN AFFAIRS BETTER

St. Petersburg, Jan. 2.—Reports of disorders are becoming less frequent. The indication is that all Russia is more quiet. Durnovo ordered the closing of 49 printing offices, to prevent the publication of socialistic papers. Council ministers have practically all authority. The reactionary committee at Tsarko-Selo wields great influence. This committee includes Trepoff, Pobledonosteff, and it pays no attention to Witte. The reservists in Siberia have revolted, destroyed the railway property and joined the revolutionists.

Lawn Tennis on the Riviera.

Nice, Jan. 2.—The usual New Year's lawn tennis tournament opened here today. It is for the club championships, which are now held by Miss Vera Warden and Mr. J. B. Alexander. The lawn tennis courts are never closed in this city and are in excellent condition all the year round. The Golf Club of Nice, which is a rather recent addition, is also flourishing, and a number of matches will be played during the months of January and February.

PRINTERS' STRIKE IS ON

(Four O'clock Edition.)
Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 2.—President Lynch, of the International Typographical Union, says he is not far enough into the fight to make any definite predictions. He says the reports from the whole country are encouraging. He received a telegram from Oakland, Cal., saying: "The California State Federation of Labor extends greetings, and wishes you success. Signed Harry A. Knox, president."

The Printers' Strike.

New York, Jan. 2.—The fight between the book job offices and members of the typographical union began in earnest today. Neither side is willing to give the figures as to the number of men out. Long lines of non-union men are ready to take the places of the strikers.

SUPREME COURT AFFIRMS

Washington, Jan. 2.—The supreme court today sustained the lower courts in the case of James B. Howard, thrice convicted of the murder of Governor Goebel. He is under life imprisonment.

Teaching Farm Economics to Women.

Ithaca, N. Y., Jan. 2.—Beginning with today the college of agriculture of Cornell university is adding one more faculty for the benefit of farm women by offering them a winter course of eleven weeks in home economics, for the special benefit of farmers' wives and daughters. The course begins today and will close on March 30. It is free of tuition to all residents of the state. The only expenses are the personal outlays for living and traveling. For the present winter this course is to comprise a series of lec-

ALL KINDS OF A DIRTY BRUTE

Caledonia, Minn., Jan. 2.—Because her parents objected to his suit, Ned Styer, aged 23, a student in the school of dentistry of the University of Minnesota, just after midnight shot and killed Pearl Wheaton, aged 22. She was killed instantly by a bullet in her heart. He then fatally shot her sister, Ruth, aged 25, and her mother, Mrs. F. N. Wheaton, who is one of the richest farmers in this county. Refused admittance Styer broke through the window. He was hindered by Ruth, whom he shot twice; the mother appeared and was shot twice. He found his sweetheart hiding in a closet, and killed her, and then committed suicide, being found dying on the girl's breast.

A Montana Wreck.

Glasgow, Mont., Jan. 2.—Two trainmen were fatally hurt and six passengers seriously injured in a rear-end collision yesterday afternoon between an eastbound passenger train and a freight train. The fatally hurt are: George Davis, conductor of the freight, and the sleeping car porter, whose name is unknown. The names of the injured passengers are not known. The wreck was due to the sudden stopping of the freight train while on a bridge. The wreckage caught fire, and a number of freight cars were burned. It was necessary to fire several box cars in order to clear the track. The injured were taken to St. Paul.

No One Hurt.

Butte, Mont., Jan. 2.—The Great Northern passenger train, southbound, yesterday was derailed near Woodville. The entire train of five coaches left the rails. None were injured, though a number were badly shaken up.

HE BLEW OUT HIS VACUUM

Portland, Jan. 2.—Chief Clerk Robert E. Brinstad, of the Hotel Oregon, committed suicide in his apartments in the hotel at 2:30 this morning, using a bull dog revolver. He placed the muzzle to his head, standing before the mirror, in the presence of his wife, who has since been hysterical.

Increasing Wages of Mill Hands.

Boston, Mass., Jan. 2.—Beginning with today the 20,000 hands employed by the American Woolen company of this city will have their wages increased 10 per cent. The increase becomes effective in the 30 plants of the corporation, which are located in seven states, and it is expected that several mills not owned by the company will grant a similar advance.

