

DAILY CAPITAL JOURNAL

BY HOFER BROR

OFFICIAL CHIEF OF SALEM
MAY, 1904, 13,257.

PATRONIZE HOME INDUSTRY.

It is not a matter of congratulation for Mr. Huston that he went outside of his congressional district for the initial publication of his platform. He doesn't expect the voters in the Second district to nominate or elect him, we are sure. The fact that the Oregonian is the leading state paper and has a wide circulation does not imply that campaigns of the first district should go to Portland for their launching. Political ethics demand that matters of this nature should originate in a candidate's bailiwick, where his best friends are supposed to be, where his lesser ambitions have received consideration, and where his newspaper friends deserve prior notice. Possibly Mr. Huston's action was a thoughtless oversight, but a few more similar ones would put the quietus on his chances for the congressional nomination.—Eugene Register.

It is certain that Mr. Huston only did what he thought was proper, but it would have looked better if he had made his first publication in his own district.

Living so close to Portland it was only natural that he should have run down to the big city to start his literary bureau. And it cannot be denied that Portland has an immense interest in who the western Oregon congressman shall be and what his views are on important matters like improvement of our rivers and harbors.

THE NORMAL SCHOOLS ARE NOT DEAD.

The Oregon normal schools, all but the one at Weston, are struggling along heroically, supported by the sacrifices of the teachers, officers and localities that established them.

The state universities of the whole United States have furnished a bulletin that shows that every state in the Union maintains normal schools, and that good public schools are impossible without them.

The people will probably never vote the appropriations in the bill that has been tied up with the referendum, but that does not mean that the normal schools shall not be maintained in Oregon.

Oregon is never going into a class by herself where the people boldly advertise to the world that they will not provide preparatory training for public school teachers.

The last legislature passed a bill through the lower house to put all the normal schools under one board of regents, provide a uniform course of study and give them support in proportion to the attendance.

The bill was killed in the senate by the senators from the counties having normal schools. A lobbyist, who is a regent of the Mowmouth normal, was the most active agent in killing the bill and wrecking the schools.

That regent was afraid his petty graft of $5 a day would be cut off if the reform bill went through. He will be fully exposed when the proper time comes to discuss this matter. Oregon will never disgrace herself by trying to run schools without normal training.

IT LOOKS LIKE TOOTH.

To a southern Oregonian it looks as if there was but one man in the congressional race so far, and his name is Walter L. Toose. This part of the state has been taking things easy for many years, but with the past two years a change has been manifested, and the Rogue river valley man is about the liveliest piece of humanity in the state of Oregon. For that reason a man who goes out after a thing as if he meant it always makes a hit with the people of this section, and Toose is certainly the active candidate. He was first in the field, first to declare his principles, and, in go back of that, he was the first of the candidates seriously mentioned for the honor to take an active part in Republican state politics. He has always been a Republican, whereas Huston is yet on probation. Hawley is a good man, and competent, but his profession has rather stunted the characteristics that make for a good politician, and Oregon wants a politician in congress as much as she wants anything else; no other kind of a statesman can bring about the desired legislation.

Ask Your Own Doctor

If he tells you to take Ayer's Cherry Pectoral for your severe cough or bronchial trouble, then take it. If he has anything better, then take that. But we know his answer; for doctors have prescribed this medicine for over 60 years. We have an account. We publish J. C. Ayer Co., Lowell, Mass.

Another Richmond may take the field, but at present, to the Tribune it looks like the next congressman from the First district would be the Hon. Walter Toose of Woodburn.

LET OREGON EMERGE.

There is need of a revision of the laws of Oregon relating to the publication of legal notices. Compared with the other states in this regard, Oregon is fifty years behind the times. The idea of "posting" election notices, for instance, when there are newspapers in the state to do such work, is a case in point. Fifty years ago, when there were no newspapers, or very few, in Oregon, the methods of today might have been excusable; today there is absolutely no excuse for such methods. There are countless other notices of a public character that the laws of the state should require the publication of. If Oregon is ever to emerge from the frontier stage in such matters it is high time a beginning were made.—Union Republican.

