TRACK VERSUS DIAMOND

The recent activity of the baseball men at the University has stirred up the track enthusiasts, who held a rousing meeting yesterday afternoon. Their aim is to do all in their power to put out a winning track team for Williams. To do this they would relegate baseball to the "busted shades of limbo" raise a large sum of money and secure a trainer the best man on the coast, in the person of "Dad" Moulton, of Stanford. They argue that there is much good material for a track team in the school, notwithstanding the miserable showing made last year, but there is not enough material to support both a baseball and track team.

Manager Glover is making an effort to arrange a good schedule of meets but wants to be assured that he will have the undivided support of the student body. In addition to the "Big Four" meet, which is to be held every year in this city, he thinks that he can arrange to bring the Washington State college, of Pullman, here, and also the University of Oregon. He would also secure a date with O. A. C. if possible.

A committee was appointed yesterday to investigate the proposition of raising sufficient funds to bring Moulton up from Stanford. Lounsberry, Gray and Nace were appointed on the committee. Nace is a baseball "send," and his appointment was a bit of strategy.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

By local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian tube. When the tube is inflamed you have a trembling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars free.

No Answer to That.

The woman of the house had asked the kitchen lady to step down to the corner store and purchase a bottle of olive oil.

"And be sure, Norah," she said, "to get the pure article."

"Yis, ma'am," responded Norah; "I'll look at it meself and see that it's pure."

"But you can't tell by looking at it."

"Sure I can tell whether it looks clane 'r not can't I?"

"Yes, but that wouldn't make it olive oil. I want the real article, and you have to pay more for that."

"Pwat's the difference, ma'am? If it's olive oil it's olive oil, ain't it, jist?"

"Norah, don't you know there's a great deal of imitation olive oil in the market?"

"How e'n that be, Mrs. Ma-arkley? Did ye iver see an imitation olive?"—Chicago Tribune.
