Excursions Every Hour.

In order to give the people of Salem an opportunity to see the beautiful country south of Salem, and to see the development being made by the company, the Citizens' Light & Traction Company will run excursion cars to the rock quarry, south of Odd Fellows' cemetery, leaving the Willamette hotel at even hours. Enjoy a pleasant ride, and see for yourself.

In Circuit Court.

Judge Galloway reconvened his department of the circuit court yesterday afternoon. His first docket entry was made when he granted a divorce to Mary A. Pruitt. Desertion was the reason given for the bringing of the suit.

The injunction suit of George J. Wolf vs. W. S. Hurst and H. A. Hinkle was argued after much testimony was taken, and the case submitted to the judge, who took it under advisement.

The case of the City of Salem vs. Hattie McGinnis, et al., will be argued Thursday at 9 a. m. Most of the houses on Ferry street are now closed, the birds having flown while the test cases are being settled.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

By local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian tube. When the tube is inflamed you have a trembling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars free.

Honor Memory of King Charles I.

London, Jan. 29.—Two hundred and fifty-seven years ago today King Charles I was executed and, as customary, the various Legitimate and Jacobite leagues and orders celebrated the anniversary of holding memorial meetings and depositing flowers at the foot of the statue of Charles I. on Trafalgar Square. A largely attended service was held in the morning in St. Margaret Patten's, Rood Lane. The officiating clergy was attended in red vestments, this being symbolical of the blood of the martyr. The service was almost identical with that of the Roman Catholic church, except that the prayers and responses were in English instead of Latin.

As has been the custom for several years, ever since some too ardent admirer of the martyr king had placed a wreath with an inscription containing seditious sentiments, at the foot of the statue, the wreaths and other floral gifts were first submitted for approval to the commissioner of woods and forests. As in former years there was a wreath from Edinburg bearing the inscription, "Sacred to the memory of King Charles I., beheaded by his rebellious subjects at Whitehall, January 30, 1649." Among the wreaths and other floral gifts sent in commemoration of the day were such from the Royal Oak club, Edinburg, the Forget-Me-Not club, the Legitimist Order of St. Germain, the Order of the White Rose, the Thames Valley Legitimist club, the White Cockade Legitimist club, Holywell, Huntingdonshire and other societies.

Sickening, Shivering Fits.

Of ague and malaria can be relieved and cured with Electric Bitters. This is a pure, tonic medicine, of especial benefit in malaria, for it exerts a true curative influence on the disease, driving it entirely out of the system. It is much to be preferred to quinine, having none of this drug's bad after effects. E. S. Munday, of Henrietta, Texas, writes: "My brother was very low with malarial fever and jaundice, till he took Electric Bitters, which saved his life." At J. C. Perry's drug store; price 50c, guaranteed.

State News

Dallas had a $2000 fire yesterday, a confectionery and restaurant having burned.

Colonel Cornelius Boir, an Oregon pioneer and a resident of Canby, died at his home Saturday of paralysis.

Negotiations are under way for a suitable piece of ground at Canby to put in a big race track. Portland sportsmen are backing the movement.

Arlington is to have a big flouring mill soon. The town is at the junction of the Condon railroad and the O. R. & N., and most of the wheat from the great Eastern Oregon country is shipped through this place.

Pleasant and Most Effective

T. J. Chambers, editor Vindicator, Liberty, Texas, writes December 25, 1905:

"With pleasure and unsolicited by you I bear testimony to the curative power of Ballard's Horehound Syrup. I have used it and my family can cheerfully affirm it is the most effective and best remedy for coughs and colds I have ever used." Sold by D. J. Fry.

Cannery to Be Organized.

The first meeting of the stockholders of the new co-operative cannery will be held at the police court room in the city hall Friday, February 2d, at 1 o'clock p. m. The object of this meeting will be the organization and completion of the corporation. All subscribers to stock are urged to be present.

Imperfect Digestion.

Means less nutrition and in consequence less vitality. When the liver fails to secrete bile, the blood becomes loaded with bilious properties, the digestion becomes impaired and the bowels constipated. Herbine will rectify this; it gives tone to the stomach, liver and kidneys, strengthens the appetite, clears and improves the complexion, infuses new life and vigor to the whole system. 50c a bottle. Sold by D. J. Fry.

An Entertainment Worth While.

The Blues in the Y. M. C. A. membership contest have transformed the rooms for tonight's entertainment into a dream of green and orange. The decorations have been under the charge of Mrs. Dr. Epley, assisted by Mrs. G. A. Forbes and a number of young men. The program tonight is free to all, and will consist of choice musical and literary numbers. Several surprises are planned in the way of novelties.

Cured Lumbago.