CRAWFORD A CANDIDATE.

The people of Coos county, where A. M. Crawford is well known will be generally glad that he is again to be a candidate for attorney general of the state. Mr. Crawford made his entry into the legal circles of Oregon in Marshfield, and practiced his profession here for nearly ten years. The people of this community know Mr. Crawford as a man of ability, integrity and tireless industry. He has the courage to face any situation in which his office may place him; and feels enough of the joy of conflict not to shirk any fight in which his duty may call him to engage. He has always been a steadfast Republican, and there is no doubt of his nomination on that ticket; and his record has been such during his present term that he will be triumphantly elected.

Rev. Carlisle B. P. Martin, I. L. D.

Of Wavary, Texas, writes: "Of a morning, when first arising, I often find a troublesome collection of phlegm which produces a phlegm and is very hard to dislodge; but a small quantity of Ballard's Horehound Syrup will at once dissolve it, and the trouble is over. I know of no medicine that is equal to it, and it is so pleasant to take. I can most cordially recommend it to all persons needing a medicine for throat and lung trouble." Sold by D. J. Fry.

Shocks from False Teeth.

"False teeth have been known to generate electricity in the mouth and shock their wearers painfully," said a dentist. "Only last week a gentleman came to me and said he feared he was getting a cancer on his tongue. 'Such severe shooting pains attack me,' he said, 'that often I utter loud oaths in the most unseemly places—at teas, before the minister, and so on. It is like knife thrusts. Do you think I am going to lose my tongue?' I found that two different metals had been used in fixing the poor man's false teeth. These metals, combining with the saliva, had formed a small battery. Electricity generated in the battery continually, and shock after shock was administered to the tongue. I painted the metal with an insulating varnish. Thereafter the man had no more trouble."—New York Press.

Sickening, Shivering Fits.

Of ague and malaria can be relieved and cured with Electric Bitters. This is a pure, tonic medicine, of especial benefit in malaria, for it exerts a true curative influence on the disease, driving it entirely out of the system. It is much to be preferred to quinine, having none of this drug's bad after effects. E. S. Munday, of Henrieville, Texas, writes: "My brother was very low with malarial fever and jaundice, till he took Electric Bitters, which saved his life." At J. C. Perry's drug store, price 50c, guaranteed.

Holds for the residence of Mrs. C. H. Hinge, corner of Chemakata and Summer streets, will be closed on Saturday, January 6, 1906, at 5 p. m. 12-30 St. CHAS. H. HINGE.

Smiles

Mr. Huston becoming a Republican candidate for congress ensures his permanently remaining in the party.

The women are the handsome part of the Chinese nation. And they wouldn't last five seconds in a beauty show.

The Marshfield Sun has this item:linger Hermann is to go to Washington after the holidays and take his seat in congress. That's right.

When the religious end of the Democratic party begins to do business with Republican aldermen, it is time to put a new padlock on the city treasury.

Call in at the Journal office and sign the bill to raise state taxes off the gross earnings of corporations and intangible property. It is a hayseed measure and entitled to hayseed support.

The people of Polk county could not do much better than to send Editors Lyon and Hayter to the legislature. Let both run, and the one that is elected take the other one along for a clerk.

Corvallis Times, Dem.: "What is a Democrat?" is the heading an editorial writer bestowed on his article, and every Democrat who read the effusion is congratulating himself that he is a Democrat, and not an ass.

If the editor of the Salem Statesman really desires to know whether the Journal will support the Republican ticket or not, let him get on the ticket, and see how quickly we would take our medicine, along with the rest of the common people.

Albany Democrat: The Corvallis & Eastern is entitled to great credit for the splendid train service between this city and Corvallis. With trains running this way it is ridiculous for the government to be running a stage for the carriage of mail.

