ONCE INDIAN ALWAYS INDIAN.

Commissioner Leupp Says Much Education is Wasted on Redmen.

The Indian should be an Indian and nothing more. So says Commissioner of Indian Affairs Francis E. Leupp, in his annual report. He does not believe the Indian should be educated for higher professions in the great colleges of the country to the neglect of his social and practical learning.

His report is, beyond any doubt, the most interesting one ever received from the Indian office.

"The modern Indian," he says, "is bound to be like the Navajo Indian, from which all the Navajos have been expelled—nothing new thing nor the other. I like the Indian for what is Indian in him. I want him to retain all his old customs for longer, shorter, and longer when he has anything to do. I love the spirit of manly independence which makes a copper-colored man proud to be that he would interpose a proposal with the Great Father and through a proposal to send his children to their people, because it would perpetuate their young men, and make them slaves in the wilds."

Mr. Leupp declares that the common mistake of white men dealing with Indians is that they proceed upon the idea that his redness is merely a white man with a dusky skin. Another mistake is to class the Indian with the colored man.

Since he became Indian commissioner Mr. Leupp has appointed in several of the schools a teacher who supervises the study of native music. The object of the teacher is to lead the Indian back to the wild and patriotic thoughts of their forefathers.

"The Indian is a natural warrior, a natural fugitive, a natural artist," says the report. "We have room for all three in our highly organized social system. Let us not make the mistake in the process of absorbing them, of making out of them what we are. We are to be a nation of men, not a nation of slaves. Our aboriginal heritage brings us his contribution to the common store of civilization, a great deal which is valuable and which needs only to be developed along the right line. Our proper work with him is improvement, not transformation."

GOLDEN NUGGETS FOR SAILOR PEOPLE

OLD LINERS ORGANIZE

Republican Wheelhorses Meet and Reorganize Republican Club

President Gatch called the meeting to order and in a few remarks tendered his resignation as president of the club, owing to his being a candidate for office.

T. B. Kay then nominated J. J. Murphy for president, and there being no further nominations he was declared duly elected. Mr. Murphy on assuming the chair made a few remarks thanking the club for the honor, and stating that his election was a surprise to him, as he had understood that Congressman Geener had another man up his sleeve for the position.

Mr. Geener then nominated Dr. R. E. Lee Steiner for vice president, and he was duly elected.

Mr. Davey nominated W. W. Hall, the present secretary, to succeed himself, and he was duly elected.

Mr. Croisan nominated Eber La Forc for treasurer, and he was duly elected.

The next order of business was the appointment by the chair of a steering or executive committee, and Mr. Gatch spoke on the matter, and suggested the names of Mr. Croisan, Mr. Davey and Mr. Kay. The chair appointed Mr. Gatch, Mr. Croisan and Mr. Kay, but Mr. Gatch declined for the same reason that he resigned as president of the club. The chair then appointed Dr. J. N. Smith.

Mr. J. N. Smith made a few remarks in regard to a platform for the club, and after some discussion Mr. Smith moved that a committee of five be appointed by the chair, which was carried, and the chair stated he would take a little time to consider proper timber for such a committee and report at some later date.

Considerable discussion was brought out by Mr. Geer bringing up the matter of the direct primary law. Mr. Geer and Carey P. Martin defended the law as a whole, but other members present thought it was not a good law and not conducive to the harmony of the party. Those present were J. J. Murphy, Claude Gatch, J. C. Goswale, Jr., Lou Geener, Ed. Croisan, G. W. Jones, Carey P. Martin, Scott Wiggs, P. G. Hans, T. B. Kay, I. A. Manning, J. N. Smith, Charles Eigin, George P. Rogers, T. T. Geer, W. H. Turpley, L. Polson, C. H. Jones, Will Skipton, B. Donaldson, W. W. Hall, Frank Davey.

Carey P. Martin spoke in favor of the direct primary law and this caused quite a discussion. T. T. Geer and Professor C. H. Jones speaking for the law and other speakers taking grounds mostly against the law. Among the speakers were Frank Davey and I. A. Manning, of the Statesman, George P. Rodgers and J. N. Smith. The club adjourned subject to call of the chair.

TALKS ABOUT HEALTH

It was a very pointed talk that was given at the Y. M. C. A. last night, when Dr. E. G. Dalton addressed the Boys' Club. The boys of the club listened with much interest to the talk, and at the close were greatly interested in the X-ray pictures that were shown, and to the lecture given shortly under the same auspices.