The Scotia Worsted Mills, of Woonsocket, R. I., controlled by an independent concern and employing 175 hands, has also increased the wages of their men 10 per cent, beginning with New Year. It is estimated that the advance will give the hands of the American Woolen company an aggregate of about $1,000,000 more each year than they have been receiving. Of the mills affected are fourteen located in the state of Massachusetts, seven in Rhode Island, three in New Hampshire, four in Maine, and one each in Connecticut, Vermont and New York.

Could Not Stand Prosperity.

Lisbon, Spain, Jan. 2.—The association of street porters in this city, who contributed each a small amount to buy a lottery ticket, and won the $200,000, getting $2000 each. Four went insane from joy, and the rest are 'wasting their money on champagne.

The Patients of Dr. B. E. Wright

who hold tickets numbered 751 and 229 will please call at his office.

Des Moines, Ia., Jan. 2.—The eight-hour day was granted to job printers by all the Iowa cities except Des Moines, Council Bluffs, Cedar Rapids and Keokuk. Twenty per cent of the printers in these towns are out.

Printers Strike in Los Angeles.

Los Angeles, Cal., Jan. 2.—The job printers' men and press feeders in all but two union shops went on strike this morning. Officers of the union issued a statement to the public, relating only the demand for an eight-hour day. The employers have organized a Franklin Association, and, assisted by the Citizen's Alliance, is attempting to break the strike by importing non-union men. But few men have arrived. There are 150 men out.

Chicago, Jan. 2.—The introduction of the printers' fight for an eight-hour day was not marked by many strikes; city employers having anticipated it weeks ago by locking out the union, and hiring non-union men.

The First of the Graft Trials.

Philadelphia, Pa., Jan. 2.—The trial of John W. Mill, former chief of the bureau of filtration, charged with conspiracy to defraud the city, was called for a hearing in the common pleas court today. It has been arranged that the case shall have precedence over all others in which public contractors are involved. The city is represented by District Attorney Bell, Assistant District Attorney Wallerstein and City Solicitor Kinsey, while George S. Graham and several other prominent attorneys represent the defendant. It is expected that the trial will last several days, as quite a large number of witnesses will be heard. Among the witnesses called are a number of prominent engineering experts and it is expected that the case will be of unusual interest.

Storms Won't Resign.

Indianapolis, Jan. 2.—Secretary of State Daniel Storms, who Governor Henley ordered to resign on account of alleged irregularities in his accounts this morning formally notified the executive he would not resign.

Washington, Jan. 2.—The supreme court today decided the ordinance of the city of Peoria, Ill., fixing rates on gas was invalid, because it was shown the rate the city fixed was unreasonable and unenforceable.

tures by the leading women in the field of householding, domestic science, and economics as applied to the home. About twenty women have been engaged to give these lectures and demonstrations, among them Mrs. Ellen H. Richards, institute of technology, Boston; Dean Marion Talbot, University of Chicago; Miss Isabel Bevier, of the University of Illinois, Miss Abby L. Marlatt of Providence, R. I., Mrs. Alice Peloubet Norton of the University of Chicago, Mrs. James Hughes of Toronto, Ont., Miss S. Maria Elliott, Simmons college, Miss Anna Barrows, Boston, Miss Helen Kline, teachers' college, New York, and others.

Important Supreme Court Cases.

Washington, D. C., Jan. 2.—A number of highly important cases have been set for a hearing today. One of the most important cases which will come up today is the rehearing in the cases of Lincoln and of Walker, Barnes & Co. against the United States, involving questions of Philippine tariffs. Oral arguments will be heard today in the one question only: "Has congress the power to ratify what the president did in the matter of collecting Philippine revenues under his war power, after the treaty of Paris had been ratified and before there was any legislation on the subject?" The case was originally decided by the supreme court against the United States. If the decision is confirmed on rehearing it, it will mean the refunding by the government of several million dollars paid by the plaintiffs.

The Wisconsin Paper Trust Contempt Cases.

The Wisconsin Paper Trust contempt cases have been advanced for today by the supreme court and with them the appeal in the St. Paul cases, in which fines for contempt were imposed by Judge Vandevanter. Another case which is to be called today is the case of the United States against Senator Clark of Montana, involving the alleged illegal acquisition of timber lands.

The hearing in the case of the state of Missouri versus the state of Illinois, and involving the status of the Chicago drainage canal, is also among the important cases set for a hearing today.

Chicago Markets.