A. B. Cannon, Chicago, writes March 4, 1903, "Having been troubled with lumbago at different times and tried one physician after another, then different ointments and liniments, gave it up altogether. So I tried once more and got a bottle of Ballard's Snow Liniment, which gave me almost instant relief. I can cheerfully recommend it, and will add my name to your list of sufferers." Sold by D. J. Fry.

The Petaluma Incubator

A pretty shrewd business man of Salem, noticing a Petaluma incubator on our floor yesterday, remarked: "Why don't you stick that out in front and label it the 'mortgage raiser'?"

That's a good suggestion. It is a name the incubator has earned, and the good hens who lay the eggs for it, also.

Our incubator sales are highly satisfactory this year, and you make more honest money for the time expended with an incubator than most any other way.

Send for some literature and see how it strikes you, or come and see them on our floor.

The Grand Propelling Power

It is easy to see why the doctrine should be promulgated and followed that advertising is the soul of business; that the man who cannot use advertising in his business has no right to be in business; that, as Macanlay once said, advertising is to business what steam is to machinery, the grand propelling power. The story is told of a man who once came to a merchant to buy a remnant of cloth long out of fashion, with which to repair a garment. The merchant was delighted to be able to satisfy the new customer and asked, "How do you happen to come to me for this bagatelle?" The answer was, "I thought you would be the most likely man to have the sample because you never advertise." Our modern immense establishments take good care not to hide their light under a bushel. It is claimed that one of these establishments in the United States paid out $250,000 annually for advertisements in three newspapers alone, and the newspaper advertising expenses of the twelve largest retail stores have been estimated at $8,000,000 per annum.—V. Mataja in International Quarterly.

Pushed Ahead By Advertising

A British journal recently commented on the fact that whereas the tea grown in China was formerly the most popular, it now occupies second place, while Ceylon tea has become the favorite with all classes of people. The question, What has brought about this change of taste? is not, however, a difficult one to answer. As a prominent firm of dealers pointed out, Ceylon tea has been liberally advertised for some years, while the Chinese product has not been advertised at all. The change noted has been wrought during these years, and it is therefore reasonable to conclude that advertising is the principal cause thereof. As a result of advertising the consumption of Ceylon tea has increased so rapidly that in many cases China tea has practically been forced out of the market. Yet the actual difference in the quality of the two is not material.—Fruitful Advertising.

The same might be said of many merchants who have forged to the front by liberal and persistent advertising in newspapers. Such examples can be found in the columns of this paper.

Visit of Cook County Marching Club.

Nashville, Tenn., Jan. 30.—The Cook County Marching Club, 108 men strong and its famous band of 40 pieces, arrived here this morning on its return from Cuba to Chicago, and received by the local Democratic organizations with great enthusiasm. The Cook County Marching Club is composed of members of the Cook county Democracy, and was organized in 1882. This is the fifth southern tour of the club. The Cook County Democracy is an organization composed of 2000 Democrats, of Cook county, Ill., and has for many years taken active part in all political battles of the Democracy, not only in Chicago, but also in other cities in various parts of the country.

The marching club will spend the whole day in the city, and will be the guest of the local Democratic clubs and organizations. The program for the day includes a parade of the club through the principal streets of the city, a concert by the club's band, an automobile ride and a banquet. The club will start on its journey at 11 o'clock tonight.

Young America Caught On.

Children oftentimes are echoes of their parents. A case in point was observed recently. A woman entered a street car, accompanied by her small daughter, perhaps three years old. While the mother was busy reading the little tot rolled up a paper, and made believe she was talking through a telephone, and carried on both ends of the conversation. In a short time she was the center of attraction, and the dialogue she maintained was really amusing. Soon, however, the conditions changed, and apparently a neighborhood row was going on, as the little one in reply to a question of her own asking, said: "You just tell your mother for me that she is an idiot." The woman turned scarlet, and left the car at the next crossing.

Are you tired of paying Blunder Taxes?

Many a business man pays as much money for the luxury of blundering as a steam yacht or a private touring car would cost.

"Blunder Taxes" cannot be evaded—whatever else waits, these must be paid. If a business man gets into the habit of making the same blunders more than once, the taxes will soon amount to confiscation.

"Blunder Taxes" are levied with amazing frequency upon store advertisers. Among the blunders which are assessed at "full value" in advertising are these:

- Selection of poor mediums;
- Using too little space in good mediums;
- Devoting less attention to preparing the daily store advertisement than to the storing of some empty boxes in the basement;
- Stopping the ad altogether for one or more days now and then;
- Figuring the advertising appropriation on the basis of what you can "afford" after all other expenses are provided for;

The use of "programs," schemes, circulars, posters, fence-signs, placards and jim-cracks, under the impression that you are securing real publicity, and that somewhere, somehow, sometime someone will be influenced by some of these things to come to your store and buy something.