Dr. Dalton spoke along health lines, talking up several habits that are detrimental to physical well-being. He explained how disease comes into the system and the importance of perfect health in fighting contagion. Two very practical suggestions were made by Dr. Dalton. One was that to help enforce the law against men spitting on the sidewalks, the city should provide large receptacles at the corners of the principal streets, and these should be cleaned with a strong antiseptic solution. The other was that all public school rooms should be closed tight at the close of the day's session and thoroughly fumigated before the next day's session began. In new school buildings the walls, desks and chairs, as well as the floor and ceiling, should be so constructed as to permit a thorough washing with anti-septic fluids. This would prevent much consumption now contracted in the school rooms. Ten per cent of all deaths are caused by consumption, and in 90 per cent of all post-mortem examinations it is found that consumption has been present at

DO YOU KNOW

That Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the only medicine sold through druggists for women's weakness and peculiar ailments that does not contain large quantities of alcohol? It is also the only medicine, especially prepared for the cure of the delicate diseases peculiar to women, the maker of which is not afraid to take his patients into his full confidence, by printing upon each bottle we wrap all the ingredients entering into the medicine. Ask your druggist if this is not true.

Favorable Prescription, too, is the only medicine for women, all the ingredients of which have the unqualified endorsement of the leading medical writers of the several schools of practice, recommending them for the cure of the diseases for which the "Prescription" is advised. Write to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., for a free booklet, and read the numerous extracts from standard medical authorities praising the several ingredients of which Dr. Pierce's medicine are made, and don't forget that no other medicine put up for sale through druggists for women's ailments can show any such professional endorsement. This, of itself, is of far more weight and importance than any amount of so-called "testimonial" so conspicuously flaunted before the public in favor of the alcoholic compounds.

The "Favorite Prescription" cures all women's peculiar weaknesses and derangements, thus banishing the periodical headaches, backaches, bearing-down distress, tenderness and dragging-down sensation in lower abdomen, accompanied by watery and disagreeable catarrhal, pelvic discharges and kindred symptoms.

Dr. Pierce and his staff of skilled specialists may be consulted free by addressing us above. All correspondence is treated as sacredly confidential. By consulting in this way the disagreeable questionings and personal "examinations" are avoided.

The People's Common Sense Medical Adviser contains some very interesting and valuable chapters on the diseases peculiar to women. It contains over one thousand pages. It is sent post paid, on receipt of sufficient in one-cent stamps to pay cost of mailing only, or 21 cents for a copy in flexible paper covers, or 31 cents for a cloth-bound copy. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce as above.

Dr. Pierce's Pills regulate and invigorate stomach, liver and bowels. One a laxative, two or three cathartic.

some time, although death may have been caused by some other disease. These practical talks that are being given to the members of the Boys' Club cannot help but be beneficial.

Refused to Advertise

A special to the Indianapolis News from Marion, Ind., says that after a hard fight of seventeen years against competitors who advertised, Gunder Bros., dry goods merchants, the oldest mercantile firm in Marion and at one time the largest retail house in northern Indiana, have given up the hopeless struggle and sold out their business.

When gas was discovered in Marion the town began to grow rapidly, and competition in all business was soon encountered by all the old local merchants. The new merchants advertised, but many of the old established firms were slow in believing that it was necessary for them to use printers' ink, as they knew nearly every man in the county. All of them who are now in business concluded that it was necessary to advertise in order to hold what trade they had and to increase it, except Gunder Bros., who absolutely refused, claiming it was money thrown away. The firm had the best business site in the city, but the store was never filled with shoppers. Thousands passed and repassed the place day after day without stopping. The firm carried an excellent line of goods and treated customers well, but only a few farmers and some of the old citizens of Marion patronized the place. The store is now closed for good.

Most merchants now agree that advertising is a necessity and that the best medium is the local paper.

Speculation vs. Investment. Some people believe in saving, but are not satisfied with reasonable returns on their money. They want to get rich in a night. They invest in all kinds of "get-rich-quick" schemes and usually pay dearly for their experience. It is useless to save money and then invest it where it will be lost, or where it cannot help but cause anxiety and worry. The wise man puts his savings in a good savings bank, where it is sure to earn a reasonable rate of interest, while he is accumulating more. He does not need to worry over such an investment. He knows his savings are secure. We pay three per cent interest compounded semi-annually on deposits of one dollar or more. Savings Department. CAPITAL NATIONAL BANK.
