A New Thing in History.

We have arrived at a stage of human evolution that must be almost unprecedented in history. A large portion of mankind—and just that portion which corresponds with the part that has hitherto created the events of which we know with some certainty—is gradually forsaking the religion in which it has lived for nearly twenty centuries.

For a religion to become extinct is no new thing. It must have happened more than once in the night of time; and the annals of the end of the Roman empire make us assist at the death of paganism. But, until now, men passed from a crumbling temple into one that was building; they left one religion to enter another; whereas we are abandoning ours to go nowhere. That is the new phenomenon, with the unknown consequences, in which we live.—Maurice Maeterlinck, in January Atlantic.

Amusements

"A Jolly American Tramp," one of the biggest success now on tour is the next attraction at the Grand Opera House. It was written by Edward E. Kidder, the man who constructed "A Poor Relation" and "Peaceful Valley" for Sol Smith Russell, and is said to be a fit companion play to these great successes. "A Jolly American Tramp" will be interpreted by a very capable company, under the management of U. D. Newell.

Cured Lumbago.

A. B. Cannon, Chicago, writes March 4, 1903, "Having been troubled with lumbago at different times and tried one physician after another, then different ointments and liniments, gave it up altogether. So I tried once more and got a bottle of Ballard's Snow Liniment, which gave me almost instant relief. I can cheerfully recommend it, and will add my name to your list of sufferers." Sold by D. J. Fry.

That Boundary Line.

The maps which are to be used by the state of Oregon in its contest with the state of Washington over the location of the boundary line between the two states on the lower Columbia, came from the press yesterday. It was printed at the state house, but the plate was made in Portland from a government map upon which the state engineer had marked the boundary as claimed by the officials of this state. There are several miles difference in the boundaries, as claimed by the two states.

Sickening, Shivering Fits.

Of ague and malaria can be relieved and cured with Electric Bitters. This is a pure, tonic medicine, of especial benefit in malaria, for it exerts a true curative influence on the disease, driving it entirely out of the system. It is much to be preferred to quinine, having none of this drug's bad after effects. E. S. Munday, of Hearletta, Texas, writes: "My brother was very low with malarial fever and jaundice, till he took Electric Bitters, which saved his life." At J. C. Perry's drug store; price 50c, guaranteed.

Wants to Be State Printer.

W. J. Clarke, editor of the Gervais Star, and postmaster of Gervais, was in the city yesterday. He filed notice with the secretary of state that he wanted the nomination for state printer on the republican ticket.

Nothing is more in demand than a medicine which meets modern requirements for a blood and system cleanser, such as Dr. King's New Life Pills. They are just what you need to cure stomach and liver troubles. Try them at J. C. Perry's drug store, 25c, guaranteed.

Down in Woodburn.

Tonight at Woodburn the basketball teams of Salem and Woodburn high schools will contest for supremacy. Several students accompany the team, which goes down this afternoon. The Salem players are not very much for "heft," but they are swift and gritty, and when the game is over the boys from Woodburn will know that they have been up against a team that knows the game.

RAHI RAHI RAHI RAHI RAHI RUSH! BLUES EAT TURKEY WHILE REDS EAT MUSH

Now, really, do you like mush? If you do, join the Reds. They will have sour milk with it. If you don't like mush, join the Blues.

The Blues are organized as follows: Captain, Dr. H. C. Epley; general advisor, F. A. Wiggins; first lieutenant H. Winstanley, second lieutenant, Perry Jones; third lieutenant, Aug. Huckenstein, Jr.; captain of ladies' forces, Mrs. J. A. Morrison; lady lieutenants, Misses Delphine Cornoyer, Elma Byrne and Ada Dayton; chief decorator, Mrs. H. C. Epley.

A SUCCESSFUL YEAR.

Salem Y. M. C. A. Annual Report Shows a Healthy Condition.