"If the council should see fit to make any changes, who has any right to growl, except the fellows who do not get the job?"—Salem Statesman interview with boss.

This is the grafter's idea of politics. "The public be damned, I can pay my personal debts at the expense of the public service."

Here's a hot one from the McMinnville Telephone Register, and we are glad for once to not be in the same distinguished class with the Portland paper: "If there is a more contemptible, hypocritical, lying newspaper on the face of the earth than the Oregonian, it must be under the direct supervision of the Father of Lies."

Independence, Enterprise: Don't "chuck" your black type, Colonel Hofer, nor neglect well written headlines for the busy reader, and soon we'll all be singing.

"There's something in your manner, There's something in your smile, There's something in your makeup, That's just my style."

All the telegraph lines in Lincoln county are assessed at only $500 and the state gets the magnificent sum of $3.10 revenue out of their franchise and property earnings. Isn't it time such corporations paid the state of Oregon a tax on their gross earnings for the privilege of doing business in Oregon?

Imperfect Digestion.

Means less nutrition and in consequence less vitality. When the liver fails to secrete bile, the blood becomes loaded with bilious properties, the digestion becomes impaired and the bowels constipated. Herbine will rectify this; it gives tone to the stomach, liver and kidneys, strengthens the appetite, clears and improves the complexion, infuses new life and vigor to the whole system. 50c a bottle. Sold by D. J. Fry.

Safe From the Agent.

Church—That man Hughes, who is conducting the insurance investigation, is a lucky man. Gotham—Why so? Church—He won't be bothered with insurance agents calling at his office and telling him the advantages of insuring in their companies for a long time.—Yonkers Statesman.

WOULD STAND NOT HER WORK

Seventeen pounds of babies, divided as Caesar and "all Gaul" used to be, into three parts, formed the unique gift with which Mrs. Yetta Vosbrand of Chicago prepared to present her husband on Christmas; but that individual did not wait around to receive his loving wife's offering. Two sets of twins already called him papa and he promptly vanished.

The first mite of humanity weighed seven pounds, including its lungs. The second bore the scales down to the extent of five pounds and ten ounces. It, too, was equipped with a full set of vocal instruments. The third and last bundle, when opened, displayed a midget calloppe of the weight of four pounds and six ounces. All three, it was discovered, were girls.

Mrs. Vosbrand, to whom Chicago owes its salvation from falling under the stigma of being "tripleless" for 1905, has served her country well, according to the Standard set by President Roosevelt. Counting the Christmas eve triplets, she now has eight children living.

No Benefit No Cost.

If you are weak and worn-out—if you are nervous, irritable, have headache, backache, neuralgia, or periodical pains, it is because you have exhausted your nerve force.

If you cannot sleep, and are thus robbed of the rest which nature demands for the restoration of mental and physical vigor, your system will continue to run down.

Dr. Miles' Nerve restores vitality by soothing and strengthening the nervous system, thus inducing refreshing sleep, and imparting strength and vigor to all the organs of the body.

There are very few instances where Nerve will not benefit if not, your druggist will refund the money.

"When I began taking Dr. Miles' Nerve I had a very sour stomach, with pain extending far around on my left side—attended with extreme nervousness. I dreaded to have night come, as it was impossible for me to sleep. Everything I ate distressed me. Before I had finished one bottle of Nerve there was such a change that my husband bought six more, which has restored me to health." MISS JENNIE HIMMS, Rushville, Ind.

Dr. Miles' Nerve is sold by your druggist, who will guarantee that the first bottle will benefit. If it fails, he will refund your money. Miles Medical Co., Elkhart, Ind.

Not Incompatible.

"I hope you will excuse my appearance," said the father of an exceedingly obstreperous family, as he descended from the nursery to greet his friend, "but to tell the truth the children and I have been having some hot times up stairs."

"I should have judged from the sounds that floated down," replied the visitor, "that it was a sort of a whaling expedition."—Baltimore American.
