Cornell Incubators

We have secured the Salem agency for this great machine, and will be glad to show it to all intending buyers.

The Cornell is without doubt the best incubator on the market. At the Portland fair it took the highest award, and made the best hatch of all the machines there.

Finely made, it is an ornament to any house, and is perfectly safe; there being absolutely no danger of an explosion.

A Critical Moment.

"You were arrested for striking your wife."
"No, judge," answered the unworthy specimen of manhood who was on trial. "I had made a pass at her and she was just reachin' for the stove lid when the officers took me in charge. That wasn't an arrest. That was a rescue."—Washington Star.

Amusements

At the New Edison.

The Felice Davis Company is still drawing packed houses. Last night they played to a packed house. If you want to see something real good for a dime, you should not miss this bill. Miss Davis, as "Cigarette," is everywhere popular. Mr. J. A. Massie, the leading man, is of the kind that always pleases. Mr. B. S. Cobb, the fool of the camp, as a comedian, is perfect. Miss Lillian Melbourne, the famous character singer, gets her share of applause, and is warmly welcomed at every show.

Harry Moyer is singing the pictured ballad "Because He Loves His Mother," which he sings with great feeling. The serenade on the Edisonoscope is laughable from start to finish. Next week the Felice Davis Company will present "Galatea Up-to-date," a laughable comedy.

Gymnasium $1.00 per month... 12.00
Reading room, 5c per week... 2.70
Game room, 5c per week... 2.70

A member gets all this for $5.00. Do you wonder why about 75 young men have come into the association this month?

The association is the only young men's club in Salem where there is no gambling or drinking.

Sheriff's Sale a Success.

The sheriff's sale of property for delinquent taxes at the court house this morning was an unusual event in that line, inasmuch as every piece of property was sold. Bidders were promptly on hand at 10 o'clock, and before noon the sale was closed, every piece being sold by Sheriff Culver to bidders. There were 359 parcels of property advertised and the whole brought in over $1000 to be added to the revenues of the county. The new law on this subject seems to work well, and results in the property being all sold to individuals. The county was not obliged to bid one piece, and is now entirely free from property of this character.

Schoolship Saratoga Sails.

The ship is well equipped and the boys will have a fine outing, besides enjoying the benefit of the training, which is the principal object of the cruise.

Enthusiasm for Allen.

Within the past few days, since B. D. Allen has announced his candidacy for county clerk, there has been for county clerk there has been aroused considerable enthusiasm in his behalf in this vicinity. That he will get a hearty endorsement from the three Silverton precincts is a foregone conclusion. Mr. Allen, without doubt, will be the next county clerk. Not because Silverton is behind the movement, but because he is popular, and held in high esteem all over the county.—Silverton Appeal.

Fixed for Life.

"I can't understand how that young lawyer lives. I've never heard of him having a client."
"You haven't? Why he's one of the people who helped break old Bigerson's will. He doesn't need clients."—Chicago Record Herald.

Tribute to American Girl.

On January 5 the halls of congress rang with old time oratory when Hon. Ezekiel S. Candler Jr., of Missouri introduced resolutions calling for an investigation of the hazing practiced at the naval academy at Annapolis. In presenting the resolution Representative Candler, touching on the phase of cadet life which compelled a lower class man to desert from calling upon young women who were favored with calls from upper class men, took occasion to pay the following beautiful tribute to the American girl:

Said the eloquent speaker:
"I believe that there is nothing better in all the world than patriotic, brave and chivalrous American manhood except the loveliness and purity and the beauty of American womanhood (loud applause). Some one has said that when God made the American girl, 'He sent his angel messengers throughout all the star strown realms of space to gather all there was of beauty and brightness, of enchantment, of glamour. When these angels returned from their harvesting of beauty and threw down their glittering burden at His feet, He began in their wondering presence the fashioning of the American girl. He wrought with the gold and the gleam of the stars, shifting glories of the rainbow hues, and the pallid silver of the moon. He wrought with the crimson which swooned in the roses' rubied heart, with the pure sweet snow which gleams from the lily's petals, and the fires and the flames which flash and leap from the jewels' depths. Then, glancing deep into his own bosom, He took of the love which gleamed there like some rare pearl beneath the sun kissed waves of a summer sea, thrilled into the form He was fashioning, and all heaven and earth rejoiced, for lo! He had wrought the American girl.'"

The above is the practical idea. As a matter of fact the American girl is blended goods. A mixture of French, German, English, Swede, Irish and God, in his infinite wisdom, alone knows what; but whatever it is the above description is too weak. She is a delight to the eye, a fragrance to the nostrils, a divine harmony to the ear the honey of Hyreanum to the taste, and a galvanic battery charged with a million kinds of shocks, each more delightful than the other, to the touch. She is a down-sprouted angel without wings, and, thank God, she hasn't them, or she'd die away from the haunts of men and leave the world a blank and dismal void attached to the southeast corner of sheet for judicial purposes.

Spotted Her Beauty.

Harriet Howard, of W. 34th street, New York, at one time had her beauty spoiled with skin trouble. She writes: "I had salt rheum or eczema for years, but nothing would cure it, until I used Bucklen's Arnica Salve." A quick and sure healer for cuts, burns and sores. 25c at J. C. Perry's drug store.