The annual report of the Salem Y. M. C. A. has been compiled by the general secretary, and shows that the association privileges have been in good demand during the past year. The number of visits to the rooms, including strangers and members, was 22,943, of which 2715 were made during December. The members took 4661 baths during the year, and the number exercising in the gymnasium was 4755. The educational work shows up well, there having been 80 enrollments in the different classes for the fall term and this number is being increased for the term which opened this week. The financial report shows that during the year the total receipts from all sources were $3186.18, and the expenditures $2918.35, leaving a balance on hand of $267.83. The balance on hand at the beginning of the year was $1.83. Of the receipts, $786.75 was from membership fees, $1007.75 from subscriptions, $308.50 from educational class tuitions, $672 from rentals, and the balance from miscellaneous sources.

The expenditures, in addition to salaries, amounted to $1437.60, divided up between light, fuel, advertising, boys' work, gymnasium apparatus, educational classes, reading room supplies, etc.

Spilled Her Beauty.

Harriet Howard, of W. 34th street, New York, at one time had her beauty spoiled with skin trouble. She writes: "I had salt rheum or eczema for years, but nothing would cure it, until I used Bucklen's Arnica Salve." A quick and sure healer for cuts, burns and sores. 25c at J. C. Perry's drug store.

Special Meeting Tonight.

There will be a special meeting of the city council this evening, to consider the matter of the High street bridge. It seems that when the contract was let for the building of this bridge there was no provision made for approaches, and hence Salem would have been in the predicament of having a bridge with no way to get to it. The meeting tonight will be for the purpose of correcting this fault and straightening out as far as possible, other irregularities in connection with the letting of the contract.

Here's Hoping.

The girls' basket ball team of the Salem high school left for Corvallis today where tonight they will meet the team of the Agricultural College. This is a pretty big undertaking that the Salem girls have on their hands, for the maidens of the O. A. C. are older and have more experience, but, under the coaching of Miss Richards, the Salem ladies have attained a degree of proficiency that they think will enable them to give a good account of themselves.

Not With Me.

La internacia lingvo Esperanto estas facile lernobla, ec de la personoj ne multe instruataj. Unu homo sukcese generale por lerai la tutan gramatikon, kelkaj tagoj por legi, kelkaj semajnoj por skribi. Esperanto estas efektive tre simpla, fleksebla, bonega kaj vere internacia per siaj elementoj. Kun malgranda kvanto da radikoj oni povas fari tre grandan nombron da vortoj dank al la praktika sistemo de prefiksoj kaj sufiksoj. Tiu ci lingvo ne havas la intencan malfortigi la lingvon naturan da la popolo. Gi devos servi por la rilatoj internaciaj kaj por tiuj verkoj kiuj interesas la tutan mondon. Esperanto helpas lo sciencon, la komercon, kaj la vojaĝojn.

Translation.

The international language Esperanto is easily learnable, even by (of) people not much educated. One hour suffices generally to (for) learn the whole grammar, some (French, queques) days to read, some weeks to write. Esperanto is effectively very simple, flexible, well sounding, and very international by its elements. With (a) small (not large) quantity of radicals, one can make (a) very great number of words, thanks to the practical system of prefixes and suffixes. This language has not the intention to weaken the natural language of any people. It must serve for the international relations, and for all the works which interest the whole world. Esperanto helps the sciences, commerce, and journeys.—Albert Schinz in the January Atlantic.

Enjoy a pleasant ride, and see for yourself.

X-RAYS

Chicago had its third annual cat show yesterday. Most of the old cats in Chicago were present.

Steamship companies evidently act on the principal of lawyers. The Chesapeake wants $100,000 for towing the Puebla into port. Some one said "a lawyer is the gentleman who protects property against the inroads of thieves, so he can take it himself."

G. L. Shook, 60 years old, an honest resident of Darby, Mont, and the father of six children, shook his wife and skipped with a woman named Phoe, who was the mother of five children. The sheriff, Mr. Phoe and Mrs. Shook are all hot on the trail of the giddy elopers.

