If this is the beaver state, why let the trappers kill all the beavers?

Register, Republicans, register and help put up a ticket that will fly with its own wings.

A Pythian cast and Eagles' serie will be among Baker City's building improvements this year.

It isn't such a bad idea to teach young Americans practical self-government, instead of hiring officials to govern them.

Oh, yes; it's all wrong to make the untaxed corporations pay anything on their gross earnings. Kill the Farmers' Tax Bill.

Hon. A. C. Jennings, Lane county, has come out for state treasurer. He has been rolling clerk of the legislature many times.

When it comes to selling high class goods a firm now at Salem beats them all by saying that on $500 sales one Saturday, $400 was profit.

The city council may have made a mistake in ordering the military company out of the armory, and should be given a chance to get right.

For two old farmers, the two haycocks who are running the whole Marion county government in the absence of County Judge Scott, are doing pretty good work. No wonder the people want Captain Miloy returned.

One thing we like about Colonel Hoper's black-face editorials in the Salem Capital Journal is that we don't have to read the whole story to get at the meat of the article—the black-face cap lines tell the story in a nutshell.

This week M. H. Giberson, of Aurora, agent for R. & F. Uhls, the hop men of New York City, and the largest hop buyers in the United States, made a deal with Edward Pollett whereby he gets 10,000 pounds of hops each year for five years from Mr. Pollett, at 10 cents per pound.

Baker City Herald: Salem's chief of police, who it was rumored at the time of his election was hand in glove with the anti-reform element, has evidently been seized with a revulsion of feeling, and in consequence the entire population of the Capital City tender him is under arrest.

The editor of this paper has been elected to a membership in the Y. M. C. A., which he considers a high compliment, as the honor came entirely unlooked for. That organization does a work for young men connected with that great university which it seems would not be accomplished in any other way, and the service is of great value to many young men away from home.

The alderman who compel walks to be put down where no one asked for them, and favor others by not ordering walks along their property ought not be censured, if they do even ask to have extra property along property for which they are agents. Besides the walk to the Lincoln school house is only a private walk, in the recommendation of one man. And the more of people who use it to go to and from the Temple church do not amount to much anyway, except on election day. Marion county is not alone in having too many great men. The Baker City Democrat says: Candidates for state treasurer, governor and congressmen, all Republicans, and from Baker county, complicates matters, and makes it doubtful for the success of any of them. It was ever thus. At no time have the factions harmonized for the best interests of the party or country. There are too many great men in the Republican party in Baker county.

WHEN PAY DAY COMES What do you do with your money? How much of it do you save? Some of it goes for expenses, of course—and some for pleasure, but do you put away the remainder, be it little or much, where it will earn interest and be subject to your needs in the future? Living within your means and putting aside something for future needs is common sense wisdom. There are as many ways as you can, but be sure of laying aside something on pay day—pay days won't last forever. One of the best ways to save is to start a savings bank account. Whenever you can spare a dollar or more bring it to the bank. If you will do this regularly, in time you will have a competence.

School News

The C. B. C. basketball team played the Silverton High school team last Saturday evening. The game resulted in a score of 38 to 12 in favor of the Business College boys. It was a nice clean game, and well played. The Silverton boys lacked practice. The team has gone to play the Oak Grove team, in Polk county.

High School. The following new students have been enrolled during the last month: Miss Eva B. Starkey, a native of Illinois; Miss Matilin Amori, of Minnesota; Miss Aurelia Beck, formerly of Aurora, Oregon; Harry E. Petris, recently from Nebraska; John Amori, of Minnesota; Albert A. Hannigan and John C. Ferguson, of Polk county, near Salem.

The girls' basketball team played the Willamette girls' team last week. The girls played well, but, being in a strange gym, and one vastly different from the one they practiced in, they did not succeed to their own satisfaction, the score being 8 to 0 in favor of the Willamette girls.

A music class has been organized in the school, and Dr. Epley has volunteered his services free of charge as instructor, and taught his first lesson yesterday. He is taking up the rudiments, and expects to resume the chorus work next term, and to allow credit for the work.

The stage decorations that were put up for the try-out debate remained up until yesterday. They consisted of ribbons of crepe paper, draped in the shape of a fan at either side of the stage, from the center to the edge. The back was draped with the same. The south side was in the Diogenes colors, red and green, and the north in lavender and cream, the colors of the Demosthenes.

The two societies had a joint meeting yesterday evening, and were addressed by Mr. Marlette. He mostly advised them to get more life into their work and do a little more society work. Several more conventions have been asked to the assembly hall. The stage has been provided with a portable blackboard of good size. A large table has been placed in the front of the room near the stage, around which are several chairs. On the table are placed the dictionary and encyclopedia. The regular dictionaries have not arrived yet. There are to be copies of both Webster's and the Standard. The encyclopedia is the "Universal Encyclopedia and Atlas" and thoroughly up-to-date. The pupils make frequent use of them.

The class in medieval history has finished its regular course, and has commenced reviewing. The class is doing excellent work.

The plaster of the ceilings in the assembly hall and recitation rooms is white, and many of the pupils complain that it hurts their eyes.

The American history class spent the past week in listening to and discussing the special papers prepared recently. Probably some time will be spent in the same manner.

Mr. Horace Byles, who has been absent from school the past week, on account of sickness, has returned.

ENTERS POLITICAL FIELD

Hon. Alex LaFollett Announces Himself for Senator

To the Republicans of Marion County: At the solicitation of many friends I have concluded to place my name before the Republican voters of this county for the office of state senator. I don't know as I need any extended introduction to make the voters of this county, but for the benefit of newcomers I will simply state that I have been a resident of Mission Bottom almost a half century; have been a farmer all the time (not by proxy, but by deed). I have dug a farm out of the forest. By this I have helped to build up and develop this county. Then surely my interests are identical with the interests of the people of Marion county. I have been elected twice to the legislature from Marion county. I was a member of the session in 1887, also in 1903, and I respectfully refer the Republican voters of this county to my record in those two sessions, as to serving the people faithfully.

If nominated and elected I solemnly promise the people of this county that I will faithfully work for the interest of the people of Marion county and the state of Oregon, so that when my term of office shall expire, and I shall step down the steps of yonder capital, I shall merit the approbation "well done good and faithful servant," which I value more than all the gold of Ophir And, whether I am chosen or not as one of the Republican standard-bearers of Marion county, you will find me with my shoulder to the wheel, helping to roll up the big Republican majorities of Marion, for which she is noted.

Roosevelt advises people to live within their incomes, a piece of advice of advice that he should be able to follow without serious inconvenience.

Attorney Patrick, of New York, sentenced to death for the murder of William M. Rice, was reprieved Monday. There does not seem much probability of Patrick dying of anything unless it is old age.

The Oregonian tells how Sheriff Word is growing rich furnishing county prisoners poor meals. That is a subject as old as some other political gags, but it is always read with horror.