Since the good old Plaidealer changed its name, it already shows signs of declination. It speaks of Attorney General Crawford being entitled to renomination by acclamation. We knew the Salem climate agreed with the general, but our nickle says Kincaid did not read the proof.

Falls Forty Feet Into Well.

A 6-year-old son of Eli Robinson, who lives out on the Belmont road, had a narrow escape from being drowned in a well Monday. Mr. Robinson was finishing up the curbing of a well that had been recently dug on his place, and the little fellow, in company with his sister, was playing near it. His father was using a plumb in connection with the work, and asked the boy to pick it up and bring it to him. The plumb bob was lying near the well curb, and the youngster, on picking it up, instead of walking toward his father, stepped backward, and fell into the well, which is 40 feet deep.

The horrified father descended into the well by a rude ladder that had been used in the construction of it, expecting to find the boy dead. On reaching the water, however, he found that the youngster had struck on a plank that was floating in it, and was calling lustily to be taken out.

Fearing that he might have sustained internal injuries, Dr. Brosius was summoned and made an examination, but found that, beyond a few bruises, the lad was unhurt, and that there was no water in his lungs. His escape from death or serious injury is considered miraculous.—Hood River Glacier.

Pleasant and Most Effective.

T. J. Chambers, editor Vindicator, Liberty, Texas, writes December 25, 1905:

"With pleasure and unsolicited by you I bear testimony to the curative power of Ballard's Horehound Syrup. I have used it and my family can cheerfully affirm it is the most effective and best remedy for coughs and colds I have ever used." Sold by D. J. Fry.

Basket Ball.

In an interesting, though one-sided game of basket ball, played in the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium last night, the Capital Business college team defeated the Silverton high school by the score of 38 to 12. This was the first game that the visitors have played this season, and considering this, and the fact that they have not had a regular team in Silverton for several years, the showing they made is a good one. The local team played an exceptionally clean game, and, with their team work and greater experience, were more than a match for their doughty opponents.

Court Notes.

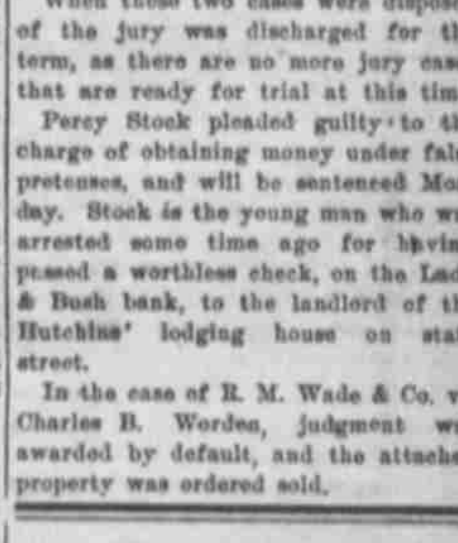

John D. Hardwick was yesterday awarded a judgment against W. C. Tillson & Co. for $68.25, the amount of a lien which he held against a lot of prunes which were purchased and sold by Tillson & Co. The prunes were formerly the property of C. A. Parvin, and the lien was for the picking and drying of them.

The Star Land Co. also secured a judgment against Andrew McFarlane and Mrs. McFarlane-Claggett for the sum of $60. This was a claim for services rendered by Bonham & Martin, and which had been assigned to the Star Land Co.

When these two cases were disposed of the jury was discharged for the term, as there are no more jury cases that are ready for trial at this time.

Percy Stock pleaded guilty to the charge of obtaining money under false pretenses, and will be sentenced Monday. Stock is the young man who was arrested some time ago for having passed a worthless check, on the Ladd & Bush bank, to the landlord of the Hutchins' lodging house on state street.

In the case of R. M. Wade & Co. vs. Charles B. Worden, judgment was awarded by default, and the attached property was ordered sold.
